Ludells New York Time:

Ludell's New York Time Brenda Scott Wilkinson, 1980 Ludell moves from Georgia to New York City during spring of her senior year and struggles to adjust to life in Harlem

Encyclopedia of African American Women Writers Yolanda Williams Page, 2007-01-30 African American women writers published extensively during the Harlem Renaissance and have been extraordinarily prolific since the 1970s This book surveys the world of African American women writers Included are alphabetically arranged entries on more than 150 novelists poets playwrights short fiction writers autobiographers essayists and influential scholars The Encyclopedia covers established contemporary authors such as Toni Morrison and Gloria Naylor along with a range of neglected and emerging figures Each entry is written by an expert contributor and provides a brief biography a discussion of major works a survey of the author's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies Literature students will value this book for its exploration of African American literature while social studies students will appreciate its examination of social issues through literature African American women writers have made an enormous contribution to our culture Many of these authors wrote during the Harlem Renaissance a particularly vital time in African American arts and letters while others have been especially active since the 1970s an era in which works by African American women are adapted into films and are widely read in book clubs Literature by African American women is important for its aesthetic qualities and it also illuminates the social issues which these authors have confronted This book conveniently surveys the lives and works of African American women writers Included are alphabetically arranged entries on more than 150 African American women novelists poets playwrights short fiction writers autobiographers essayists and influential scholars Some of these figures such as Toni Morrison and Gloria Naylor are among the most popular authors writing today while others have been largely neglected or are recently emerging Each entry provides a biography a discussion of major works a survey of the writer's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies The Encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography Students and general readers will welcome this guide to the rich achievement of African American women Literature students will value its exploration of the works of these writers while social studies students will appreciate its examination of the social issues these women confront in their works

The New York Times Book Review, 1981

Young Adult Fiction by African American Writers, 1968-1993 Deborah Kutenplon, Ellen Olmstead, 2014-04-08 Comprehensive and up to date The first contemporary publication to go beyond examining broad themes and trends in the field this timely volume looks closely at specific authors and texts The book is comprehensive and as current as possible covering works by African American authors for young adults published between 1968-1993 some 200 titles by close to 50 writers In addition to established authors and bestselling titles the coverage includes material overlooked by previous studies such as works from small presses and talented new authors Guidelines for evaluation An extensive introduction reviews important milestones in this body of literature and analyzes noteworthy bibliographical and critical publications about such writing It includes suggested guidelines for evaluating a work in terms of its direct and indirect treatment of such issues as race gender class ability age sexuality and sexual orientation The book also offers specific guidance for determining the appropriate readership for a work with regard to age and gender Unusually extensive annotations The main body of the book is an annotated bibliography alphabetical by author with the works arranged chronologically by publication date The annotations are much more extensive than those in other bibliographies Each annotation reads more like a full length book review and is from one to two pages long and explores themes plot and character development evaluates the quality of the writing judges the handling of issues of race class and gender and provides a readership recommendation Written in accessible language this user friendly book presents a wide range of factual information evaluations and analyses It is a valuable tool for all teachers librarians counselors and young adults

Black Authors and Illustrators of Books for Children and Young Adults Barbara Thrash Murphy, 1999 The Third Edition of this renowned reference work illuminates African American contributions to the genre of books for children and young adults with the biographies of 274 authors and artists including 121 new biographies not included in previous editions The book presents the user with a rich source of accessible in depth biographical data on each individual author or artist including birthplace education their approach to art or literature career development and awards and honors received Over 160 photographs of the subjects bring the biographies to life and 46 covers of important children s books are reproduced Also included is a comprehensive index of books an index of authors and illustrators and useful listings of publishers distributors and bookstores arranged by state Teaching U.S. History Through Children's Literature Wanda Miller, 1998-11-15 Similar to U S History Through Children s Literature From the Colonial Period to World War II in format and approach historical fiction and nonfiction are integrated into modern U S History For each of these topics Miller suggests two or more titles one for use with the entire class and one for use with small reading groups Summaries of the books author information activities and topics for discussion are supplemented with vocabulary lists and ideas for research topics and further reading This integrated approach makes history more meaningful to students and helps them retain historical details and facts by immersing them in stories surrounding historical events A well researched and thorough resource

Comics to Classics Arthea J. S. Reed, 1994-10-01 For each developmental stage between the ages of 10 and 18 educator Arthea J S Reed provides lists of books organized by genre and carefully selected for teen appeal In addition to a detailed bibliography Reed focuses on the particular challenges for each age group and highlights strategies for parents to persuade their children to read This guide will help parents and teachers choose the right books for every reading level and interest The Book of Jezebel Anna Holmes, Kate Harding, 2025-05-01 From Jezebel com the popular website for women comes a must read encyclopedic guide to pop culture feminism fashion sex and much more Within months of Jezebel s May 2007 appearance on the new media scene fans of the blog began referring to themselves as Jezzies in comment threads and organizing reader meet ups in cities all over the world By 2008 the devotion of the self appointed Jezzies reached such a fever pitch that the New York Times ran a feature story about them and parody blogs and copycat websites began popping up right and left With contributions from the writers and creatives who give the site its distinctive tone and broad influence The Book of Jezebel is an encyclopedia of everything important to the modern woman Running the gamut from Abzug Bella and Baby sitters Club The to Xena Yogurt and Zits and filled with entertaining sidebars and arresting images this is a must read for the modern woman Shadow and Substance Rudine Sims,Rudine Sims Bishop,1982 The purpose of this monograph by providing background information on the contributions of African Americans to children's and young adult literature. Identifying books written and illustrated by black writers and artists, her book helps to identify those works especially appropriate for caregivers and young readers, their parents, teachers, and other nurturers, and to provide meaningful responses to questions regarding the identification of indigenous textual and graphic materials for young readers and students. The contents represent numerous works published during the 20th century up to the beginning of 1990. Fifth Book of Junior Authors & Illustrators Sally Holmes Holtze, 1983. Comprises 239 sketches of authors and illustrators of young people's books who have come to prominence since the previous volume. The New York Times Index, 1944.

Masterplots II. Frank Northen Magill, 1991. Young People's Books in Series Judith K. Rosenberg, C. Allen Nichols, 1992. This volume describes and lists series published for young people from early elementary grades through high school. Fiction series from 1976 through 1990 and new titles in existing series through 1991 are included as well as nonfiction series which are limited to in print titles only. Join In Donald R. Gallo, 2011-03-30. Here are seventeen original short stories that reflect young adults' views on friendships and prejudice, expectations and disappointments, and connections and confrontations.
