Artbibliographies Modern, 2004 Making Art History Elizabeth Mansfield, 2014-05-01 Making Art History is a collection of essays by contemporary scholars on the practice and theory of art history as it responds to institutions as diverse as art galleries and museums publishing houses and universities school boards and professional organizations political parties and multinational corporations The text is split into four thematic sections each of which begins with a short introduction from the editor the sections include Border Patrols addresses the artistic canon and its relationship to the ongoing war on terror globalization and the rise of the Belgian nationalist party The Subjects of Art History questions whether art and history are really what the discipline seeks to understand Instituting Art History concerns art history and its relation to the university and raises questions about the mission habits ethics and limits of university today Old Master New Institutions shows how art history and the museum respond to nationalism corporate management models and the culture wars

Syed Ahmad Jamal, 2009 On the work of Syed Ahmad Jamal a Malaysian painter Portraiture Shearer West, 2004-04-08 This fascinating new book explores the world of portraiture from a number of vantage points and asks key questions about its nature How has portraiture changed over the centuries How have portraits represented their subjects and how have they been interpreted Issues of identity modernity and gender are considered within a cultural and historical context Shearer West uncovers much intriguing detail about a genre that has often been seen as purely representational featuring examples from African tribes to Renaissance princes and from stars such as David and Victoria Beckham to ordinary people In the process she shows us how to communicate with the past in an exciting new way Annual

Bibliography of Modern Art Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.). Library, 1998 The Value and Valuation of Natural Science Collections John R. Nudds, Charles William Pettitt, 1997 Blue Poles Thomas McIlroy, 2025-02-26 The captivating story behind the iconic Blue Poles the painter the process the patronage the politics and the national scandal In 1973 Blue Poles the iconic painting by America's great abstract expressionist Jackson Pollock was acquired by the Australian government for A$14 million. This record setting price for an artwork sparked a media sensation and controversy both in Australia and the United States. Blue Poles Jackson Pollock Gough Whitlam and the painting that changed a nation details how Jackson Pollock rose to fame the negotiations that led to the artwork's move to the National Gallery of Australia and the many successes and turbulent turns in between. This story covers Pollock's entrance into an art circle which included renowned patron Peggy Guggenheim as well as his relationship with artist Lee Krasner and the larger than life accounts that surrounded his artistic practice including questions around the creation of Blue Poles. It was Gough Whitlam's commitment to the arts and cultural capital that would see the painting move to another continent where the media feasted on stories of its cost and brows were raised over its merit. The value of Blue Poles to the Australian art and museum landscape was yet to be foreseen. Journalist Tom McIlroy tells a compelling account of one of Australia's most prized paintings which stirred up many storms from the time of its creation to its placement in the NGA.

Building the Collection National Gallery of Australia, Pauline Green, 2003. Australia's national art collection largely took shape in the short period between the late 1960s when the National Gallery project received the official go ahead from government and the building's opening in 1982. Published 20 years after that opening these essays tell how the various collections came into being and continue to evolve. Authors include the Gallery's first three directors James Mollison Betty Churcher and Brian Kennedy while other participants close to the collections formations provide commentary and stories as varied insightful and interesting as the collections themselves.

Arthur Boyd & Saint Francis of Assisi Margaret Pont, 2004. Arthur Boyd 1920-1999 produced numerous artworks based on the life and legends of St Francis of Assisi. This volume examines each of the artworks in detail and each is reproduced the pastels and tapestries in full colour. It also includes a discussion of the significance of St Francis in Italy and key Italian artistic renderings of the saint.

Living Art Elly Kent, Virginia Hooker, Caroline Turner, 2022-11-08. Living Art Indonesian Artists Engage Politics Society and History is inspired by the conviction of so many of Indonesia's Independence era artists that there is continuing interaction between art and everyday life. In the 1970s Sanento Yuliman Indonesia's foremost art historian of the late twentieth century further developed that concept stating New Indonesian Art cannot wholly be understood without locating it in the context of the larger framework of Indonesian society and culture and the whole force of history. The essays in this book accept Yuliman's challenge to analyse the intellectual sociopolitical and historical landscape that Indonesia's artists inhabited from the 1930s into the first decades of the new millennium including their responses to the COVID-19 pandemic. The inclusion of one of Yuliman's most influential essays translated into English for the first time offers those outside Indonesia an insight into a formative period in the generation of new art knowledge in Indonesia. The volume also features essays by T K Sabapathy Jim Supangkat Alia Swastika Wulan Dirgantoro and FX Harsono as well as the three editors Elly Kent Virginia Hooker and Caroline Turner. The book's contributors present recent research on issues rarely addressed in English language texts on Indonesian art including the inspirations and achievements of women artists despite social and political barriers Islam inspired art artistic ideologies the intergenerational effects of trauma and the impacts of geopolitical change and global art worlds that emerged in the 1990s The Epilogue introduces speculations from contemporary practitioners on what the future might hold for artists in Indonesia Extensively illustrated Living Art contributes to the acknowledgement and analysis of the diversity of Indonesia s contemporary art and offers new insights into Indonesian art history as well as the contemporary art histories of Southeast Asia and Asia more generally Dick Watkins Mary Eagle,2024-09-17 Dick Watkins belongs to the generation of artists whose careers were launched at the high flying end of American based Abstraction Almost immediately he faced up to the abrupt end of the Modern era Culture was no longer to be framed by progress In 1970 taking stock of the situation he announced that he was a copyist there being no such thing as a new creation in art shaped as it was by visual languages Nor did he intend to limit his curiosity about the relation of art to life by restricting himself to a personal style There followed a long and passionately adventurous exploration into many subjects and styles during which Watkins was often the first to signal changes taking place in Western culture The result is that for half a century he has been a major if controversial figure in Australian art Blooms and Brushstrokes Penelope Curtin,Tansy Curtin,2019-04-29 Blooms and Brushstrokes takes you on a unique journey through the history of Australian art one flower at a time examining the blooms depicted in still lifes floral portraits decorative interiors and botanical illustrations by a long line of Australian artists Mother and daughter team Penelope and Tansy Curtin start this fascinating journey in the late eighteenth century when the traditions adhering to the Western art canon were transplanted into the newly colonised Australia They follow it through the rapidly developing artistic styles of the early twentieth century to the new media of the contemporary period These works of art also shine a light on the role and importance of plants and flowers in everyday life They illustrate changing floral fashions as well as highlighting flowers in their various forms cut flowers pot plants and gardens And along the way you ll encounter many of Australia s most significant artists including John Glover Arthur Streeton Margaret Preston Grace Cossington Smith John Brack and Margaret Olley as well as some of Australia s most beautiful and sometimes intriguing native flora such as the waratah and Sturt s desert pea not to mention perennial garden favourites like roses sweet peas and daisies Spectacular intimate engaging and meticulously researched and full of interesting and quirky facts about the flowers and the artists themselves Blooms and Brushstrokes is a book for art flower and history lovers alike Rosalie Gascoigne Martin Gascoigne,2019-09-16 Rosalie Gascoigne 1917 1999 was a highly regarded Australian artist whose assemblages of found materials embraced landscape still life minimalism arte povera and installations She was 57 when she had her first exhibition Behind this late coming out lay a long and unusual preparation in looking at nature for its aesthetic qualities collecting found objects making flower arrangements and practising ikebana Her art found an appreciative audience from the start She was a people person and it pleased her that through her exhibiting
