Catalogue of Prints and Drawings in the British Museum British Museum. Department of Prints and Drawings,1877

Catalogue of Prints and Drawings in the British Museum: pt. I. March 28, 1734 to c. 1750. pt. II. 1751 to c. 1760 British Museum. Department of Prints and Drawings,1877 Catalogue of Prints and Drawings in the British Museum British Museum,1877 Shakespeare's Face Stephanie Nolen,2011-04-13 On May 11 2001 Globe and Mail reporter Stephanie Nolen announced a stunning discovery to the world an attractive portrait held by an Ontario family for twelve generations which may well be the only known portrait of Shakespeare painted during his lifetime Shakespeare s Face is the biography of a portrait a literary mystery story and the furious debate that has ensued since its discovery A slip of paper affixed to the back proclaims Shakespere This likeness taken 1603 Age at that time 39 ys But is it really Shakespeare who peers at us from the small oil on wood painting The twinkling eyes reddish hair and green jacket are not in keeping with the duller traditional images of the bard But they are more suggestive of the humorous and humane man who wrote the greatest plays in the English language Shakespeare s Face tells the riveting story of how the painting came to reside in the home of a retired engineer in a mid sized Ontario town The painting is reputed to be by John Sanders of Worcester England As a retirement project the engineer whose grandmother kept the family treasure under her bed embarked on authenticating the portrait the forensic analyses that followed have proven it without doubt to the period In a remarkable publishing coup Knopf Canada has gathered around Stephanie Nolen s story a group of the world s leading Shakespeare scholars and art and cultural historians to delve into one of the most fascinating literary mysteries of our times Is this the face of genius Excerpt from Chapter 1 of Shakespeare s Face by Stephanie Nolen By the late afternoon I was beginning to go a little cross eyed I had examined countless documents and read the test results from the painting s painstaking forensic analysis I now had everything I needed to write my story except for one crucial item Is he here I asked almost in a whisper The owner laid the package carefully on the cluttered table He gently pulled back the kraft paper wrapping underneath which was a layer of bubble wrap Then he peeled back this second layer to reveal his treasure I was caught off guard by how small the portrait was and how vivid The colours in the paint seemed too rich to be 400 years old Except for the hairline cracks in the varnish the face could have been painted yesterday And there was nothing austere or haughty about it nothing of the great man being painted for posterity It was a rogue s face a charmer s face that looked back at me with a tolerant mischievous slightly world weary air It was painted on two pieces of solid board so expertly joined that the seam was barely visible A date Ano 1603 was painted in small red letters in the top right hand corner The right side had been nibbled by woodworms I stood and gazed quelling an instinctive urge to pick the portrait up and hold it in my hands And as my professional skepticism crumpled for a moment I found myself wanting desperately to believe that this was indeed Shakespeare s face London ... ,1887

Michelangelo Buonarroti Charles Heath Wilson,1881 About Face Elena Bellina,Lindsay Eufusia,Paola Ugolini,2009-10-02

How do we represent ourselves and the cultures we live in Is it possible to trace any boundaries between reality and self representation Because the self represented is the product of a process of selection and choice in many ways to represent the self is often simultaneously to create the self and negate the self What then becomes of the self once it is represented Because the process of self representation cumulates in a tangible result and given that any representation of the self is necessarily a construct which aims to render visible or knowable in concrete form the unseen and unknown self representation is vulnerable to assessments of its naturalness or artificiality its honesty or deceit Many issues affect the author or artist s self representation both as process and form the medium through which the self will be represented the motivation for representing oneself and the role of the audience to name only a few relevant factors This book explores the multifaceted nature of self representation in relation to culture from the Middle Ages through the Renaissance up to contemporary Italian American and Australian culture with reference to concepts and questions connected to literature poetry philosophy theology history ethnicity studies gender studies and visual arts Face Value Robin Lakoff,Raquel Scherr,2022-11-30 First published in 1984 Face Value confronts the pervasive power of beauty through art and literature as well as interviews with men and women with varying perspectives on the subject The topics covered range widely the history of beauty from the Greeks to the present the pathology of beauty how women have been willing to harm themselves mentally and physically to achieve beauty the language we use to speak of beauty and its implications our attitudes towards beauty as examined by psychologists beauty and ethnic identity men and beauty The authors present in fact a redefinition of beauty enabling both women and men to enjoy it in themselves and in others while discarding the sex role stereotypes that have governed the definition of beauty in the past With a new preface that explores the gaps created by time in the book s discourse this book will be of interest to students of linguistics gender studies women s studies cultural studies sociology and anthropology John Constable's correspondence John Constable,1964 The Myriad Faces of Heroes and Heroines Julian Patrick Ward,Kelly Kar Yue Chan,Chi Sum Garfield Lau,2025-03-31 This collection scrutinizes the representation dynamics transformation and or adaptation of various heroes and heroines in different folkloric traditions and narratives in the context of Asia Exploring notions in the topics of mythologies folktales literature theatre performance and any other art forms the volume collates discussions on the pragmatic and aesthetic representation of men and women within the mythic world and within contemporary settings In doing so it produces a contemporary theorization of Asian heroes and heroines beyond their mythic structure and folkloric limits In considering the representation of heroes and heroines in the Asian folkloric tradition and in comparative contexts the book establishes connections between characters from myths and folktales and those found in contemporary narratives considers the adaptation and transformation of heroes and heroines as revealed in a variety of literary works and also assesses the gendering of social roles in modern literature and other art forms It is of interest to scholars and advanced students in comparative literature Asian cultural studies and theatre and performance Hidden

Faces: Covered Portraits of the Renaissance Alison Manges Nogueira, 2024-04-02 Many small Renaissance portraits were richly adorned with covers or backs bearing allegorical figures mythological scenes or emblems that celebrated the sitter and invited the viewer to decipher their meaning Hidden Faces includes seventy objects ranging in format from covered paintings to miniature boxes that illuminate the symbiotic relationship between the portrait and its pair Texts by thirteen distinguished scholars vividly illustrate that the other faces of these portraits represent some of the most innovative images of the Renaissance created by masters such as Hans Memling and Titian Uniting works that have in some cases been separated for centuries this fascinating volume shows how the multifaceted format unveiled the sitter's identity both by physically revealing the portrait and reading the significance behind its cover OLD ENGLISH MASTERS TIMOTHY COLE, 1902

Face to Face with Angels Sandra Gorgievski, 2014-01-10 Arch mediator between the divine and the mundane the angel is an enduring figure in the Western world It has been interpreted as an externalization of repressed fantasies a projection of the self as other and a metaphor for modern estrangement This book is the first comparative study of sacred medieval images of angels and their cinematic treatment including reference to both the medieval and modern imaginations The text traces the traditional functions of angels and their reworking in film then takes particular note of new icons like the female angel and others who become models for our connection with transcendence London Herbert Fry, 1887 Face to Face Robin Margaret Jensen, Examining how God and eventually Christ are portrayed in early Christian art Jensen explores questions of the relationship between art and theology conflicts over idolatry and iconography and how the Christological controversies affected the portrayals of Christ Since much of this art comes from ancient Rome she places her analysis in the context of the history of Roman portraiture One hundred photographs enhance the discussion Sacred and legendary art Mrs. Anna Brownell Jameson, 1895 The Outline of Art Sir William Orpen, 1924 The Outline of Art, with Over 300 Illustrations of which 24 are in Colour Sir William Orpen, 1924 London in ... Herbert Fry, 1887
