Subcommittee on Antitrust and Monopoly,1964 E-commerce Law and Practice in Europe Ian Walden,Julia Hörnle,2001-04-27 With the massive explosion of e commerce and especially the use of the Internet as a transnational and instant medium for business transactions has come a whole range of new laws and regulations and inevitably a minefield of accompanying uncertainties and potential pitfalls So what exactly are the legal issues companies need to address and what are their implications in real terms for the business world Find the answers in this groundbreaking study undertaken for the European Commission within the framework of the ECLIP project With a brief to provide practical help for businesses and e commerce initiatives this series of cutting edge reviews examines and evaluates the special rules designed to regulate the Internet both at a European and at national level in the Member States It also explains the relevant technological developments and evaluates them against the legal background This is an essential guide for legal and corporate practitioners alike as well as software developers and the consultancy community internationally A publication of the ECLIP network Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary,1968 Covering ABS Tomme Young,2009 The most difficult and least addressed ABS implementation issue is that of coverage On the one hand the CBD s ABS provisions appear to give every country full rights over all genetic resources found in the country even if the exact subspecies or variety is also found in other countries On the other hand however even within a single country each biome may be separately regulated and each community or landowner may be given the right to control access to and receive benefits for the genetic resources of every specimen taken from their land or sold by them This book analyzes the basic concept of ABS examining the overall mechanisms that could be used to make the system work internationally Good Faith in Transnational Law Frédéric Gilles Sourgens,2022-09-12 Transnational law currently appears fragmented and captured by self interested corporate actors Good faith is at the heart of this fragmentation To defend transnational law thus requires an account of good faith Good Faith in Transnational Law explains and recasts fragmentation and capture as something valuable and casts good faith as an obligation of other regarding communicative conduct Fr d ric Gilles Sourgens argues that the fragmentation we experience is a virtue for communication across vastly different commercial economic social cultural and linguistic contexts to remain legally meaningful we must translate our different expectations into a shared context bound idiom He argues that law harnesses stress of such translations through stress fields that reintegrate the different experiences in a shared transnational discourse Dalhuisen on Transnational Comparative, Commercial, Financial and Trade Law Volume 1 Jan H Dalhuisen,2019-07-25 This is the seventh edition of the leading work on transnational and comparative
