Nation And Migration The Politics Of Space In The South Asian Diaspora:

Nation and Migration Peter van der Veer,1995 Peter van der Veer and the contributors to this volume explore the relationship between South Asian nationalism migration ethnicity and the construction of religious identity Although nationality and diaspora seem to represent opposite ideas and values the authors argue that nationalism is strengthened even produced by migration

South Asians in the Diaspora Knut A. Jacobsen,Pratap Kumar,2018-08-14 This volume deals with a phenomenon of increasing global significance the South Asian diaspora In particular it deals with the role of religion The diversity of religious life in South Asia is remarkable and much of this diversity is replicated in the diaspora communities around the world The case studies in this book explore and analyse the social religious and cultural reality of people in the diaspora belonging to Jainism Buddhism Hinduism Christianity Islam Sikhism and Zoroastrianism and originating from four of the South Asian nation states India Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka The book highlights the religious diversity that exists in the diaspora communities both across the traditions and within the particular religions

Global Diasporas Robin Cohen,2008-03-17 In a perceptive and arresting analysis Robin Cohen introduces his distinctive approach to the study of the world s diasporas This book investigates the changing meanings of the concept and the contemporary diasporic condition including case studies of Jewish Armenian African Chinese British Indian Lebanese and Caribbean people The first edition of this book had a major impact on diaspora studies and was the foundational text in an emerging research and teaching field This second edition extends and clarifies Robin Cohen s argument addresses some critiques and outlines new perspectives for the study of diasporas It has also been made more student friendly with illustrations guided readings and suggested essay questions

Global Indian Diasporas Gijbert Oonk,2007 Global Indian Diasporas discusses the relationship between South Asian emigrants and their homeland the reproduction of Indian culture abroad and the role of the Indian state in reconnecting emigrants to India Focusing on the limits of the diaspora concept rather than its possibilities this volume presents new historical and anthropological research on South Asian emigrants worldwide From a comparative perspective examples of South Asian emigrants in Suriname Mauritius East Africa Canada and the United Kingdom are deployed in order to show that in each of these regions there are South Asian emigrants who do not fit into the Indian diaspora concept raising questions about the effectiveness of the diaspora as an academic and sociological index and presenting new and controversial insights in diaspora issues

Encyclopedia of Diasporas Melvin Ember,Carol R. Ember,Ian Skoggard,2004-11-30 Immigration is a topic that is as important among anthropologists as it is the general public Almost every culture has experienced adaptation and assimilation when immigrating to a new country and culture usually leaving for what is perceived as a better life Not only does this diaspora change the country of adoption but also the country of origin Many large nations in the world have absorbed and continue to absorb large numbers of immigrants The foreseeable future will see a continuation of large scale immigration as many countries experience civil war and secessionist pressures Currently there is no reference work that describes the impact upon the immigrants and the immigrant societies relevant to the world's cultures and provides an overview of important topics in the world's diasporas. The encyclopedia consists of two volumes covering three main sections. Diaspora Overviews covers over 20 ethnic groups that have experienced voluntary or forced immigration. These essays discuss the history behind the social, economic and political reasons for leaving the original countries and the cultures in the new places. Topics discusses the impact and assimilation that the immigrant cultures experience in their adopted cultures, including the arts they bring, the struggles they face, and some of the cities that are in the forefront of receiving immigrant cultures. Diaspora Communities include over 60 portraits of specific diaspora communities. Each portrait follows a standard outline to facilitate comparisons. The Encyclopedia of Diasporas can be used both to gain a general understanding of immigration and immigrants and to find out about particular cultures, topics and communities. It will prove of great value to researchers and students, curriculum developers, teachers and government officials. It brings together the disciplines of anthropology, social studies, political studies, international studies and immigrant and immigration studies.

