Barry,2011-09-29 God is waiting Our hearts are wanting What must we do F r William Barry SJ believes that God wants an intimate relationship with each one of us and that the deepest desire of our own hearts is to have an intimate relationship with God Yet while we pursue this desire and long for its satisfaction we also resist it which can lead to a painful stagnancy How can we move forward In God s Passionate Desire Fr Barry serves as our spiritual director leading us on a series of brief retreats to help us understand the foundations of our relationship with God what threatens it and how we can

Novello,2019-11-01 In the past the passions were regarded as sicknesses of the soul due to Adam s sin As the Redeemer Christ shares in our humanity and experiences the passions but given his divine status he quickly overcomes the passions by his superior reason as the Word In effect Christ is displayed as a Stoic sage who is unperturbed by the passions The book is critical of this traditional perspective for its inability to think of the Incarnation as the Word s real participation in our humanity Christ is not a Stoic sage who displays an uninvolved holiness but the Word become flesh who displays an astonishing breadth and intensity of emotional life which reveals what it means for the fullness of divinity to dwell bodily in him Reformed theology moved beyond the traditional perspective in affirming the strong emotions of Christ as proof of his humanity but Christ's divinity was given insufficient attention The book proposes a complex view of Christ's emotions which are regarded not merely as proof of his humanity but reveal the personal attributes of divinity communicated to his humanity To observe Christ's emotions is to witness the mutual interaction of humanity and divinity in his person which accomplishes our salvation deification To imitate Christ then means that Christ's emotions become the emotions of his followers so that by seeing as God sees and feeling as God feels they go forth in obedience to Christ's commandment to love one another as he has loved us which is to live the way of the cross for the sake of the ongoing embodiment of God in the world      The Discover God Study Bible NLT

Tyndale, Bright Media Foundation, 2015-09-14 2008 ECPA Christian Book Award Winner Every problem in life is based on an incorrect view of God The Discover God Study Bible is the first study Bible specifically designed to address this problem Every note and feature draws the reader to a deeper understanding of who God is and how He can transform their life it features an easy to use TopicGuide to every major topic and teaching of the Bible      Passionate Embrace Elisabeth Gerle, 2017-05-12 Luther passion and sensualism In an age of body worship as well as body loathing Elisabeth Gerle explores new paths Protestant ethics has often been associated with work and duty excluding sensuality sexuality and other pleasures Gerle embarks on a conversation with Martin Luther in dialogue with contemporary theologians on attitudes toward body sensuality desire sexuality life and politics She draws on Eros theology to challenge traditional Lutheran stereotypes such as the dichotomies between different forms of love as well as between spirit and body Gerle argues that Luther's spiritual breakthrough where grace and gifts of creation became central provides new meaning to sex and desire as well as to work body and ordinary life Women are seen in new light as companions autonomous ethical agents part of the priesthood of all This had revolutionary consequences in medieval Europe and it represents a challenge to contemporary theologies with a nostalgic appetite for austerity asceticism and female submission Luther's erotic and gender fluid language is a healthy challenge to oppressive political structures centered on greed profit and competition A revised Scandinavian creation theology and a deep sense of the incarnational mystery are resources for contemporary theology and ethics      Go Deeper Ken Jung, 2013-12-01 Encountering God Leads to Spiritual Intimacy and Transformation Some believe that learning about God is like looking for something inside the refrigerator the air is cool and you can never find what you're looking for Or perhaps the word boring best describes your experience of studying theology Bible studies about knowing God are often mechanical and systematic In Go Deeper Ken Jung provides an alternative way story theology for experiencing God Go Deeper invites you to explore your relationship with God by placing yourself into the biblical narratives By doing so readers will encounter the God who passionately pursues us with His sovereignty holiness presence grace and love The result we are transformed in the process      Grace in the Wilderness Francis Wagner, 2014-11-11 You are not alone This is the promise of

God's Word God is prepared to meet us in the midst of life's struggles journey with us and lead us through the wilderness This is grace in the wilderness as the prophet Jeremiah wrote to give hope to the exiled Israelites Written by Benedictine monk Br Francis Wagner the scriptural reflections presented in Grace in the Wilderness simply retell this story The hope is that this book will help enhance readers own reflections on Scripture and its relation to their life so that they may experience grace in the wilderness the very presence of God

Divine Suffering Andrew J. Schmutz,2023-02-22

Divine Suffering is an inter disciplinary study that draws from systematics philosophy biblical theology and pastoral experience In addition to covering topics like the suffering of the Father in the Son and God's cruciform vulnerability this book also explores how divine suffering animates the Christian gospel and resonates in the ongoing persecution of believers The study of the suffering God has everything to do with Theology History and Church Mission Like exploring a cathedral from all its entrances both scholars and seekers will find ample opportunity for theological challenge biblical insight and missional hope To accomplish this both Scripture and doctrine are closely investigated Today divine suffering must face the contemporary realities of protest atheism escalating wars new studies in relational theology and dialogical personhood that presses the need to explain a Christian message about the kind of God who is not only transcendent but also personal Divine Suffering introduces us to the history of God not just the God of history In this study we meet a God available to our pain though not diminished by it Mounting forms of grief need to be met with an equally pastoral understanding that validates suffering without valorizing it

With Passionate Longing Thomas Price,2012-05

The goal of this book is to help create an intense desire to meet the Lord Jesus at the Lord's Supper on a regular basis just as He has a passionate longing to meet us there It has weekly meditations to help enrich that special time which can inflame a consistent devotion that can relight your candle It can be used as a launch pad by the pastor teacher or preacher for individual sermons and teachings on the Lord's Supper or simply a devotional companion for the Christian at home Some churches have a tendency to use the same meditation same Scripture and often the same songs every time they observe the Lord's Supper corporately This regular practice can become boring routine ritualistic and eventually meaningless without taking an approach to deflect that It helps to use a different meditation every time take a new outlook change the topic or use a new theme of our Lord's life and sacrifice and meditate on it though maintaining the foundation of Christ's sufferings and crucifixion

The Passionate Armor Vincent

Wisniewski,2012-05-22

The Prayer of Silence Alexander Ryrie,2012 Fairacres Publications 172 The cultivation of an inner life of prayer has always formed an essential part of the Christian way. Many long for silence and stillness yet the words contemplative prayer can seem to denote some specialist method of prayer. Sandy Ryrie using the more accessible phrase prayer of silence draws on Church tradition and on his own experience to describe this wordless way of praying.
