Nationalism and Jewish Identity in Morocco Kristin Hissong, 2020-10-01 Moroccan Jews can trace their heritage in Morocco back 2000 years In French Protectorate Morocco 1912 56 there was a community of over 200 000 Jews but today only a small minority remains This book writes Morocco s rich Jewish heritage back into the protectorate period The book explains why in the years leading to independence the country came to construct a national identity that centered on the Arab Islamic notions of its past and present at the expense of its Jewish history and community The book provides analysis of the competing nationalist narratives that played such a large part in the making of Morocco s identity at this time French cultural linguistic assimilation Political Zionism and Moroccan nationalism It then explains why the small Jewish community now living in Morocco has become a source of national pride At the heart of the book are the interviews with Moroccan Jews who lived during the French Protectorate remain in Morocco and who can reflect personally on everyday Jewish life during this era Combing the analysis of the interviews archived periodicals colonial documents and the existing literature on Jews in Morocco Kristin Hissong s book illuminates the reality of this multi ethnic nation state and the vital role memory plays in its identity

Foreign Policy as Nation Making Reem Abou-El-Fadl, 2019 A comparison of Turkey s and Egypt s diverging foreign policies during the Cold War in light of their leaderships nation making projects

Imperial Rule and the Politics of Nationalism Adria K. Lawrence, 2013-09-16 During the first half of the twentieth century movements seeking political equality emerged in France s overseas territories Within twenty years they were replaced by movements for national independence in the majority of French colonies protectorates and mandates In this pathbreaking study of the decolonization era Adria Lawrence asks why elites in French colonies shifted from demands for egalitarian and democratic reforms to calls for independent statehood and why mass mobilization for independence emerged where and when it did Lawrence shows that nationalist discourses became dominant as a consequence of the failure of the reform agenda Where political rights were granted colonial subjects opted for further integration and reform Contrary to conventional accounts nationalism was not the only or even the primary form of anti colonialism Lawrence shows further that mass nationalist protest occurred only when and where French authority was disrupted Imperial crises were the cause not the result of mass protest Global

Perspectives on Amateur Film Histories and Cultures Masha Salazkina, Enrique Fibla-Gutiérrez, 2021-01-05 For too long the field of amateur cinema has focused on North America and Europe In Global Perspectives on Amateur Film Histories and Cultures however editors Masha Salazkina and Enrique Fibla Gutierrez fill the literature gap by extending that focus and increasing inclusivity Through carefully curated essays Salazkina and Fibla Gutierrez bring wider meaning and significance to the discipline through their study of alternative cinema in new territories fueled by different historical and political circumstances innovative technologies and ambitious practitioners The essays in this volume work to realize the radical societal democratization that shows up in amateur cinema around the world In particular diverse contributors highlight the significance of amateur filmmaking the exhibition of amateur films the uses and availability of film technologies and the inventive and creative approaches of filmmakers and advocates of amateur film Together these essays shed new light on alternative cinema in a wide range of cities and countries where amateur films thrive in the shadow of commercial and conventional film industries The Lesser Gods of the Sahara Jeremy Keenan, 2004 The eight essays that comprise this collection cover various aspects of social change and contested terrain amongst the Tuareg people Algeria

African Cinema: Manifesto and Practice for Cultural Decolonization Michael T. Martin, 2023-08-08 Challenging established views and assumptions about traditions and practices of filmmaking in the African diaspora this three volume set offers readers a researched critique on black film Volume One of this landmark series on African cinema draws together foundational scholarship on its history and evolution Beginning with the ideological project of colonial film to legitimize the economic exploitation and cultural hegemony of the African continent during imperial rule to its counter historical formation and theorization It comprises essays by film scholars and filmmakers alike among them Roy Armes Med Hondo F rid Boughedir Haile Gerima Oliver Barlet Teshome Gabriel and David Murphy including three distinct dossiers a timeline of key dates in the history of African cinema a comprehensive chronicle and account of the contributions by African women in cinema and a homage and overview of Ousmane Semb ne the Father of African cinema Decolonizing Christianity

Darcie Fontaine, 2016-06-20 Decolonizing Christianity traces the dramatic transformation of Christianity from its position as the moral foundation of European imperialism to its role as a radical voice of political and social change in the era of decolonization As Christians renegotiated their place in the emerging Third World they confronted the consequences of racism and violence that Christianity had reinforced in European colonies This book tells the story of Christians in Algeria who undertook a mission to decolonize the Church and ensure the future of Christianity in postcolonial Algeria But it also recovers the personal aspects of decolonization as many of these Christians were arrested and tortured by the French for their support of Algerian independence The consequences of these actions were immense as the theological and social engagement of Christians in Algeria then influenced the groundbreaking reforms developing within global Christianity in the 1960s

