National Intelligencer Newspaper Abstracts 1841:

Eternity at the End of a Rope Clifford R. Caldwell, Ron DeLord, 2016-03-03 Since 1819 over 3 000 souls found their personal eternity at the end of a rope in Texas Some earned their way Others were the victim of mistaken identity or an act of vigilante justice Deserved or not when the hangman s knot is pulled up tight and the black cap snugged down over your head it is too late to plead your case This remarkable story begins in 1819 with the first legal hanging in Texas By 1835 accounts of lynching dotted the records Although by 1923 legal execution by hanging was discontinued in favor of the electric chair vigilante justice remained a favorite pastime for some The accounts of violence are numbing The cultural and racial implications are profound and offer a far more accurate unbiased insight into the tally of African American and Hispanic victims of mob violence in the Lone Star State than has ever been presented Many of these deeds were nothing short of morbid theater worthy of another era This book is backed up by years of research and thousands of primary source documents Includes Index and Bibliography

The Maryland 400 in the Battle of Long Island, 1776 Linda Davis Reno, 2008-01-01 This work chronicles the story of 400 young men who willingly and knowingly sacrificed themselves to save the Continental Army at the Battle of Long Island on August 27 1776 Holding back 20 000 British and Hessian soldiers they allowed their comrades to retreat and may have saved the Revolution from immediate defeat This exhaustively researched account introduces the reader to the background of the battle and the stories of the individuals who fought that day and includes biographies with extensive quoted material in addition to a general historic overview

Work Projects Administration (Ohio),1938 Catalogue of the New York State Library ... New York State Library,1882 Abstracts of Death Notices (1833-1852) and Miscellaneous News Articles (1833-1924) from the Maine Farmer David Colby Young,Benjamin Lewis Keene,1997 This collection of abstracts including birth death and other miscellaneous news items will be useful to both professional and amateur genealogists not only for the information the abstracts contain but also for the clues they give to finding further information For ease of use the abstracts are arranged alphabetically by surname Y0599HB 40 00 A Shadow on the Household Bryan Prince,2012-12-04 The extraordinary story of one couple s determination to free themselves and their children from slavery and make a new life in Canada Prior to abolition in 1865 as many as 40 000 men women and children made the perilous trip north from enslavement in the United States to freedom in Canada Many were aided by networks that came to be known as the Underground Railroad And the stories that emerge from the past about these journeys are truly remarkable In A Shadow on the Household Bryan Prince a descendant of slaves brings to life the heart wrenching story of the Weems family and their struggle to liberate themselves from slavery John Weems a man who purchased his own freedom paid the owner of his enslaved wife and eight children an annual fee to keep them together at one plantation But when that owner died the Weemses were cruelly separated and scattered throughout the South Heartbroken and desperate John resolved to raise the money to buy his family s freedom and reunite them Mining newspapers private letters diaries estate records marriage registries and abolitionist papers for details of a story cloaked in secrecy Bryan Prince has rescued the Weems family and their plight from historical oblivion An unforgettable story of love and persistence played out in four countries the United States Canada Jamaica and the United Kingdom against the backdrop of the publication of Uncle Tom s Cabin a growing abolitionist movement and the heroic efforts of the Underground Railroad the Weems family saga must be read to be believed Rough Waters Silvia Marzagalli,James R. Sofka,John McCusker,2017-10-18 This study analyses the presence of American ships merchants and interests in the Mediterranean region in the first decades following the independence of the United States and seeks to understand whether or not the English Dutch Scandinavians and Americans invaded the region and its shipping industry in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries It considers the following topics the benefit of American neutrality during the French Revolutionary wars which enabled the growth of their shipping activities the organisation of protection for American ships post independence particularly from Barbary privateers the diplomatic efforts of John Adams and Thomas Jefferson and the relationships of convenience fostered by American powers when requesting European assistance the development of American consular services to assist merchants and captains the avoidance of incidents through peace and commercial treaties through to ship seizures and crew enslavement and the impact of the Tripolitanian War or Barbary War on American Mediterranean shipping

The works in this volume attempt to determine whether or not these actions can be considered an invasion They explore the mutually beneficial aspects of American Mediterranean trade whilst also considering the strength of the Mediterranean trade particularly Greek prior to American interference It concludes by confirming the dual objectives of the American presence to ensure open markets for their goods and to enhance their political and military power against British French and North African regencies

Engaging Smithsonian Objects through Science, History, and the Arts Mary Jo

Arnoldi,2016-01-05 How do we come to know the world around us What about worlds apart from our own outer space distant cultures or even long past eras of history Engaging Smithsonian Objects through Science History and the Arts explores these questions and suggests an answer we come to know our world and worlds apart through the objects that represent them Objects are a window and by looking through them we can learn and understand more about the people who made them and the time and place they came from In the pursuit of this understanding museums are invaluable they are repositories not just of things but also of past present and future knowledge Engaging Smithsonian Objects puts these ideas into practice using objects to bring us to new knowledge and showing how museums support us in the endeavor The book is organized around ten objects from the Smithsonian s vast collections Some of the objects are iconic the Ruby Slippers from the The Wizard of Oz or three Stradivarius string instruments while others are more ordinary though no less interesting an Iron Lung or a Hawaiian gourd drum Two different authors with expertise in different academic disciplines write about each object from their unique professional and personal perspective Both the authors and the ten featured objects represent a range of academic disciplines from art to anthropology to geology Taken together the twenty essays in the book demonstrate just how much we can learn from objects by considering their kaleidoscopic meaning and significance from a variety of viewpoints The book s interdisciplinary engagement with objects was inspired by the Smithsonian Material Culture Forum now in its twenty sixth year For students of material culture and museum studies this book illustrates the vitality and value of exploring material culture through the lens of intersecting disciplinary perspectives For students of curiosity and lifelong learning this book offers a lively and thoughtful look into the Smithsonian s collection and the many vibrant worlds it represents Richly illustrated with color plates and photographs throughout Engaging Smithsonian Objects through Science History and the Arts is a beautiful and stimulating answer to the question How do we know our world and how can we know more

Sojourners, Sultans, and Slaves Gunja SenGupta,Awam Amkpa,2023-02-07 In the nineteenth century global systems of capitalism and empire knit the North Atlantic and Indian Ocean worlds into international networks in contest over the meanings of slavery and freedom Sojourners Sultans and Slaves mines multinational archives profiles transnational human rights campaigns shows how the discourses of poverty kinship and care could be adapted to defend servitude in different parts of the world and reveals the tenuous boundaries that such discourses shared with Whiggish contractual notions of freedom An intercontinental cast of empire builders and migr s slavers and reformers a cotton queen and courtesans and fugitive slaves and concubines populate the pages fleshing out on a granular level the interface between the personal domestic and international politics of slavery in the East and in the age of empire By extending the transnational framework of U S slavery and abolition histories beyond the Atlantic Gunja SenGupta and Awam Amkpa recover vivid stories and prompt reflections on the comparative workings of subaltern agency Annals of Cleveland--1818-1935 ... United States.
