National To National A Year On The Show Jumping Circuit:

National to National David W. Hollis, 1992 No Hurdle Too High Mona Pastroff Goldstein, 2005-10-01 America's most successful Grand Prix rider Margie Goldstein Engle is the star attraction at any horse show in which she competes as well as a role model for a generation of young equestrians. Despite her parents' objections, young Margie worked odd jobs at stables in exchange for riding lessons, then proved her ability in the show ring on ponies and later on horses. Her first Grand Prix victory came in 1986 on Daydream and was followed by such notable blue ribbon successes as the prestigious American Invitational, the Budweiser AGA Show Jumping Championship, and representing the United States in Nations Cups. She is the American Grandprix Association's only eight-time Rider of the Year and the first rider ever to place first, second, third, fourth, and fifth in a single Grand Prix class. The route to the top was not an easy one; Margie had to overcome financial challenges and a series of bone-breaking injuries that threatened to end her career. But thanks to her courage and tenacity and the love and support of her family, especially husband Steve, and her sponsors and fans, she rebounded to increased prominence at the international level. In addition to telling this extraordinary and inspiring story, the book offers many of the horsemanship tips and techniques that have given Margie and her students the winner's edge. Written by someone who has known Margie best, her mother No Hurdle Too High will appeal to everyone, rider or not, who thrills to challenges and triumphs at the highest level.

Horse Show Mom's Survival Guide Susan Daniels, 2008-03-01 At some point in a mother's life, her child most likely her daughter will smile sweetly and say, "Mommy, I want to learn to ride a horse. And then I want to win a blue ribbon." What's a mother to do? Or, for that matter, a father, since he'll become involved too, even though ferrying the child to and from lessons and competitions is far more often the equivalent of a Soccer Mom. Even people who rode when they were younger may not remember the ins and outs of the sport, and especially the way it's played these days. Riding to the rescue comes Susan Daniels, an experienced and accomplished Horse Show Mom. Taking the perplexed parent under her wing, she provides advice on locating a suitable lesson stable, including how to tell whether a particular instructor is right for your child and what to do if he or she isn't; determining when or whether to buy a horse or a pony; outfitting horse and rider; must the animal's leg wraps and the child's ponytail ribbons match; and understanding and coping with stable politics, such as when it's appropriate for barn managers and instructors to pay more attention to another youngster than to yours. When it comes to horse showing, the author explains how to tell when your child is ready for competition, what's expected of horse and rider at various levels of proficiency, which supplies Moms should always have on hand, safety pins and hair nets, lead the list, how to deal with your child's triumphs and tears, and how to understand the complicated but crucial national and regional championship points systems. With pages of warm and encouraging humor, sound advice, and illustrative true-life adventures from the worlds of hunter-jumper, Western combined training, and dressage competition, The Horse Show Mom's Survival Guide is a valuable leg up for any parent whose youngster has that blue ribbon gleam in her eye.