Nation, Society and the State Dr. Abraham Weizfeld, 2012-03-09 This work treats the European political philosophy that has engendered the Nation State concept considered to be the logical evolution of human history as a linear periodization into the Modern State This Modern State concept is treated as the end of history in liberal democratic theory in spite of it remaining a European phenomenon Where it has been imposed beyond the European political culture it has provoked a plague of civil wars and occupations such as in Palestine In Europe itself it has also resulted in such features as the Spanish Inquisition the latter day Spanish civil war and the fascist dictatorship that followed as well as the Nazi regime and its Holocaust in alliance with the various fascist allies seeking their own Nation State Various attempts have followed in Europe itself to overcome the Nation State itself by means of the European Union which sought to unite the Nation States with a federated effort to bring some stability to the economy and life of the region in light of the disastrous wars of the twentieth century The contradictions of the Nation State and Federalism become ever more apparent as the EU now descends into economic chaos This sub title invites a comparison and a contrast between the Jewish political culture and the Zionist movement One may consider political culture as encompassing Civil Society history religious theology and law comprising a collective consciousness this historical heritage forms a national identity which is currently oriented into nationalism by the State The endurance of national identity apart from the State and with the extinction of the State is projected as the basis of an independent Civil Society

The Maghreb Since 1800 Knut S. Vikor, Professor of the History of the Middle East and Muslim Africa University of Bergen Knut S Vikor, 2024-10-03 This short history of the Maghreb surveys its development from the coming of Islam to the present day but with greatest emphasis on the modern period from the early nineteenth century onwards

History and the Culture of Nationalism in Algeria James McDougall, 2006-07-13 An exceptional analysis of the relationship between colonialism Islamic culture and nationalism in

Algeria Berbers and Others Katherine E. Hoffman, Susan Gilson Miller, 2010 Katherine E Hoffman is Associate Professor of Anthropology at Northwestern University and author of We Share Walls Language Land and Gender in Berber Morocco Nation, Self, and Society in North Africa , 2003 Sustainability in Algerian Higher Education Salim Bouherar, Sihem Salem, 2025-01-10 This volume provides a comprehensive overview of the current state of sustainability in Algerian higher education It examines the policies initiatives and practices that have been implemented across universities and other educational institutions while also identifying the gaps and opportunities that remain Through case studies interviews and analyses the authors explore how these institutions are working to align their missions with the broader goals of sustainable development and how they are contributing to the national and global discourse on sustainability Making Morocco Jonathan Wyrzten, 2016-01-05 How did four and a half decades of European colonial intervention transform Moroccan identity As elsewhere in North Africa and in the wider developing world the colonial period in Morocco 1912 1956 established a new type of political field in which notions about and relationships among politics and identity formation were fundamentally transformed Instead of privileging top down processes of colonial state formation or bottom up processes of local resistance the analysis in Making Morocco focuses on interactions between state and society Jonathan Wyrzten demonstrates how during the Protectorate period interactions among a wide range of European and local actors indelibly politicized four key dimensions of Moroccan identity religion ethnicity territory and the role of the Alawid monarchy This colonial inheritance is reflected today in ongoing debates over the public role of Islam religious tolerance and the memory of Morocco s Jews recent reforms regarding women s legal status the monarchy s multiculturalist recognition of Tamazight Berber as a national language alongside Arabic the still unresolved territorial dispute over the Western Sahara and the monarchy s continued symbolic and practical dominance of the Moroccan political field Cultural Entanglement in the Pre-Independence Arab World Anthony Gorman, Sarah Irving, 2020-11-26 This book examines the ways in which non Arabic cultural influences interacted with the rich complex and sometimes conflictual environment of the Arab world in the pre independence era It comprises a series of 11 detailed case studies including topics such as the songs of Egyptian forced labourers in the British Army in World War I the translation and commentary of an Ottoman text in interwar Palestine and the contested use of French in the Algerian independence movement that highlight the complex interplay of colonial pressures traditional and novel art forms local and international practices notions of identity and belonging The book demonstrates how the interaction between Arabic and non Arabic cultural and intellectual production as well as influences from imperial Europe and the Islamic East have in various times and spaces inspired creative tensions which challenge binary views of East West relations and the standard imperialist colonial frameworks In this sense the volume seeks to offer a critique of both established modernising conceptions of cultural development and nationalist nativist frameworks based on the values of a specific political project Social Issues, Geopolitics, and Judaica Werner J. Cahnman, 2017-07-28 This volume brings together thirty four essays and articles by Werner J Cahnman representing four decades 1940 1980 of work by an extraordinary multidisciplinary scholar Cahnman s work encompasses the experiences of a German Jewish refugee an economist turned sociologist and a scholar of Judaism Part 1 contains personal and autobiographical writings and includes analyses of the cultural ambiguities of Jewish assimilation in Germany and Austria Part 2 is devoted to sociological essays ranging from a critical assessment of Gunnar Myrdal s landmark study of the problems of race and democracy An American Dilemma to a probing look at the stigma of obesity based on empirical research a subject very much in the news today and that shows Cahnman ahead of his time Part 3 offers some of Cahnman s most perceptive essays dealing with geopolitical themes Included are theoretically based writings that help to clarify the methods and concepts of geopolitics marking the intellectual beginnings of the global approach to world affairs Here Cahnman broached the possibility of a united Europe 1944 realized sixty years later in the formation of the European Union The twelve essays of Part 4 return to Cahnman s ever present concern with Jews and Judaism They present a wide ranging historical sociological view from the Jews of Vienna in the 1930s to the American scene in the 1960s to the still unresolved problematics of Arab Israeli relations with Cahnman arguing for coexistence and a two state solution for Jews and Arabs The volume carefully selected and assembled by the editors presents for the first time essays representing the full range of Werner Cahnman s scholarship and thought It will be of interest to students of sociology history political science and Judaic studies
