National History And Identity Approaches To The Writing Of National History:

National History and Identity Michael Branch, 1999 From the Introduction The purpose of the conference which produced the contents of this volume was to commemorate the bicentenary of the birth in Iitti in 1794 of the Finnish historian and Finno Ugrist Anders Johan Sjogren The organisers chose to honour Sjogren not by dwelling on his life and work though such was his influence in his day that we were frequently reminded of his scholarly legacy during the course of the conference but by a critical examination of the historical phenomenon of which he was both a founder and a practitioner in Northern Europe the role of history in shaping national identities and in nation building Storia della storiografia ,2007

History and Identity Stefan Berger, 2022-01-20 This introduction to contemporary historical theory and practice shows how issues of identity have shaped how we write history Stefan Berger charts how a new self reflexivity about what is involved in the process of writing history entered the historical profession and the part that historians have played in debates about the past and its meaningfulness for the present He introduces key trends in the theory of history such as postmodernism poststructuralism constructivism narrativism and the linguistic turn and reveals in turn the ways in which they have transformed how historians have written history over the last four decades The book ranges widely from more traditional forms of history writing such as political social economic labour and cultural history to the emergence of more recent fields including gender history historical anthropology the history of memory visual history the history of material culture and comparative transnational and global history The Oxford History of Historical Writing: 1800-1945

Daniel R. Woolf, Andrew Feldherr, Grant Hardy, Ian Hesketh, 2011 A chronological scholarly survey of the history of historical writing in five volumes Each volume covers a particular period of time from the beginning of writing to the present day and from all over the world A History of Modern Political Thought in East Central Europe Balázs Trencsényi, Maciej

Janowski, Monika Baár, Maria Falina, Michal Kopeček, 2016 The volume offers the first ever synthetic overview of the history of modern political thought in East Central Europe National History and New Nationalism in the Twenty-First Century Niels F. May, Thomas Maissen, 2021-06-17 National history has once again become a battlefield In internal political conflicts which are fought on the terrain of popular culture museums schoolbooks and memorial politics it has taken on a newly important and contested role Irrespective of national specifics the narratives of new nationalism are quite similar everywhere National history is said to stretch back many centuries expressing the historical continuity of a homogeneous people and its timeless character This people struggles for independence guided by towering leaders and inspired by the sacrifice of martyrs Unlike earlier forms of nationalism the main enemies are no longer neighbouring states but international and supranational institutions To use national history as an integrative tool new nationalists claim that the media and school history curricula should not contest or question the nation and its great historical deeds as doubts threaten to weaken and dishonour the nation This book offers a broad international overview of the rhetoric contents and contexts of the rise of these renewed national historical narratives and of how professional historians have reacted to these phenomena The contributions focus on a wide range of representative nations from around all over the globe Folklore and Nationalism in Europe

During the Long Nineteenth Century, 2012-07-25 The growth of nations national ideologies and the accompanying quest for the authentic among the people has been a subject of enquiry for many disciplines Building upon wide ranging scholarship this interdisciplinary study seeks to analyse the place of folklore in the long nineteenth century throughout Europe as an important symbol in the growth and development of nations and nationalism and in particular to see how combining perspectives from History Literary Studies Music and Architecture can help provide enhanced and refreshing perspectives on the complex process of nation building With a range of detailed case studies drawing upon archival literary visual and musical sources as well as material culture it raises questions about individual countries but also about links and similarities across Europe The Cambridge History of Nationhood and Nationalism: Volume 2, Nationalism's Fields of Interaction

Cathie Carmichael, Matthew D'Auria, Aviel Roshwald, 2023-11-09 This major new reference work with contributions from an international team of scholars provides a comprehensive account of ideas and practices of nationhood and nationalism from antiquity to the present It considers both continuities and discontinuities engaging critically and analytically with the scholarly literature in the field In volume II leading scholars in their fields explore the dynamics of nationhood and nationalism s interactions with a wide variety of cultural practices and social institutions in addition to the phenomenon s crucial political dimensions The relationships between imperialism and nationhood nationalism and between major world religions and ethno national identities are among the key themes explained and explored The wide range of case studies from around the world brings a truly global comparative perspective to a field whose study was long constrained by Eurocentric assumptions History Education and Conflict Transformation

