On Freedom Eileen Barker, 2021-12-24 The London School of Economics and Political Science has embraced the full range of the social sciences and its related disciplines Contributors to this book were invited to write on the subject of freedom

Freedom in Practice Moises Lino e Silva, Huon Wardle, 2016-11-25 Freedom is one of the most fiercely contested words in contemporary global experience This book provides an up to date overview from an anthropological perspective of the diverse ways in which freedom is understood and practised in everyday life including the emergent relationships between governance autonomy and liberty The contributors offer a wealth of ethnographic insight from a variety of geographic cultural and political contexts Taken together the essays constitute a radical challenge to assumptions about what freedom means in today's world

Minoritarian Liberalism Moisés Lino e Silva, 2022-04-04 A mesmerizing ethnography of the largest favela in Rio where residents articulate their own politics of freedom against the backdrop of multiple forms of oppression Normative liberalism has promoted the freedom of privileged subjects those entitled to rights usually white adult heteronormative and bourgeois at the expense of marginalized groups such as Black people children LGBTQ people and slum dwellers In this visceral ethnography of Rocinha the largest favela in Rio de Janeiro Brazil Moisés Lino e Silva explores what happens when liberalism is challenged by people whose lives are impaired by normative understandings of liberty He calls such marginalized visions of freedom minoritarian liberalism a concept that stands in for overlapping alternative modes of freedom be they queer favela or peasant Lino e Silva introduces readers to a broad collective of favela residents most intimately accompanying Natasha Kellem a charismatic self-declared travesti a term used in Latin America to indicate a specific form of female gender construction opposite to the sex assigned at birth While many of those the author meets consider themselves queer others are treated as abnormal simply because they live in favelas Through these interconnected experiences Lino e Silva not only pushes at the boundaries of anthropological inquiry but also offers ethnographic evidence of non-normative routes to freedom for those seeking liberties against the backdrop of capitalist exploitation transphobia racism and other patterns of domination

Father and Daughter Ann Oakley, 2014-10-22 Father and daughter provides an unique insider perspective on two key figures in twentieth century British social science Ann Oakley a highly respected sociologist and best-selling writer draws on her own life and that of her father Richard Titmuss a well-known policy analyst and defender of the welfare state to offer an absorbing view of the connections between private lives and public work Using an innovative mix of biography autobiography intellectual history archives and personal interviews some of which have not been previously available to the public she provides a compelling narrative about gender patriarchy methodology and the politics of memory and identity This fascinating analysis defies the usual social science publications to offer a truly distinctive account which will be of wide interest
