Nation Formation Towards A Theory Of Abstract Community:

Nation Formation Paul James, 1996-10-14 Deals with concept of nation and nationalism The SAGE Handbook of Nations and Nationalism Gerard Delanty, Krishan Kumar, 2006-06-29 The SAGE Handbook of Nations and Nationalism gives readers a critical survey of the latest theories and debates Its three sections guide the reader through the theoretical approaches to this field of study its major themes from modernity to memory migration and genocide and the diversity of nationalisms found around the globe Nationalism, Social Theory and Durkheim J. Dingley, 2008-01-17 Ethno national and religious identity and violence dominate modern politics from Northern Ireland to terrorism in Sri Lanka the former Yugoslavia or Afghanistan and Iraq This book shows that social theory should be a major tool in helping explain national religious and identity problems Nationalism and Social Theory Gerard Delanty, Patrick J. O'Mahony, Patrick O'Mahony, 2002-05-16 A perennial subject for sociologists nationalism the focus of this study is persistent not merely because of its specific ideological appeal but because it expresses some of the major conflicts in Western social development

National Identity in Great Britain and British North America, 1815-1851 Dr Linda E Connors, Dr Mary Lu MacDonald, 2013-05-28 Examining the complex and rapidly expanding world of print culture and reading in the nineteenth century Linda E Connors and Mary Lu MacDonald show how periodicals in the United Kingdom and British North America shaped and promoted ideals about national identity In the wake of the Napoleonic wars periodicals instilled in readers an awareness of cultures places and ways of living outside their own experience while also proffering messages about what it meant to be British The authors cast a wide net showing the importance of periodicals for understanding political and economic life faith and religion the world of women and children the idea of progress as a transcendent ideology and the relationships between the parts for example Scotland or Nova Scotia and the whole Great Britain Analyzing the British identity of expatriate nineteenth century Britons in North America alongside their counterparts in Great Britain enables insights into whether residents were encouraged to identify themselves by country of residence by country of birth or by their newly acquired understanding of a broader whole Enhanced by a succinct and informative catalogue of data including editorship and price about the periodicals analyzed this study provides a striking history of the era and brings clarity to the perception of British transcendence and progress that emerged with such force and appeal after 1815 Globalism, Nationalism, Tribalism Paul James, 2006-04-20 Paul James has written a magnificent account of the world's current condition one that highlights the complexities and contradictions with which people communities and nations must contend and that does so in a compelling and creative style Stressing the interaction between global and local forces his writing style is lively and compelling as well as peppered with a wide range of citations from Woman's Day to the Cambodian Daily on the same page James N Rosenau University Professor of International Affairs The George Washington University Globalism Nationalism Tribalism establishes a new basis for understanding the changing nature of polity and community and offers unprecedented attention to these dominant trends Paul James charts the contradictions and tensions we all encounter in an era of increasing globalization from genocide and terrorism to television and finance capital Globalism is treated as an uneven and layered process of spatial expansion not simply one of disorder fragmentation or rupture Nor is it simply a force of homogenization Nationalism is taken seriously as a continuing and important formation of contemporary identity and politics James rewrites the modernism theories of the nation state without devolving into the postmodernist assertion that all is invention or surface gloss Tribalism is given the attention it has long warranted and is analyzed as a continuing and changing formation of social life from the villages of Rwanda to the cities of the West Theoretically adept and powerfully argued this is the first comprehensive analysis that brings these crucial themes of contemporary life together My Life as a Refugee Odu Kpwere Amari'di,2020-10-30 Sadly refugees are some of the most traumatized people in the world Although their backgrounds vary all share a commonality of determination and perseverance to overcome their complex challenges both in the past and in the future while attempting to move forward into a new chapter Odu Kpwere Amari di a South Sudanese immigrant living in Canada details his journey through life to date beginning with his birth in Uganda to refugee parents who fled Sudan during war and eventually returned to their homeland with him to build a new life As he reveals a compelling look into his humble African background through relatable anecdotes about his childhood memories regrets missed opportunities and other experiences intertwined with historical narratives Amari di explains why he is a refugee the continuing plight of refugees and the struggles as their fight continues to shun the perceptions and judgments and bear a burden of shame for allegedly abandoning their home countries in pursuit of a better life My Life as a Refugee is the memoir of a South Sudanese immigrant that chronicles his life from birth to date as he learned valuable lessons about life love and inclusion while persevering through his challenges Transcultural Justice at the Tokyo Tribunal ,2018-03-06 While the International Military Tribunal at Nuremberg has been at the centre of scholarly attention the Tokyo Tribunal has for decades been largely neglected This is surprising insofar as this tribunal was a well organized Allied endeavour and prefigured the international courts and tribunals of our day Eleven national teams were sent to Tokyo between 1946 and 1948 to bring about justice in the aftermath of the Pacific War This volume offers an innovative approach to the Tokyo Tribunal as an arena of transcultural engagement It contextualizes legal agents as products of transnational forces constituted through dialogues about legal concepts and processes of faction making The endeavour was challenged by different national policies divergent legal traditions and varying cultural perceptions of the task ahead Contributors are Milinda Banerjee Anja Bihler Neil Boister David M Crowe Kerstin von Lingen Narrelle Morris Hitoshi Nagai Valentyna Polunina Ann Sophie Schoepfel Lisette Schouten James Burnham Sedgwick Yuki Takatori and Urs Matthias Zachmann The Remote Borderland Laszlo Kurti,2001-07-19 Explores how Transylvania figures in the Hungarian imagination and how this border region functions in the creation of national identity Nationalism and Global Solidarities James