Indian Classical Dance and the Making of Postcolonial National Identities Sitara Thobani, 2017-03-27. Indian Classical Dance and the Making of Postcolonial National Identities explores what happens when a national cultural production is reproduced outside the immediate social, political and cultural context of its origin. Whereas most previous studies have analysed Indian classical dance in the context of Indian history and culture, this volume situates this dance practice in the longstanding transnational linkages between India and the UK. What is the relation between the contemporary performance of Indian classical dance and the constitution of national diasporic and multicultural identity? Where and how does Indian dance derive its productive power in the postcolonial moment? How do diasporic and nationalist representations of Indian culture intersect with depictions of British culture and politics? It is argued that classical Indian dance has become a key aspect of not only postcolonial South Asian diasporic identities but also of British multicultural and transnational identity. Based on an extensive ethnographic study of performances of Indian classical dance in the UK, this book will be of interest to scholars of anthropology, sociology, South Asian studies, Postcolonial Transnational and Cultural studies and Theatre and Performance studies.

Transcultural Europe U. Meinhof, 2006-06-23. What are the key issues facing the makers of European cultural policy in the 21st century? How is cultural policy at the metropolitan, national and European level addressing recent developments that are complicating the cultural and social realities of contemporary Europe? This book offers an innovative assessment of these questions and aims to provoke debates about the way forward for cultural policy in Europe. Based on extensive theoretical and empirical research by an interdisciplinary team of international scholars, this volume critically addresses the way in which cultural policy has evolved until now and develops new conceptual and theoretical perspectives for re-imagining cultural change and complexity. The book offers an interesting set of studies on transcultural flows between some major European metropolises such as Berlin, London and Paris on the rather closed realities of other European capitals like Rome or Ljubljana as well as on new cultural trends emerging in cities both at the heart and at the periphery of Europe Vienna and Belgrade Each contribution questions the relationship between cultural diversity cultural policy and immigration The book thus provides new insights into the limitations of the national framework for cultural policy and into the emerging transnational dynamics in European cities Indian Liberalism between Nation and Empire Elena Valdameri,2022-03-10 This book analyses the political thought and practice of Gopal Krishna Gokhale 1866 1915 preeminent liberal leader of the Indian National Congress who was able to give a global voice to the Indian cause Using liberalism nationalism cosmopolitanism and citizenship as the four main thematic foci the book illuminates the entanglement of Gopal Krishna Gokhale s political ideas and action with broader social political and cultural developments within and beyond the Indian national frame The author analyses Gokhale s thinking on a range of issues such as nationhood education citizenship modernity caste social service cosmopolitanism and the women s question which historians have either overlooked or inserted in a rigid nation bounded historical narrative The book provides new enriching dimensions to the understanding of Gokhale whose ideas remain relevant in contemporary India A new biography of Gokhale that brings into consideration current questions within historiographical debates this book is a timely and welcome addition to the fields of intellectual history the history of political thought Colonial history and Indian and South Asian history Callaloo or Tossed Salad? Viranjini P. Munasinghe,2018-09-05 Callaloo or Tossed Salad is a historical and ethnographic case study of the politics of cultural struggle between two traditionally subordinate ancestral groups in Trinidad those claiming African and Indian descent Viranjini Munasinghe argues that East Indians in Trinidad seek to become a legitimate part of the nation by redefining what it means to be Trinidadian not by changing what it means to be Indian In her view Indo Trinidadians recent and ongoing struggle for national and cultural identity builds from dissatisfaction with the place they were originally assigned within Trinidadian society The author examines how Indo Trinidadian leaders in Trinidad have come to challenge the implicit claim that their ethnic identity is antithetical to their national identity Their political and cultural strategy seeks to change the national image of Trinidad by introducing Indian elements alongside those of the dominant Afro Caribbean Creole culture Munasinghe analyzes a number of broad theoretical issues the moral political and cultural dimensions of identity the relation between ethnicity and the nation and the possible autonomy of New World nationalisms from European forms She details how principles of exclusion continue to operate in nationalist projects that celebrate ancestral diversity and multiculturalism Drawing on the insights of theorists who use creolization to understand the emergence of Afro American cultures Munasinghe