the AGM including global governance theory international relations social movement theory Marxism and post Marxism These are contrasted with a larger Deleuzian theory which can be of use when addressing the diffuse and often paradoxical aspects of world politics Deleuze's work poses a major challenge to traditional understanding of global politics and this book will be of considerable interest to those with an interest in social and political theory critical international relations and globalization studies

Crisis and Contention in Indian Society T K Oommen,2005-07-21 Indian society is often described as one with unity in diversity and as a composite culture Since independence India has also been termed democratic and secular However the discernible cracks that have appeared in recent years in these conceptualisations have led to contentious debates about the very nature of Indian society Focusing on different facets of this exacerbating crisis this book analyses the various issues confronting India's society and polity today which can assume crisis proportions if not tackled judiciously and expeditiously

The Book Review ,2005 Islamization in Modern South Asia David Emmanuel Singh,2012-08-31 This book explores the religious identity of the indigenous Gujjars living in Rajaji National Park RNP Uttarakhand India In the broader context of forest conservation discourse steps taken by the local government to relocate the Gujjars outside RNP have been crucial in their choice to associate with NGOs and Deobandi Muslims These intersecting associations constitute the context of their transitioning religious identity The book presents a rich account of the actual process of Islamization through the collaborative agency of Deobandi madrasas and Tablighi Jama at Based on documents and interviews collected over four years it constructs a particular case of Deobandi reform and also balances this with a layered description of the Gujjar responses It argues that in their association with the Deobandis the Gujjars internalized the normative dimensions of beliefs and practices but not at the expense of their traditional Hindu folk culture This capacity for adaptation bodes well for the Gujjars but their proper integration with wider society seems assured only in association with the Deobandis Consequently this research also points toward the role of Islam in integrating marginal groups in the wider context of society in South Asia
