Interdisciplinary Bibliography on Nationalism, 1935-53. By KARL W. DEUTSCH. Cambridge, Mass.: Technology Press of M.I.T. 1956. 165. Index.

During the last fifteen years Karl W. Deutsch, Professor of History and Political Science at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, has published two books and eleven articles on nationalism and related subjects. At first his studies centered on the economic factor in nationalism, but after 1949 they were geared to the approach of a new field of social sciences: "communication and control." Then in 1952 he wrote an article on "Nationalistic Responses to Study Abroad" which was the first of six publications that have been classified as "general works" and "political science." The two books, Nationalism and Social Communication (Technology Press of M.I.T., 1953) and his Political Community at the International Level: Problems of Definition and Measurement (Doubleday, 1954), are broad studies that bring together the results of research along these several lines.

Interdisciplinary Bibliography on Nationalism, 1935-53 is a product of the bibliographical work that went into Professor Deutsch's study of nationalism, and also is a continuation of Dr. Koppel Pinson's A Bibliographical Introduction to Nationalism, published in 1935. As the title suggests, the bibliography is organized by discipline. The first section on major surveys is followed by one on special works on nationalism. The next eleven sections are devoted to separate disciplines: political science; theory of communication; cultural anthropology, sociology, and social psychology; linguistics; history; economic history; economic and social policy; geography; biology; religion; and philosophy and ethics. Finally there is a long section on specific peoples and areas.

In the Introduction Professor Deutsch points out that the bibliography is selective, and that the test for inclusion was whether or not the item was useful for his study of nationalism. Thus a specialist in a particular discipline, or in the nationalism of a particular people, will find glaring omissions. But researchers who are looking broadly for new theories, generalizations, and data about nationalism, and for new methods and techniques of research, will find this bibliography an important aid.

Identity Liu Mingxin,Elya Tzaneva,2015-10-13 This book is an exploration of the potential of the ethnosymbolic approach to nation and identity to act as an instrumental tool for research into the mechanisms of identity building Using insights and data from Bulgarian history and culture it views the construction of Bulgarian national identity as a modern process intimately affected by circumstances which prevailed in nineteenth century Bulgarian society and also as a process which for its structural and psychological prerequisites drew upon and reworked various specific features and peculiarities of an available but always malleable and never fixed Bulgarian ethnic and cultural tradition The development of Bulgarian national identity drew in combination or mutual interaction upon two main sources namely a process of articulating systematising and rationalising ideas of group commonality and ethnic distinctiveness and the mobilising and politicising effect of modern economic and political forces upon that intersubjective process The overall means of national identity construction in all its complexity was achieved as a symbiosis between the historical continuity of a collective ethnic inheritance and the modern dynamics of its political activation and mobilisation The book combines diachronically the ideas and logic of social evolution with a synchronic approach that draws upon the so called instrumentalist view of ethnic phenomena It explores the cultural landscape of available ethnic notions and terms that were utilised as expressions of Bulgarian ethnic identity but which also in that process reshaped all this in response to the changing conditions of Bulgarian society in the nineteenth century As such the book offers an in depth investigation of how ideas of national identity were formed and changed within a modernist framework Furthermore it shows how ethnosymbolism used as a tool and instrumentarium for national identity construction can reveal the main patterns that contribute to what is defined as a discursive construction of identity dynamics
