Nation Lost And Found 1936 America Remembered By Ordinary And Extraordinary People:

A Nation Lost and Found Frank R. Pierson, Stanley K. Sheinbaum, 2002 A Nation Lost and Found provides an extraordinary look at the moving personal stories of people who lived through the turbulent mid 1930s a period in which the spirit of the individual and the collective spirit of a nation were awakened The voices experiences and remembrances in this unique compilation echo the patriotic fervor the expressions of hope the forecasts of doom the cries of triumph and the cries of despair that have also resonated since 9 11 and send a message that we have passed this way before What emerges is a kaleidoscopic picture of both the pain and joy of an era that also holds a powerful message for today's uncertain world

Jewkes,2014-08-07 This book published in 1937 reported on a four week visit to Moscow in 1936 to study the making of Moscow as a showpiece Soviet capital At its core was the 1935 General Plan for the Reconstruction of Moscow but the book was a study of planning in the Soviet rather than the Western sense Thus it covered many aspects of the city's social and economic life including industry and finance education and housing production as well as governance and town planning Much first hand detail is included based on the visit and the authors meetings with Soviet officials and citizens that illustrate various points usually in praise The book made a significant contribution towards the growing arguments in 1930s Britain and other parts of the Anglophone world for a bolder more comprehensive and more state led approach to planning In turn these arguments had an important impact in shaping the policies adopted in the 1940s Administered Prices United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Antitrust and Monopoly,1957 Examines the impact of administered prices in concentrated industries on the cost of living Also compares market pricing mechanisms of agricultural industries with administered pricing practices of manufacturing industries Resisting Citizenship Martha A. Ackelsberg,2013-01-11 Political participation in America supposedly the world's strongest democracy is startlingly low and many of the civil rights and economic equity initiatives that were instituted in the 1960s and 70s have been abandoned as significant proportions of the populace seem to believe that the civil rights battle has been won However rates of collective engagement like community activism are surprisingly high In Resisting Citizenship renowned feminist political scientist Martha Ackelsberg argues that community activism may hold important clues to reviving democracy in this time of growing bureaucratization and inequality This book brings together many of Ackelsberg's writings over the past 25 years combining her own field work and interviews with cutting edge research and theory on democracy and activism She explores these efforts in order to draw lessons and attempt to incorporate knowledge about current notions of democracy from those who engage in non traditional participation those who have in many respects been relegated to the margins of political life in the United States Chase's Calendar of Events