argues that Indo Trinidadians can be considered Creole because they like Afro Trinidadians are creators and not just bearers of culture We Are Now a Nation Daphne Winland,2013-06-17 The Yugoslav War of Succession had untold ramifications for those living in the embattled region What often goes overlooked however is the impact that the war had on people from the former Yugoslavia who were living abroad We are Now a Nation considers the effect that the war and the independence of Croatia had on Croatian diaspora homeland relations In doing so it confronts complex questions of ideology nostalgia social suffering nationalism and identity politics as manifested in the relationship between diaspora and homeland Croats Daphne Winland draws upon extensive multi sited ethnographic research in both Toronto and Croatia from 1992 to the present exploring the problematic nature of Croatian identity The occasion of Croatian independence she suggests resulted in the emergence of a politics of desire and disdain which further complicated efforts to define Croatness Hrvatsvo both at home and abroad The idea of the Croatian homeland has become therefore an ambiguous space of identification a source of either conflict and tension or unity and pride a place to remember to forget or to return to The first book length examination of North American Croatian diaspora responses to war and independence We are Now a Nation highlights the contradictions and paradoxes of contemporary debates about identity politics and place Contesting the Nation David Ludden,1996-04 Animated by a sense of urgency that was heightened by the massive violence following the destruction of the Babri mosque in Ayodhya on December 6 1992 Contesting the Nation explores Hindu majoritarian politics over the last century and its dramatic reformulation during the decline of the Congress Party in the 1980s Gender in Transnationalism Ruba Salih,2013-01-11 A fascinating ethnographic journey into migrant women s lives across two countries Gender in Transnationalism highlights women s construction of home between Morocco and Italy as a significant site whereby broader feelings and narratives of displacement and belonging can be grasped Salih investigates what Moroccan women s relations with their adopted country are and how their identities conceptualisations of home and cultural practices are shaped by the transnational dimension of their lives This interdisciplinary book provides a gendered account of transnational migration in the context of changing configurations in both the social sciences and people s lives of notions of locality identity difference and citizenship and by focusing on the lived experience of Moroccan migrant women s transnationalism between Morocco and Italy It will interest students and researchers of transnationalism migration and gender Trans-Nationalism and the Politics of Belonging Annie Phizacklea,Dr Sallie Westwood,Sallie Westwood,2013-10-11 In this book two leading authorities on migration and nationhood attempt to bridge the gap between experience and analysis looking at the disorientating effects of space and time which migration creates how migration affects our understanding of national affiliations and the nation state the impact of cross national economic relations on everyday life The authors examine the migration of both rich and poor crossing borders and living increasingly diasporic lives and show how even as people move across borders they still seek to be at home in the world through the creation of a politics of belonging Sociology and Social Anthropology in India Yogesh Atal,2009 The Indian Council of Social Science Research the premier organization for social science research in India conducts periodic surveys in the major disciplines of the social sciences to assess disciplinary developments as well as to identify gaps in research in these disciplines Indian Migrants in Tokyo Megha Wadhwa,2020-10-29 How does an extended stay in Japan influence Indian migrants sense of their identity as they adapt to a country very different from their own The number of Indians in Japan is increasing The links between Japan and India go back a long way in history and the intricacy of their cultures is one of the many factors they have in common Japanese culture and customs are among the most distinctive and complex in the world and it is often difficult for foreigners to get used to them Wadhwa focuses on the Indian Diaspora in Tokyo analysing their lives there by drawing on a wealth of interviews and extensive participant observation She examines their lifestyles fears problems relations and expectations as foreigners in Tokyo and their efforts to create a home away from home in Japan This book will be of great interest to anthropologists and sociologists concerned with the impact of migration on diaspora communities especially those focused on Japan India or both

Partitioned Lives Anjali Gera Roy, Nandi Bhatia, 2008 Contributed articles chiefly with reference to India

State/Nation/Transnation Katie Willis, Brenda S. A. Yeoh, 2004-05-05 This edited volume examines the relationship between the nation and the transnation focusing on transnational communities in the Asia Pacific region Setting the book within a theoretical framework the authors explore a range of themes such as migration identity and citizenship in chapters on China the Philippines Malaysia Vietnam Japan Indonesia Australia Singapore and Cambodia

