The Trafficking of Children Elizabeth A. Faulkner,2023-04-10 The phenomenon of child trafficking holds a unique position as an issue of significant contemporary relevance occupying a principal place in debates about human rights today The interchangeable terms trafficking and modern slavery evoke emotive responses and proclamations about abolition of contemporary ills viewed as the ultimate aberration when a child is involved The classification of children under legal frameworks marks them as different as other and in the context of laws implemented to address trafficking slavery and children on the move more generally this distinction is complicated This book charts the emergence decline and re emergence of child trafficking law and policy during the twentieth and twenty first centuries It provides a systematic and comprehensive overview of the historical origins of child trafficking by utilising the wealth of information located within the non digitised archives of the League of Nations It focusses upon the Committee on the Traffic in Women and Children to engage with League of Nations policy to provide an insightful and original contribution to the current body of literature This is a book that seeks to critique the entanglements of children s rights and colonialism in relation to the mobility and exploitation of children It centralises the legacy of colonialism the undercurrents of race white supremacy patriarchy and their ongoing influence upon contemporary anti trafficking legal and policy responses Through utilizing what the author identifies as the anti trafficking machine as a theoretical framework the book challenges contemporary law and policy responses to child trafficking This theoretical framework has been adopted to illustrate a central hypothesis of the book that the contemporary anti trafficking agenda is both imperialist and a continuity of colonial attitudes

Patrick Blanc botanist and artist is world famous as the inventor of the Vertical Garden this new updated edition of his book includes his latest achievements and projects which are bolder than ever Fieldnotes in the Critical Study of Religion Richard Newton, Vaia Touna, 2023-05-18 This book introduces students to the so called classics of the field from the 19th and 20th centuries whilst challenging readers to apply a critical lens Instead of representing scholars and their works as virtually timeless each contributor provides sufficient background on the classic work in question so that readers not only understand its novelty and place in its own time but are able to arrive at a critical understanding of whether its approach to studying religion continues to be useful to them today Scholars discussed include Muller Durkheim Freud and Eliade Fieldnotes in the Critical Study of Religion Revisiting Classical Theorists therefore offers a novel way into writing both a history and ethnography of the discipline helping readers to see how it has changed and inviting them to consider what if anything endures and thereby unites these diverse authors into a common field Migrant Women and Work Anuja Agrawal, 2006-05-10 This volume is focused on Asian women who migrate either globally or across the Asian continent or within their respective countries in order to seek work The contributors cover a broad terrain of issues including the changing gender composition of migration streams the motivations of individual migrants the different outcomes of male and female migration and discernible patterns in the migration of women The distinguishing feature of this collection of original essays and case studies is that it concentrates on solo migrant women The contributors show that even though migration involves moving away from their homes the family both as an institution and an ideology constraints and shapes the choices of migrant women Additionally the case studies demonstrate that gender ideologies remain highly resistant to modification even consequent to a radical alteration in the household division of labour owing to women s migration On the other hand women see migration as a way of achieving greater autonomy as well as fulfilling a role as a responsible adult Overall the volume argues that the structural ramifications of women s migration extend beyond the lives of the migrant women themselves in so far as their labour plays an important role in shaping gender relations in the societies of both the migrants and their hosts An important contribution to the literature on migration this volume will attract the attention of all social scientists but particularly those studying migration gender family labour sociology and anthropology Post-War Prostitution Roos de Wildt, 2019-08-12 Amidst ongoing allegations of inappropriate behavior and trafficking during UN peacekeeping missions this volume takes a step back to analyze the post war and peacekeeping contexts in which prostitution flourishes Using ethnographic research conducted in Kosovo from 2011 to 2015 this book offers an alternate understanding of the growth of the sex industry in the wake of war It features in depth interviews with the diverse women engaged in prostitution with those facilitating it and with police prosecutors and gynecologists Drawing on the perspectives of women engaged in prostitution in the wake of war this volume argues that the depiction of these women as victims of trafficking in the hegemonic discourse does more harm than good Instead it outlines the complex set of circumstances and choices that emerge in the context of a growing post war sex economy Extrapolating the conclusions from the study of Kosovo this book is a valuable resources for researchers and practitioners studying the aftermath of war in the Balkans and beyond and researchers engaged with the function of the UN and peacekeeping missions internationally
