Research Reports - National Geographic Society National Geographic Society (U.S.),1978 Abstracts and reviews of research and exploration authorized under grants from the National Geographic Society Archeological Research Series Research Report ,1961 Research Report U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, 1964 Florida's Fossils Robin C. .1951 Brown, 2014-10-01 For 50 million years Florida was home to hordes of strange and wonderful animals Their remains accumulated in rivers springs and oceans Today fossilized bones and teeth wash up along streams banks and beaches and lie in limerock guarries This guide teaches how and where to hunt fossils with maps means of identification and the history of these fossil treasures Complete accurate and fully illustrated including an outstanding identification section Protected Wildlife Species of Nepal Nabina Shrestha, 1997 Makers and Making Of Indigenous Australian Museum Collections Nicolas Peterson, Lindy Allen, Louise Hamby, 2008-08-16 This volume of original essays brings together for the first time histories of the making and of the makers of most of the major Indigenous Australian museum collections These collections are a principal source of information on how Aboriginal people lived in the past Knowing the context in which any collection was created the intellectual frameworks within which the collectors were working their collecting practices what they failed to collect and what Aboriginal people withheld is vital to understanding how any collection relates to the Aboriginal society from which it was derived Once made collections have had mixed fates some have become the jewel of a museum's holdings while others have been divided and dispersed across the world or retained but neglected. The essays in this volume raise issues about representation institutional policies the periodisation of collecting intellectual history material culture studies Aboriginal culture and the idea of a collection Catalog of Copyright Entries. Rodgers, 2007-05-08 This is a Foreword by an archaeologist not a conservator but as Brad Rodgers says Conservation has been steadily pulled from archaeology by the forces of specialization p 3 andhewantstoremedythatsituationthroughthismanual He seesthisworkasa calltoactionforthenon professional conservator permitting curators conservators and archaeologists to identify artifacts that need prof sional attention and allow these professionals to stabilize most artifacts in their own laboratories with minimal intervention using simple non toxic procedures p 5 It is the mission of Brad s manual to bring conservation back into arch ology p 6 The degree of success of that goal depends on the degree to which archaeologists pay attention to and put to use what Brad has to say because as he says The conservationist archaeologist is responsible to make preparation for an artifact s care even before it is excavated and after its storage into the foreseeable future a tremendous responsibility p 10 The manual is a combination of highly technical as well as common sense methods of conserving wood iron and other metals ceramics glass and stone organics and composits afarbetter guide to artifact conservation than was available to me when I rst faced that archaeological challenge at colonial Brunswick Town North Carolina in 1958 a challenge still being faced by archaeologists today The stage of conservation in 1958 is in dramatic contrast to the procedures Brad describes in this manual conservation has indeed made great progress For instance

Shadle, 2006-08-30 Beginning in the late 1930s a crisis in colonial Gusiiland developed over traditional marriage customs Couples eloped wives deserted husbands fathers forced daughters into marriage and desperate men abducted women as wives Existing historiography focuses on women who either fled their rural homes to escape a new dual patriarchy African men backed by colonial officials or surrendered themselves to this new power Girl Cases Marriage and Colonialism in Gusiiland Kenya 1890 1970 takes a new approach to the study of Gusii marriage customs and shows that Gusii women stayed in their homes to fight over the nature of marriage Gusii women and their lovers remained committed to traditional bridewealth marriage but they raised deeper questions over the relations between men and women During this time of social upheaval thousands of marriage disputes flowed into local African courts By examining court transcripts Girl Cases sheds light on the dialogue that developed surrounding the nature of marriage Should parental rights to arrange a marriage outweigh women s rights to choose their husbands Could violence by abductors create a legitimate union Men and women debated these and other issues in the courtroom and Brett L Shadle's analysis of the transcripts provides a valuable addition to African social history Rethinking the Andes-Amazonia Divide Adrian J. Pearce, David G. Beresford-Jones, Paul Heggarty, 2020-10-21 Nowhere on Earth is there an ecological transformation so swift and so extreme as between the snow line of the high Andes and the tropical rainforest of Amazonia The different disciplines that research the human past in South America have long tended to treat these two great subzones of the continent as self contained enough to be taken independently of each other Objections have repeatedly been raised however to warn against imagining too sharp a divide between the people and societies of the Andes and Amazonia when there are also clear indications of significant connections and transitions between them Rethinking the Andes Amazonia Divide brings together archaeologists linguists geneticists anthropologists ethnohistorians and historians to explore both correlations and contrasts in how the various disciplines see the relationship between the Andes and Amazonia from deepest prehistory up to the European colonial period The volume emerges from an innovative programme of conferences and symposia conceived explicitly to foster awareness discussion and co operation across the divides between disciplines Underway since 2008 this programme has already yielded major publications on the Andean past including History and Language in the Andes 2011 and Archaeology and Language in the Andes 2012 Pennsylvania Union List of Serials ,1984 Los Primeros Mexicanos Guadalupe Sánchez,2016-02-11 This book presents a synthesis of Mexican Paleoindian archaeology with an emphasis on the state of Sonora The author uses extensive primary data concerning specific artifacts assemblages and other Mexican and Sonoran Paleoindian archaeology to demonstrate the insignificance of current international borders to the earliest peoples of North America Provided by publisher Approaches to the historical archaeology of Mexico, Central & South America Patricia Fournier Garcia, Janine Gasco, Greg Charles Smith, 1997-12-31 Research Report - Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife United States. Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, 1941 Bulletin of the Geological Society of America Geological Society of America, 1920 Vols 1 44 include Proceedings of the annual meeting 1889 1933 later published separately Reports - National Geographic Society National Geographic Society (U.S.), 1968 Abstracts and reviews of research and exploration authorized under grants from the National Geographic Society The Coastal Zone Kenneth Ruddle, William B. Sacred Natural Sites Bas Verschuuren, Robert Wild, Jeffrey Mcneely, Gonzalo Morgan, James R. Pfafflin, 1988 Oviedo, 2012-06-25 Sacred Natural Sites are the world's oldest protected places. This book focuses on a wide spread of both iconic and lesser known examples such as sacred groves of the Western Ghats India Sagarmatha Chomolongma Mt Everest Nepal Tibet and China the Golden Mountains of Altai Russia Holy Island of Lindisfarne UK and the sacred lakes of the Niger Delta Nigeria The book illustrates that sacred natural sites although often under threat exist within and outside formally recognised protected areas heritage sites Sacred natural sites may well be some of the last strongholds for building resilient networks of connected landscapes They also form important nodes for maintaining a dynamic socio cultural fabric in the face of global change The diverse authors bridge the gap between approaches to the conservation of cultural and biological diversity by taking into account cultural and spiritual values together with the socio economic interests of the custodian communities and other relevant stakeholders Bibliography and Index of Georgia Geology ,1983
