Jerath, Rajinder Jerath, 2020-08-26 Homicide represents the result of an exhaustive search of the world literature regarding homicide More than 7 000 entries have been compiled from references selected from major indexes in libraries from outstanding universities government agencies and military posts science libraries law libraries and the Library of Congress Each entry features a one or two word annotation that indicates whether it is an article or a book and all entries conform to the American Psychological Association stylebook guidelines Key word and author indexes provide quick access to works pertaining to particular subjects or by a certain author Colonial Mediascapes Matthew Cohen, Jeffrey Glover, 2014-04-01 In colonial North and South America print was only one way of communicating Information in various forms flowed across the boundaries between indigenous groups and early imperial settlements Natives and newcomers made speeches exchanged gifts invented gestures and inscribed their intentions on paper bark skins and many other kinds of surfaces No one method of conveying meaning was privileged and written texts often relied on nonwritten modes of communication Colonial Mediascapes examines how textual and nontextual literatures interacted in colonial North and South America Extending the textual foundations of early American literary history the editors bring a wide range of media to the attention of scholars and show how struggles over modes of communication intersected with conflicts over religion politics race and gender This collection of essays by major historians anthropologists and literary scholars demonstrates that the European settlement of the Americas and European interaction with Native peoples were shaped just as much by communication challenges as by traditional concerns such as religion economics and resources Monthly Murders , 1982-02-25 Product information not available The Films of the Eighties Robert A.
