was largely a debatable fiction the identification of symbolic styles using Mary to reveal the habits of representation in each historical period The link between the image of Mary Stuart and Britain's long struggle to define itself as a single nation focusing on the roles of gender and religion in this development Poetic Relations Constance M. Furey, 2017-06-05 What is the relationship between our isolated and our social selves between aloneness and interconnection Constance M Furey probes this question through a suggestive literary tradition early Protestant poems in which a single speaker describes a solitary search for God As Furey demonstrates John Donne George Herbert Anne Bradstreet and others describe inner lives that are surprisingly crowded teeming with human as well as divine companions The same early modern writers who bequeathed to us the modern distinction between self and society reveal here a different way of thinking about selfhood altogether For them she argues the self is neither alone nor universally connected but is forever interactive and dynamically constituted by specific relationships By means of an analysis equally attentive to theological ideas social conventions and poetic form Furey reveals how poets who understand introspection as a relational act and poetry itself as a form ideally suited to crafting a relational self offer us new ways of thinking about selfhood today and a resource for reimagining both secular and religious ways of being in the world Arundel Эдвард Фредерик Бенсон, 2017-05-02 Arundel by E F Benson Published by Good Press Good Press publishes a wide range of titles that encompasses every genre From well known classics literary fiction and non fiction to forgotten or yet undiscovered gems of world literature we issue the books that need to be read Each Good Press edition has been meticulously edited and formatted to boost readability for all e readers and devices Our goal is to produce eBooks that are user friendly and accessible to everyone in a high quality digital format Love in the Time of Revolution Andrew Robert Lee Cayton, 2013 Love in the Time of Revolution Transatlantic Literary Radicalism and Historical Change 1793 1818