Charis Psaltis, Mario Carretero, Sabina Čehajić-Clancy, 2017-08-29 This book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license This volume discusses the effects models and implications of history teaching in relation to conflict transformation and reconciliation from a social psychological perspective Bringing together a mix of established and young researchers and academics from the fields of psychology education and history the book provides an in depth exploration of the role of historical narratives history teaching history textbooks and the work of civil society organizations in post conflict societies undergoing reconciliation processes and reflects on the state of the art at both the international and regional level As well as dealing with the question of the perpetrator victim dynamic the book also focuses on the particular context of transition in and out of cold war in Eastern Europe and the post conflict settings of Northern Ireland Israel and Palestine and Cyprus It is also exploring the pedagogical classroom practices of history teaching and a critical comparison of various possible approaches taken in educational praxis The book will make compelling reading for students and researchers of education history sociology peace and conflict studies and psychology Roman Law and the Idea of Europe Kaius Tuori, Heta Björklund, 2018-12-27 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com It is funded by the European Research Council Roman law is widely considered to be the foundation of European legal culture and an inherent source of unity within European law Roman Law and the Idea of Europe explores the emergence of this idea of Roman law as an idealized shared heritage tracing its origins among exiled German scholars in Britain during the Nazi regime The book follows the spread and influence of these ideas in Europe after the war as part of the larger enthusiasm for European unity It argues that the rise of the importance of Roman law was a reaction against the crisis of jurisprudence in the face of Nazi ideas of racial and ultranationalistic law leading to the establishment of the idea of Europe founded on shared legal principles With contributions from leading academics in the field as well as established younger scholars this volume will be of immense interests to anyone studying intellectual history legal history political history and Roman law in the context of Europe

Interpreting National History Terrie Epstein, 2010-04-02 How do students racial identities work with and against teachers pedagogies to shape their understandings of history and contemporary society Based on a long term ethnographic study Interpreting National History examines the startling differences in black and white students interpretations of U S history in classroom and community settings Interviews with children and teens compare and contrast the historical interpretations students bring with them to the classroom with those they leave with after a year of teacher s instruction Firmly grounded in history and social studies education theory and practice this powerful book Illuminates how textbooks pedagogies and contemporary learning standards are often disconnected from students cultural identities Explores how students and parents interpret history and society in home and community settings Successfully analyzes examples of the challenges and possibilities facing teachers of history and social studies Provides alternative approaches for those who want to examine their own views toward teaching national history and aspire to engage in more culturally responsive pedagogy

A New Critical Approach to the History of Palestine Ingrid Hjelm, Hamdan Taha, Ilan Pappé, Thomas L. Thompson, 2019-06-07 A New Critical Approach to the History of Palestine discusses prospects and methods for a comprehensive evidence based history of Palestine with a critical use of recent historical archaeological and anthropological methods This history is not an exclusive history but one that is ethnically and culturally inclusive a history of and for all peoples who have lived in Palestine After an introductory essay offering a strategy for creating coherence and continuity from the earliest beginnings to the present the volume presents twenty articles from twenty two contributors fifteen of whom are of Middle Eastern origin or relation Split thematically into four parts the volume discusses ideology national identity and chronology in various historiographies of Palestine and the legacy of memory and oral history the transient character of ethnicity in Palestine and questions regarding the ethical responsibilities of archaeologists and historians to protect the multi ethnic cultural heritage of Palestine landscape and memory and the values of community archaeology and bio archaeology and an exploration of the ideology of the land and its influence on Palestine s history and heritage The first in a series of books under the auspices of the Palestine History and Heritage Project PaHH the volume offers a challenging new departure for writing the history of Palestine and Israel throughout the ages A New Critical Approach to the History of Palestine explores the diverse history of the region against the backdrop of twentieth century scholarly construction of the history of Palestine as a history of a Jewish homeland with roots in an ancient biblical Israel and examines the implications of this ancient and recent history for archaeology and cultural heritage The book offers a fascinating new perspective for students and academics in the fields of anthropological political cultural and biblical history

Palgrave Handbook of Research in Historical Culture and Education Mario Carretero, Stefan Berger, Maria Grever, 2017-03-07 This volume comprises a broad interdisciplinary examination of the many different approaches by which contemporary scholars record our history The editors provide a comprehensive overview through thirty eight chapters divided into four parts a Historical Culture and Public Uses of History b The Appeal of the Nation in History Education of Postcolonial Societies c Reflections on History Learning and Teaching d Educational Resources Curricula Textbooks and New Media This unique text integrates contributions of researchers from history education collective memory museum studies heritage social and cognitive psychology and other social sciences stimulating an interdisciplinary dialogue Contributors come from various countries of Northern and Southern America Europe and Asia providing an international perspective that does justice to the complexity of this field of study The Palgrave Handbook of Research in Historical Culture and Education provides state of the art research focussing on how citizens and societies make sense of the past through different ways of representing it

