G. Lorenz, 2003 A fresh collection of essays on the work of one of the leading figures of the Viennese fin de siècle This volume of specially commissioned essays takes a fresh look at the Viennese Jewish dramatist and prose writer Arthur Schnitzler Fascinatingly Schnitzler's productive years spanned the final phase of the Habsburg monarchy World War I the First Austrian Republic and the rise of National Socialism and he realized earlier than many of his contemporaries the threat that racist anti-Semitism posed to the then almost complete assimilation of Austrian Jews His writings also reflect the irresolvable conflict between emerging feminism and the relentless scientific discourse of misogyny and he chronicles the collapse of traditional social structures at the end of the Habsburg monarchy and the struggles of the newly founded republic In the 1950s Schnitzler's powerful literary record assumed model character for Viennese Jewish intellectuals born after the Shoah and his portrayal of gender relations and role expectations and casual sex are received with the same fascination today as they were by the audiences of his own time Schnitzler remains a major figure in contemporary European culture as his works are still widely read performed and adapted witness Stanley Kubrick's adaptation of Schnitzler's Traumnovelle as the 1999 film Eyes Wide Shut In this volume a team of international scholars explores Schnitzler's dramas and prose works from contemporary critical vantage points but within the context of Austria's multicultural society at a time of unprecedented change Contributors Gerd Schneider Evelyn Deutsch Schreiner Elizabeth Loentz Iris Bruce Felix Tweraser Elizabeth Ametsbichler Hillary Hope Herzog Katherine Arens John Neubauer Imke Meyer Susan C Anderson Eva Kuttenberg and Matthias Konzett Dagmar C G Lorenz is professor of German at the University of Illinois Chicago Books in Print Supplement ,2002 Vittoria Colonna and the Spiritual Poetics of the Italian Reformation Abigail Brundin, 2016-02-11 Vittoria Colonna was one of the best known and most highly celebrated female poets of the Italian Renaissance Her work went through many editions during her lifetime and she was widely considered by her contemporaries to be highly skilled in the art of constructing tightly controlled and beautifully modulated Petrarchan sonnets In addition to her literary contacts Colonna was also deeply involved with groups of reformers in Italy before the Council of Trent an involvement which was to have a profound effect on her literary production In this study Abigail Brundin examines the manner in which Colonna's poetry came to fulfil in a groundbreaking and unprecedented way a reformed spiritual imperative disseminating an evangelical message to a wide audience reading vernacular literature and providing a model of spiritual verse which was to be adopted by later poets across the peninsula She shows how through careful management of an appropriate literary persona Colonna's poetry was able to harness the power of print culture to extend its appeal to a much broader audience In so doing this book manages to provide the vital link between the two central facets of

Vittoria Colonna's production her poetic evangelism and her careful construction of a gendered identity within the literary culture of her age The first full length study of Vittoria Colonna in English for a century this book will be essential reading for scholars interested in issues of gender literature religious reform or the dynamics of cultural transmission in sixteenth century Italy It also provides an excellent background and contextualisation to anyone wishing to read Colonna's writings or to know more about her role as a mediator between the worlds of courtly Petrarchism and religious reform