Goodman, Paul James, 2006-11-29 Even in the face of neoliberal globalization nationalism remains a significant political force The leading contributors to this new volume explore the extent to which nationalism can be a foundation for alternative solidarities Against the axiom that with globalization all that is solid melts into air this anthology debates the extent to which different forms of solidarity remain viable from the solidarities of local political groups to the solidarities of nationalism internationalism and alternative globalisms Organized into three sections the book addresses the relationship between the contemporary formations of nationalism globalism and solidarity movements Part 1 offers a framework for understanding globalization and discusses the effect of globality on nationalism Part 2 addresses the logics of nationalisms in globalizing contexts respectively liberal nationalism left nationalism post colonial nationalism and revivals of nationalism Part 3 addresses issues of solidarity and integration in a world of nationalism and globalism asking how differing forms of connectivity may be emerging disrupting prevailing oppositions and relations focusing on social movements and solidarity Offering the first detailed study of the relationship between globalization and nationalism Nationalism and Global Solidarities will be of strong interest to students and scholars of politics sociology and international political economy Bakhtin and the Human Sciences Michael E Gardiner, Michael Mayerfeld Bell, 1998-08-07 Bakhtin and the Human Sciences demonstrates the abundance of ideas Bakhtin's thought offers to the human sciences and reconsiders him as a social thinker not just a literary theorist The contributors hail from many disciplines and their essays implications extend into other fields in the human sciences The volume emphasizes Bakhtin's work on dialogue carnival ethics and everyday life as well as the relationship between Bakhtin's ideas and those of other important social theorists In a lively introduction Gardiner and Bell discuss Bakhtin's significance as a major intellectual figure and situate his ideas within current trends and developments in social theory Language, Discourse and Borders in the Yugoslav Successor States Birgitta Busch, Helen Kelly-Holmes, 2004-01-01 Do languages cause borders or do borders cause languages This volume in the Current Issues in Language and Society series attempts to situate the debate on language policies in Southeastern Europe within the larger debate in social sciences and humanities on the issues of borders and the formation of national identities Global Civil Society and Its Limits G. Laxer, S. Halperin, 2003-04-30 This volume critically examines the promise of a global civil society Exploring issues in cases of diverse social justice movements the contributors show that a global civil society is still far from emerging and its promotion may even harm the realization of grassroots democracy The Internet is an exciting new means for activists to communicate internationally and citizens movements increasingly co ordinate campaigns through transnational advocacy networks but most effective civic action still takes place at national and local levels Governance and Multiculturalism Catherine Koerner, Soma Pillay, 2019-08-14 A key intervention in the growing critical literature on race this volume examines the social construction of race in contemporary Australia through the lenses of Indigenous sovereignty nationhood and whiteness Informed by insights from white Australians in rural contexts Koerner and Pillay attempt to answer