Twice Migrated, Twice Displaced Tania Das Gupta, 2021-12-01 Twice Migrated Twice Displaced explores the lives of Gulf South Asians who arrived in the Greater Toronto Area from India and Pakistan via Persian Gulf countries such as the United Arab Emirates and Saudi Arabia Tania Das Gupta reveals the multiple migration patterns of this unique group analyzing themes such as gender racial and religious discrimination class mobility the formation of transnational families and identities in a post 9 11 context Twice Migrated Twice Displaced concludes that neoliberal economies in South Asia the Gulf and Canada create conditions for flexible labour by privatizing and diminishing social welfare As migrants then search for employment families are split across borders making those relationships more precarious The ambivalent hybrid identities that result have implications for Canada in terms of community building diaspora citizenship and migrants sense of belonging

Color-Line to Borderlands Johnnella E. Butler, 2011-07-01 Ethnic Studies has drawn higher education usually kicking and screaming into the borderlands of scholarship pedagogy faculty collegiality and institutional development Johnnella E Butler writes in her Introduction to this collection of lively and insightful essays Some of the most prominent scholars in Ethnic Studies today explore varying approaches multiple methodologies and contrasting perspectives within the field Essays trace the historical development of Ethnic Studies its place in American universities and the curriculum and new directions in contemporary scholarship The legitimization of the field the need for institutional support and the changing relations between academic scholarship and community activism are also discussed The institutional structure of Ethnic Studies continues to be affected by national regional and local attitudes and events and Ronald Takaki's essay explores the contested terrains of these culture wars Manning Marable delves into theoretical aspects of writing about race and ethnicity while John C Walter surveys the influence of African American history on U S history textbooks Elizabeth Cook Lynn and Craig Howe explain why American

Indian Studies does not fit into the Ethnic Studies model and Lauro H Flores traces the historical development of Chicano a Studies forged from the student and community activism of the late 1960s Ethnic Studies is simultaneously discipline based and interdisciplinary self containing and overlapping This volume captures that dichotomy as contributors raise questions that traditional disciplines ignore Essays include Lane Ryo Hirabayashi and Marilyn Caballero Alquizola on the gulf between postmodernism and political and institutional realities Rhett S Jones on the evolution of Africana Studies and Judith Newton on the trajectories of Ethnic Studies and Women s Studies and their relations with marginalized communities Shirley Hune and Evelyn Hu DeHart each make a case for the separation of Asian American Studies from Asian Studies while Edna Acosta Bel n argues for a hemispheric approach to Latin American and U S Latino a Studies T V Reed rounds out the volume by offering through cultural studies bridges to the twenty first century A Nation of Peoples Elliott Robert Barkan, 1999-05-30

The debate over America s multiculturalism has been intense for nearly three decades dividing opponents into those insisting on such recognition and those fearing that such a formal acknowledgment will undermine the civic bonds created by a heterogeneous nation Facts have often been the victim in this dispute and few works have successfully attempted to present the broad spectrum of America s ethnic groups in a format that is readable current and authoritative The chapters in this reference book demonstrate that America has been far more than a nation of immigrants it has been a nation of peoples of virtually all races religions and nationalities inclusive of indigenous natives and peoples long present as well as myriad immigrant and refugee groups Not all groups have equally found America to be a land of opportunity and the successes of some groups have come at the expense of others To understand the American experience the reader must not just study the story of immigrants living on the East Coast but also the history of those living in the South Southwest West and even Alaska and Hawaii As a reference book this volume provides thorough coverage of more than two dozen racial ethnic and religious groups in the United States Each chapter is written by an expert contributor and overviews the experiences of one group or a cluster of related groups The chapters are arranged alphabetically and cover groups such as African Americans American Indians Filipinos Hawaiians Mexicans Mormons and Puerto Ricans To the extent possible each chapter discusses the initial arrival of the group in America the adaptation of the first generation of immigrants the economic political and cultural integration of the group and the status of the group in contemporary American society Each chapter closes with a bibliographical essay and the volume concludes with a review of the most important general works on America s multicultural heritage
