of true illumination similar to Apollo and other sun gods in pagan worship This journey was also one of self discovery for Rahn He found such a faithful echo of his own innermost beliefs in the lives of the heretics of the past that he eventually called himself a Cathar and nurtured ambitions of restoring that faith which had been cruelly destroyed in the fires of the Inquisition His journeys on assignment for the Reich including researching an alleged entrance to Hollow Earth in Iceland and searching for the true mission of Lucifer in the caves of southern France that served as refuge for the Cathars during the Inquisition also led to his disenchantment with his employers and his mysterious death in the mountains after his break with the Nazis