how race shapes those who identify as white Australian how those who self identify thusly relate to the nation multiculturalism and Indigenous Sovereignities and how white Australians understand and experience their own racialized position and its privilege This insider perspective on the continuing construction of whiteness in Australia is analyzed and challenged through Indigenous Sovereign theoretical standpoints and voices Ultimately this investigation of the social construction of race not only extends conceptualizations of multiculturalism but also informs governance policy in the light of changing national identity Crisis, Rupture and Anxiety Will Jackson,Bob Jeffrey,Mattia Mariano,2011-12-14 Crisis Rupture and Anxiety An Interdisciplinary Examination of Contemporary and Historical Human Challenges brings together a range of original contributions that seek to critically interrogate the concept of crisis a seemingly omnipresent and defining metonym of our times Both international and interdisciplinary in perspective the leading doctoral scholars and early career researchers represented in this volume unsettle hegemonic notions of crisis and possible remedies by exploring

Revisiting Nationalism NA NA,2016-05-24 This book gathers together French language authors who in the last decade have played a part in the renewal of interest in the question of nationalism This volume organized along thematic lines and with a genuine transversal approach seeks to give audiences a glimpse of some of that research whether related to theoretical normative or analytical questions Classical Sociology Beyond Methodological Nationalism ,2014-04-17 Classical Sociology Beyond Methodological Nationalism defends classical sociology from the accusation of methodological nationalism To reject such accusation the volume presents three arguments The first contends that classical sociology has not failed to deal with the global world Part I The second that classical sociology has more frequently dealt with the transnational category of the social rather than with the national Part II The third that where classical sociology has analysed national society the latter has never been envisaged as a rigidly confined entity within its political boundaries Part III The outcome is a re evaluation of classical sociological thought as a more functional tool for analysing the political forms of modernity in the era of globalisation Contributors include Vittorio Cotesta David Inglis Austin Harrington Massimo Pendenza Michael Schillmeier Emanuela Susca Dario Verderame and Federico Trocini A New Era? Sue Ingram,Lia Kent,Andrew McWilliam,2015-09-17 Timor Leste has made impressive progress since its historic achievement of independence in 2002 From the instability that blighted its early years the fledgling democratic country has achieved strong economic growth and a gradual reinstatement of essential social services A decade on in 2012 Presidential and Parliamentary elections produced smooth political transitions and the extended UN peacekeeping presence in the country came to an end But significant challenges remain This book a product of the inaugural Timor Leste Update held at The Australian National University in 2013 to mark the end of Timor Leste s first decade as a new nation brings together a vibrant collection of papers from leading and emerging scholars and policy analysts Collectively the chapters provide a set of critical reflections on recent political economic and social developments in Timor Leste The volume also looks to the future highlighting a range of transitions prospects and undoubted challenges facing the nation over the next 5 10 years Key themes that inform the collection include nation building in the shadow of history trends in economic development stability and social cohesion and citizenship democracy and social inclusion The book is an indispensable guide to contemporary Timor Leste Marx@2000 Ronaldo Munck,2002 Marx is out of fashion in intellectual circles but he is seen as an astute and relevant guide to the spread of a new raw capitalism world wide This book is a reappraisal of Marx and the socialist experience in light of political developments Ethnic Stratification and Economic Inequality around the World Max Haller in collaboration,Anja Eder,2016-03-03 The modern world is characterised by pervasive economic inequalities Strong economic growth in some developing countries has contributed to a degree to a reduction in the levels of inequality between nations yet inequality within nations remains high and in some cases continues to increase Ethnic Stratification and Economic Inequality around the World investigates the reasons for these striking differences exploring the coincidence and interaction between economic stratification and ethnic differentiation Drawing on extensive international survey and statistical data the author develops a new theory and concrete hypotheses concerning the conditions which lead toward extreme inequality and those which tend toward greater equality A systematic examination of the interaction between class structures social stratification and ethnic differentiation this book sheds light on the manner in which the resulting social structures produce different levels of economic inequality offering a fivefold typology of patterns of ethnic stratification which can be applied to present day world regions Drawing on the work of Max Weber to provide a rigorous investigation of inequality around the world it demonstrates what sociology as a science of social reality can significantly contribute to our understanding of global economic stratification The book is relevant for a wide social scientific audience particularly for sociologists economists and political scientists working in a comparative perspective
