Loving And Leaving The Good Life:

Loving and Leaving the Good Life Helen Nearing, 1993-03-01 Helen and Scott Nearing authors of Living the Good Life and many other bestselling books lived together for 53 years until Scott's death at age 100. Loving and Leaving the Good Life is Helen's testimonial to their life together and to what they stood for: self-sufficiency, generosity, social justice, and peace. In 1932, after deciding it would be better to be poor in the country than in the city, Helen and Scott moved from New York City to Vermont. Here they created their legendary homestead, which they described in Living the Good Life: How to Live Simply and Sanely in a Troubled World, a book that has sold 250,000 copies and inspired thousands of young people to move back to the land. The Nearings moved to Maine in 1953, where they continued their hard physical work as homesteaders and their intense intellectual work promoting social justice. Thirty years later, as Scott approached his 100th birthday, he decided it was time to prepare for his death. He stopped eating, and six weeks later, Helen held him and said goodbye. Loving and Leaving the Good Life is a vivid self-portrait of an independent, committed, and gifted woman. It is also an eloquent statement of what it means to grow old and to face death quietly, peacefully, and in control. At 88, Helen seems content to be nearing the end of her good life. As she puts it: "To have partaken of and to have given love is the greatest of life's rewards. There seems never an end to the loving that goes on forever and ever. Loving and leaving are part of living." Helen's death in 1995 at the age of 92 marks the end of an era. Yet, as Helen writes in her remarkable memoir, "When one door closes, another opens. As we search for a new understanding of the relationships between death and life, this book provides profound insights into the question of how we age and die."

The Chelsea Green Reader Ben Watson, 2014-12-02 Chelsea Green the Vermont based independent publisher has always had a nose for authors and subjects that are way ahead of the cultural curve as is evident in this new anthology celebrating the company's first thirty years in publishing The more than one hundred books represented in this collection reflect the many distinct areas in which we have published from literature and memoirs to progressive politics to highly practical books on green building organic gardening and farming food and health and related subjects all of which reflect our underlying philosophy The politics and practice of sustainable living The Chelsea Green Reader offers a glimpse into our wide ranging list of books and authors and to the important ideas that they express Interesting and worth reading in their own right the individual passages when taken as a whole trace the evolution of a highly successful small publisher something that is almost an oxymoron in these days of corporate buyouts and multinational book groups From the beginning Chelsea Green's books were nationally recognized garnering positive reviews accolades and awards We've published four New York Times bestsellers and our books have set the standard for in depth how to books that remain relevant years often decades beyond their original publication date Chelsea Green was born from a single seed the beauty of craft Craft in writing and editing in a story well told or a thesis superbly expressed writes cofounder and publisher emeritus Ian Baldwin in the book's foreword Today craft continues to inform all aspects of our work design illustration production sales promotion and beyond It has even informed our business model In 2012 Chelsea Green became an employee owned company With the rise of the Internet new media platforms and a constantly shifting bookselling landscape the future of publishing is anything but predictable But if Chelsea Green's books prove anything it is that despite these challenges there remains a hunger for new and important ideas and authors and for the permanence and craftsmanship of the printed word Today our ongoing mission is stronger than ever as we launch into our next thirty years of publishing excellence Up

Tunket Road Philip Ackerman-Leist, 2010-05-14 Ever since Thoreau's Walden the image of the American homesteader has been of someone getting away from civilization of forging an independent life in the country Yet if this were ever true what is the nature and reality of homesteading in the media saturated hyper connected 21st century For seven years Philip Ackerman Leist and his wife Erin lived without electricity or running water in an old cabin in the beautiful but remote hills of western New England Slowly forging their own farm and homestead they took inspiration from their experiences among the mountain farmers of the Tirolean Alps and were guided by their Vermont neighbors who taught them about what it truly means to live sustainably in the postmodern homestead not only to survive but to thrive in a fragmented landscape and a fractured economy Up Tunket Road is the inspiring true story of a young couple who embraced the joys of simple living while also acknowledging its frustrations and complexities Ackerman Leist writes with humor about the inevitable foibles of setting up life off the grid from hauling frozen laundry uphill to getting locked in the henhouse by their ox But he also weaves an instructive narrative that contemplates the future of simple living His is not a how to guide but something much richer and more important a tale of discovery that will resonate with readers who yearn for a better more meaningful life whether they live in the city country or somewhere in between Un-Jobbing Michael L Fogler, 2003-09-16 Is the Sacred for Sale

Alison M Johnston, 2014-10-14 Definitely a book that sheds light on perspectives and perceptions about today's global economy A must read for tourists and corporations alike also heads of state the media and environment groups all of whom need to be informed on this key subject Chief Garry John Chair and Spokesperson St at imc Chiefs Council an activist's call to action on behalf of people who have been made invisible in the merciless spread of globalization under corporate control Nina Rao Southern Co Chair of the Tourism Caucus at the UN Commission on Sustainable Development and Professor of Tourism A powerful and much needed tool to fight the seemingly all pervasive ignorance in the corporate and consumer driven world that continues to hail ecotourism and other tourism alternatives as beneficial to local people without looking at the root causes of problems Anita Pleumarom Tourism Investigation and Monitoring Team Bangkok Tourism is the fastest growing industry in the world Ecotourism often considered a more benign form of tourism can in fact cause the most damage as it targets more vulnerable environments and cultures Is the Sacred for Sale looks at our present crossroads in consumer society It analyses the big questions of tourism clarifying how tourism can support biodiversity conservation It also offers a cross cultural window to the divide between corporate thinking and sacred knowledge to help us understand why collisions over resources and land use are escalating Finally we have a full spectrum of information for healthy dialogue and new relationships This book is a profound wake up call to the business world and to decision makers who shape current policy It poses important questions to us all and is a must read for every tourist and traveller Notable American Women Susan Ware,2004 This latest volume brings the project up to date with entries on almost 500 women whose death dates fall between 1976 and 1999 You will find here stars of the golden ages of radio film dance and television scientists and scholars civil rights activists and religious leaders Native American craftspeople and world renowned artists For each subject the volume offers a biographical essay by a distinguished authority that integrates the woman s personal life with her professional achievements set in the context of larger historical developments American Environmental Leaders: M-Z Anne Becher,2008 A collection of biographies of the most important figures in American environmentalism from publisher description Stories of Home Devika Chawla, Stacy Holman Jones,2015-09-17 Stories of Home Place Identity Exile offers a window into the distinct ways that home is theorized and conceptualized across disciplines The essays in this volume consider how people speak and story home in their everyday lives why home is central to our notion of who we are and how making home a unit of analysis in research makes a strong conceptual contribution to the field of communication This collection engages home from diverse contexts and disparate philosophical underpinnings at the same time the essays converse with each other by centering their foci on the relationship between home place identity and exile Home how we experience it and what it says about the selves we come to occupy is an exigent question of our contemporary moment Stories of Home Place Identity Exile delivers timely and critical perspectives on these important questions Vegetarian Times ,1992-05 To do what no other magazine does Deliver simple delicious food plus expert health and lifestyle information that s exclusively vegetarian but wrapped in a fresh stylish mainstream package that s inviting to all Because while vegetarians are a great vital passionate niche their healthy way of eating and the earth friendly values it inspires appeals to an increasingly large group of Americans VT s goal To embrace both The Green Revolution ,1995 Includes supplements and inserts The Friendly Woman ,1993 Down East ,2007-04