Tales of the Nation Lene Bull-Christiansen, 2004 In light of the uses and misuses of history in Zimbabwean politics in recent years this research report focuses on how versions of the country's liberation war history have become a site of struggle over the definition of Zimbabwean national identity As identity politics often do Zimbabwean nationalism draws on a wide field of cultural symbols of identity and political discourses of inclusion and exclusion Therefore the report takes a cross disciplinary approach to the issue of national identity by mapping out the imaginary field of Zimbabwean nationalism This approach opens up the possibility of cross reading the political discourses of the President and the ruling party ZANU PF with opposing voices such as those in the works of the author Yvonne Vera This cross reading shows how Vera's novels and the political discourses participate in the struggle over Zimbabwean national identity by offering different versions of the nation's history in the form of patriotic history feminist nationalism or narratives of difference In this way the research report adds to our understanding of power and resistance in Zimbabwean politics of national identity

Making Nordic Historiography Pertti Haapala, Marja Jalava, Simon Larsson, 2017-09-01 Is there a Nordic history If so what are its origins its scope and its defining features In this informative volume scholars from all five Nordic nations tackle a notoriously problematic historical concept Whether recounting Foucault's departure from Sweden or tracing the rise of movements such as aristocratic empiricism each contribution takes a deliberately transnational approach that is grounded in careful research yielding rich nuanced perspectives on shifting and contested historical terrain European Nations Miroslav Hroch, 2015-04-28 One of the world's leading theorists of nationalism offers a new synthesis In the history of modern political thought no topics have attracted as much attention as nationalism nation formation and patriotism A mass of literature has grown around these vexed issues muddying the waters and a level headed clarification is long overdue Rather than adding another theory of nationalism to this maelstrom of ideas Miroslav Hroch has created a remarkable synthesis integrating apparently competing frameworks into a coherent system that tracks the historical genesis of European nations through the sundry paths of the nation forming processes of the nineteenth century Combining a comparative perspective on nation formation with invaluable theoretical insights European Nations is essential for anyone who wants to understand the historical roots of Europe's current political crisis Traditions of History Writing in India Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2024-03-28 EduGorilla Publication is a trusted name in the education sector committed to empowering learners with high quality study materials and resources Specializing in competitive exams and academic support EduGorilla provides comprehensive and well structured content tailored to meet the needs of students across various streams and levels Bangladesh Cinema and National Identity Zakir Hossain Raju, 2014-12-17 Throughout the twentieth and early twenty first centuries cinema has been adopted as a popular cultural institution in Bangladesh At the same time this has been the period for the articulation of modern nationhood and cultural identity of Bengali Muslims in Bangladesh This book analyses the relationship between cinema and modernity in Bangladesh providing a narrative of the uneven process that produced the idea of Bangladesh cinema This book investigates the roles of a non Western national film industry in Asia in constructing nationhood and identity within colonial and postcolonial predicaments Drawing on the idea of cinema as public sphere and the postcolonial notion of formation of the Bangladesh nation interactions between cinema and middle class Bengali Muslims in different social and political matrices are analyzed The author explores how the conflict among different social groups turned Bangladesh cinema into a site of contesting identities In particular he illustrates the connections between film production and reception in Bangladesh and a variety of nationalist constructions of Bengali Muslim identity Questioning and debunking the usual notions of Bangladesh and cinema this book positions the cinema of Bangladesh within a transnational frame Starting with how to locate the beginning of the second Bengali language cinema in colonial Bengal the author completes the investigation by identifying a global Bangladeshi cinema in the early twenty first century The first major academic study on this large and vibrant national cinema this book demonstrates that Bangladesh cinema worked as different public spheres for different publics throughout the twentieth century and beyond Filling a niche in Global Film and Media Studies and South Asian Studies it will be of interest to scholars and students of these disciplines A Political History of National Citizenship and Identity in Italy, 1861-1950 Sabina Donati, 2013-06-26 This book examines the fascinating origins and the complex evolution of Italian national citizenship from the unification of Italy in 1861 until just after World War II It does so by exploring the civic history of Italians in the peninsula and of Italy's colonial and overseas native populations. Using little known documentation, Sabina Donati delves into the policies, debates, and formal notions of Italian national citizenship with a view to grasping the multifaceted, evolving, and often contested visions of Italianity. In her study, these disparate visions are brought into conversation with contemporary scholarship pertaining to alienhood, racial thinking, migration, expansionism, and gender. As the first English language book on the modern history of Italian citizenship, this work highlights often overlooked precedents, continuities, and discontinuities within and between liberal and fascist Italies. It invites the reader to compare the Italian experiences with other European ones such as French, British, and German citizenship traditions. World History and National Identity in China Xin Fan, 2021-02-25. Focuses on individual lived experiences to trace the development of world historical studies in China's long twentieth century.
