Routledge Revivals: English Poetry in the Later Nineteenth Century (1933) B. Ifor

Evans, 2017-11-30 First published in 1933 this study which underwent revision in the 1960s is a comprehensive survey of the verse of English nineteenth century poets whose work appeared after 1860 A special feature is the full and critical treatment of minor writers In no other book is their work so carefully evaluated There is a full account of the minor Pre Raphaelites of James Thomson the poet of The City of Dreadful Night of Henry Stevenson and George MacDonald John Davidson is the subject of a long and revealing study Evans suggests that poetry from the late nineteenth century is neglected in scholarly study and that Victorian Romanticism deserves more attention than it has recently received Children's Literature in Translation Jan Van Coillie, Walter P. Verschueren, 2014-07-16 Children's classics from Alice in Wonderland to the works of Astrid Lindgren Roald Dahl J K Rowling and Philip Pullman are now generally recognized as literary achievements that from a translator's point of view are no less demanding than serious adult literature This volume attempts to explore the various challenges posed by the translation of children's literature and at the same time highlight some of the strategies that translators can and do follow when facing these challenges A variety of translation theories and concepts are put to critical use including Even Zohar's polysystem theory Toury's concept of norms Venuti's views on foreignizing and domesticating translations and on the translator's invisibility and Chesterman's prototypical approach Topics include the ethics of translating for children the importance of childhood images the revelation of the translator in prefaces the role of translated children's books in the establishment of literary canons the status of translations in the former East Germany questions of taboo and censorship in the translation of adolescent novels the collision of norms in different translations of a Swedish children's classic the handling of cultural intertextuality in the Spanish translations of contemporary British fantasy books strategies for translating cultural markers such as juvenile expressions functional shifts caused by different translation strategies dealing with character names and complex translation strategies used in dealing with the dual audience in Hans Christian Andersen's fairy tales and in Salman Rushdie's Haroun and the Sea of Stories Creating the Culture of Peace Anwarul K. Chowdhury, Daisaku Ikeda, 2020-07-23 The culture of peace and non violence is essential to human existence development and progress In 1999 the United Nations General Assembly adopted by consensus the norm setting forward looking Declaration and Programme of Action on a Culture of Peace Governments institutions NGOs other civil society entities and in particular individuals all are encouraged therein to contribute to the global movement for the culture of peace Related to this vision this rich and varied dialogue discusses how the culture of peace can be achieved in the world Based on the extensive personal and professional experiences of two high profile thinkers and activists they analyse the challenges unfolding at local national and global levels and how these relate to humanity's quest for peace human security and happiness Although coming from very different positions one a Buddhist philosopher educator and leader the other a UN diplomat renowned for his international work in peace development and human rights these interlocutors are united in their search for justice and better quality of life for all and their conviction that women and young people are the most effective means to achieving positive change in the world The dialogue provides ideas on the key challenges that face our planet poverty and deprivation war and violence nuclear weapons and small arms climate change and environmental degradation weak governance and financial crises marginalization of women and alienation of youth and the relentless drive for materialism They also invite us to consider how the culture of peace can be practically achieved through an individual collective and institutional transformation Recognizing that global citizenship multilateralism women s equality and value creating education are central and inter linked themes this dialogue also underscores the inherent strength of spirituality compassion empathy forgiveness respect for diversity and empowerment that comes from the trials and tribulations of life

The Bookman's Manual Bessie Graham,1924      Bulletin of the Toronto Public Library Toronto Public Library,1913

Living Away from Blessings Carina Henriksson,2008 The notion of school failure is often understood only in terms of students cognitive inadequacies or their dropping out of school In this sense students failure really is seen as their failure Living Away from Blessings offers an alternative understanding of the notion by examining students lived experiences of school failure in the classroom The experiential accounts of teenage students show that they view school failure as having little to do with cognitive inadequacy and everything to do with their behaviour The lived experiences described by the students include feelings of disappointment non recognition loneliness boredom shame marginalization stigmatization inferiority and worthlessness Drawing on phenomenological philosophy Carina Henriksson explores the temporal spatial and relational dimensions of the experience of school failure Living Away from Blessings is an insightful and sensitive inquiry into taken for granted attitudes about pedagogical relationships and classroom interaction Cover      Bulletin of the Toronto Public Library ,1912      Pamphlet, No. 1- United States. Office of Education,1930      The flower of the mind, a choice among the best poems made by A. Meynell Flower,1897      Reader's Adviser and Bookman's Manual ,1921

Fingerposts to Children's Reading Walter Taylor Field,1907      The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson,I. R. Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries      The Journal of Education ,1887      Bookman's Manual Bessie Graham,1921
