National Integration In Indonesia:

National Integration in Indonesia Christine Drake, 2019-03-31 Indonesia's great size and diversity and its history of regional dissension have made its struggle for national integration particularly complex. Christine Drake presents an informed and balanced picture of past and present developments in this struggle, offering readers a realistic assessment of the current status and future prospects of national integration in Indonesia. By addressing historical, political, social, and economic issues in conjunction with statistical analysis, Professor Drake argues that the spatial pattern of integration is far more complex than the commonly accepted core-periphery model of Indonesian integration and development. The author examines the effectiveness of Indonesian government policies in promoting national integration and concludes that in general they have led to greater national unity, although many serious problems remain.

Decentralisation and National Integration in Indonesia Hajar G. Pramudyasmono, 2011-03 This book discusses the interplay between decentralisation and national integration in Indonesia, particularly in Riau during the early stage of reform period. After the fall of Soeharto's New Order regime in 1998, Riau, with its rich natural resources, was one of the prominent provinces calling for decentralisation, regional autonomy, or otherwise seeking independence by separating from the Unitary State of the Republic of Indonesia. Three agendas, i.e. political, economy, and social-cultural reforms, were raised by local university students and community elites under the Riau Independence Movement, Gerakan Riau Merdeka. To placate this demand, the Indonesian Government under President B.J. Habibie established Laws No. 22/1999 and No. 25/1999 as the foundations of decentralisation nationwide. How Riau's political upheaval at the post-New Order period threatened Indonesia's integration, and to what extent the implementation of decentralisation prevented national disintegration, are well documented and examined in this book.

The Divergent Nation of Indonesia Stefani Nugroho, 2020-07-28 This book explores how Indonesia is imagined differently by young people in the three cities of Jakarta, Kupang, and Banda Aceh. Throughout the course of Indonesia's colonial and postcolonial history, Jakarta, the capital, has always occupied a central position, while Kupang in East Nusa Tenggara and Banda Aceh in Nanggroe Aceh Darussalam are located at the peripheries. The book analyses the convergences and divergences in how the country is perceived from these different vantage points and the implications for Indonesia, also providing a new perspective to the classic and contemporary theories of the nation. By examining the heterogeneity of the imaginings of the nation from below, it moves away from the tendency to focus on the homogeneity of the nation found in the classic theories such as Anderson's and Gellner's, as well as in more recent theories on every day and banal nationalism. Using the tenets of standpoint theory and Laclau and Mouffe's theory of hegemony, the nation is acknowledged as an empty signifier that means different things depending on the positionality of the perceiving subject. The work appeals to scholars of nation studies and Asian and Indonesian studies, as well as those interested in the empirical grounding of poststructuralist theories Indonesia Taufik Abdullah, 2009 This book traces the beginning of the process of nation formation the struggle for independence the hopeful beginning of the new nation state of Indonesia only to be followed by hard and difficult ways to remain true to the ideals of independence In the process Indonesia with its sprawling archipelago and its multi ethnic and multi religious nation has to undergo various types of crisis and internal conflicts but the ideals that have been nurtured since the beginning when a new nation began to be visualized remain intact Some changes in the interpretation may have taken place and some deviations here and there can be noticed but the literal meaning of the ideals continues to be the guiding light In short this is a history of a nation in the continuing effort to retain the ideals of its existence Foreign Policy and National Integration Jon M. Reinhardt, 1971 Indonesia's Maritime Policy from Independence to 2019 Indra Alverdian, 2024-08-02 Alverdian explores how a distinct national character of maritime governance has influenced the nature of Indonesia's aspiration to go beyond archipelagic towards a maritime nation through focusing on the intersection between the nation's political culture historical changes and geopolitical contexts which gave rise to the primacy of the theme of unity in the nation's discourse The main theme of this research is the three pillar framework of the Tanah Air concept which includes the political culture of persatuan nasional national unity the strategic culture of cakra manggilingan turning of the times from dark to golden periods and the geopolitical context of posisi silang dunia world crossroad position The findings of this publication indicate the dominant influence of Javanese political culture philosophy values and traditions on the distinct character of Indonesia's maritime orientation Specifically Javanese political philosophy and traditions within each pillar of Tanah Air have influenced continuity rather than change in the evolution of Indonesia's maritime policy This book helps readers understand how the defining theme of unity in national political culture has shaped the evolution of Indonesia's maritime policy from 1945 to 2019 It illustrates how the continuous influence of the theme of national unity as devised by the political elites through history has addressed the realities of the archipelago's geography and it is significant from both an academic and practical policy perspective A book designed for academics and the general public interested in gaining greater insight and knowledge on Indonesia's maritime policy and maritime nation aspirations The Ethnic Chinese Issue and National Integration in Indonesia Leo Suryadinata, 1999
