Jones, Keith Crane, Andrew Rathmell, Brett Steele, 2001-03-29 Reviews UN efforts to transform eight unstable countries into democratic peaceful and prosperous partners and compares those missions with U S nation building operations The UN provides the most suitable institutional framework for nation building missions that require fewer than 20 000 men one with a comparatively low cost structure a comparatively high success rate and the greatest degree of international legitimacy The UN's Role in Nation-building James Dobbins, 2005 Reviews UN efforts to transform eight unstable countries into democratic peaceful and prosperous partners and compares those missions with U S nation building operations The UN provides the most suitable institutional framework for nation building missions that require fewer than 20 000 men one with a comparatively low cost structure a comparatively high success rate and the greatest degree of international legitimacy Nation-Building , The United Nations in Namibia , 2003 This publication presents a briefing on the programme of activities that the UN as technical co operation partner with the Government of Namibia will implement for the period 2002 2005 The first part of the publication highlights the UN common objectives and activities and the instruments and mechanisms in place through which the UN System as a whole in partnership with the government civil society donors and the private sector strives towards the achievement of the two strategic objectives poverty and inequality reduction and HIV AIDS containment The second part in loose leaf format project profiles is a synopsis of the projects of most of the UN programme and or funding agencies present in the countries Foreword Leveraging for Success in United Nations Peace Operations Jean Krasno, Bradd C. Hayes, Donald C. Daniel, 2003-09-30 Peacekeeping has become one of the most important tasks of the United Nations with more than 55 missions created since 1948 Peacekeeping is one of the only multilateral tools that the member states have to address conflicts in all parts of the world Over 44 000 troops from 90 countries are deployed today Drawing on first hand accounts of participants in past peacekeeping successes and failures this study focuses on how better to ensure success through the use of leverage as a central tool While the threat of military force can be used to compel compliance other sources of leverage such as the threat of sanctions or the withdrawal of loans can also be effective Economic incentives also provide vital leverage Moral suasion and leadership skills are critical as well The choice of key personnel particularly in the role of the Special Representatives of the Secretary General as in the utilization of Jacques Kline in Eastern Slavonia has also proved be key These case studies carefully examine how a confluence of tools have been brought to bear in circumstances ranging from East Timor and Namibia Women and Nation Building Cheryl Benard, 2008 Using a case study of Afghanistan this study examines gender specific impacts of conflict and post conflict and the ways they may affect women differently than they affect men It analyzes the role of women in the nation building process and considers outcomes that might occur if current

Anti-racism and Multiculturalism

Mark Alleyne, 2017-09-08 All scholarly books are engagements with the existing literature often the published scholarly work of one established discipline This book originated with modest objectives to produce a work that would be in conversation with the literature of international relations even though not of relevance only to that field The professed goal of international relations is international peace The ethical lens of pondering the best means to achieve world peace is used to filter media content in the field of multiculturalism and anti racism Although there has been little work on the impact of racial difference on the contours of contemporary international order there has been a sizeable body of research intended to abolish the credibility of pseudo scientific racism Such racism has provided the ideological foundation and justification for imperialism colonialism the holocaust and apartheid Race has been debunked as a myth Because of this racism the ideology bred of human classification according to racial difference has been found to be intellectually and morally barren But the need to communicate egalitarian and scientific sentiments remains The contributors to this volume consider five questions How does the literature on antiracism improve our understanding of conflict resolution How does the analysis of the media s role in racist and anti racist discourses improve the process of theorizing on hate and war propaganda How can research on anti racist discourse improve UN peacekeeping What implications does this subject have for theory building and cultural diversity How and why should the literature on anti racism expand research in international relations This is a unique worthwhile framework for cross disciplinary research in race and intellectual consensus and conflict

Weiss,2016-07-27 Beyond UN Subcontracting sheds light through a series of post Cold War case studies on whether one United Nations efforts both to devolve responsibility for security to regional institutions and the delivery of some of their services to international nongovernmental organisations are a step toward or away from better global governance The cases are designed to explore patterns of interaction and to provide lessons for the future Europe's Role in Nation-building James Dobbins,2008 The European Union and its member nations have proven adept at mounting small scale nation building operations and should be ready to handle more substantial missions Building on prior RAND work this volume presents six case studies of recent European led nation building missions in Albania Sierra Leone Macedonia Cote d'Ivoire the Congo and Bosnia as well as a review of the Australian mission to the Solomon Islands Perspectives on Western Sahara Anouar Boukhars,Jacques Roussellier,2013-12-18 The ongoing conflict in Western Sahara is one of the more intractable legacies of European colonization in North Africa Following the withdrawal of Spain this territorial dispute escalated in 1975 into a war of independence between the Sahrawi people of the Polisario Front who were backed by Algeria and the states of Mauritania and Morocco In 1976 the Polisario Front established the Sahrawi Arab Democratic Republic which was not admitted in the UN but won recognition by a few states After multiple peace efforts the conflict reemerged in 2005 as the independence Intifada Today the Polisario Front controls about 20% of Western Sahara At the heart of the conflict lie geopolitical interests and incompatible claims aggravated by the use of military force and decades of mostly unproductive diplomatic maneuvers by international bodies and regional or foreign powers This thorough impartial survey brings together some of the best experts on the Sahara question to provide a broad based analysis of the problem from a range of perspectives Featuring new research the chapters examine the roots of the conflict its dynamics and potential solutions This groundbreaking text also addresses questions of law human rights natural resources from an analytical point of view Contributed by scholars from North Africa Europe and the U S it is an essential contribution to the literature of Middle East and African studies
