Food Safety Economics Tanya Roberts, 2018-12-21 This book examines the economic incentives for food safety in the private marketplace and how public actions have helped shape those incentives. Noted contributors analyze alternative public health protection efforts and the benefits and costs associated with these actions to understand why an excess of foodborne illness occurs, what policies have worked best, how regulations have evolved, what the path forward to better control of pathogens in the U.S. and the international food supply chain might look like. While the first third of the book builds an economic framework, the remaining chapters apply economics to specific food safety issues. Numerous chapters explore economic decision making within individual companies, revealing the trade-offs of the costs of food safety systems to comply with regulations vs. non-compliance, which carries costs of possible penalties, reputation damage, legal liability, suits, and sales reduction. Pathogen control costs are examined in both the short run and long run. The book's unique application of economic theory to food safety decision making in both the public and private sectors makes it a key resource for food safety professionals in academia, government, industry, and consumer groups around the world. In addition to Benefit Cost Analysis and economic incentives, other economic concepts are applied to food safety supply chains, such as principal agent theory and the economics of information. Authors provide real world examples from Farm to Fork to showcase these economic concepts throughout the book.

Cats of the National Trust Amy Feldman, 2018-10-26 From Sir Winston Churchill to Ellen Terry, Beatrix Potter to Vita Sackville-West, many of the National Trust's former residents were cat lovers. Cats of the National Trust explores these feline fanatics and the animals or animal objects with which they filled their homes. Each entry includes gorgeous photos and accompanying text describing the collection item, person, or animal in the photo, and their relevance to the Trust. In Cats of the National Trust, we'll meet Sir Winston Churchill, who requested that a marmalade cat with a white bib and four white socks should always be in comfortable residence at Chartwell, Kent; Thomas Hardy's Snowdove is buried at Max Gate, Dorset; Hardy wrote Last Words to a Dumb Friend in eulogy; Discover Victorian actress Ellen Terry, who transported Boo-boo between her homes in London and Smallhythe, Kent; and Betty Hussey, who crammed Scotney Castle full of feline objects. Its current occupant, a cat named Betsy, can sometimes be found roaming the halls. Together with modern-day examples, Cats of the National Trust is an amusing and heart-warming guide to National Trust pets and the
