The Europeans in Australia Alan Atkinson, 2016-07-01 It is the duty of historians to be wherever they can accurately precise humane imaginative using moral imagination above all and even handed Alan Atkinson The second of three volumes of the landmark award winning series The Europeans in Australia gives an account of early settlement by Britain It tells of the political and intellectual origins of this extraordinary undertaking that began during the 1780s a decade of extraordinary creativity and the climax of the European Enlightenment Volume Two Democracy takes the story from around 1815 to the early 1870s By exploring the nineteenth century communications revolution Atkinson casts new light on the way Australia first found its place in a global world This volume is more than a story of geography and politics It describes the way people thought and felt Throughout the trilogy Atkinson traces subtle and sudden shifts of common imagination by analysing the lives of both powerful and ordinary Australians He sets out the ideas and the imagery that moved and marked the people This book like all his work is grounded in thorough and rigorous scholarship yet imbued with compassion and insight Written from the inside it is as he says history caught up with the flesh and memory it describes The culmination of an extraordinary career in the writing and teaching of Australian history The Europeans in Australia grapples with the Australian historical experience as a whole from the point of view of the settlers from Europe Ambitious and unique it is the first such large single author account since Manning Clark's A History of Australia

Australia's Trail-Blazing First Novelist: John Lang Sean Doyle, 2024-01-03 Writer journalist barrister larrikin Who was the first Australian novelist John Lang born in a Parramatta pub in 1816 with the convict stain upon him was a singular character The first native born person to have a novel published he was also a newspaperman a classical scholar and translator barrister celebrity jailbird enigma He was hugely energetic capable and original but he also had his demons A larrikin polymath who refused to be bound by convention Lang didn't just want his allotted portion he wanted all of it He got a lot of it too but not the chalice of immortality Lang was a serial pioneer In literature he also wrote the first detective novel in English the first convict system satire the first Indian travelogue by an Australian and he created the template for the bush novel In journalism he was the first Australian to launch and run a newspaper overseas And in law he was the only barrister to ever defeat the mighty East India Company in an Indian courtroom So why have we never heard of him This long overdue biography explores answers to this revealing question as it tracks Lang's rise from those humble beginnings to fortune and fleeting fame Author Sean Doyle tells the riveting story of Lang's remarkable life and times across three continents in the age of Empire when the modern world was young

An Archaeology of Australia Since 1788 Susan Lawrence, Peter Davies, 2010-10-21 This volume provides an important new synthesis of archaeological work carried out in Australia on the post contact period It draws on dozens of case studies from a wide geographical and temporal span to explore the daily life of Australians in settings such as convict stations goldfields whalers camps farms pastoral estates and urban neighbourhoods The different conditions experienced by various groups of people are described in detail including rich and poor convicts and their superiors Aboriginal people women children and migrant groups The social themes of gender class ethnicity status and identity inform every chapter demonstrating that these are vital parts of human experience and cannot be separated from archaeologies of industry urbanization and culture contact The book engages with a wide range of contemporary discussions and debates within Australian history and the international discipline of historical archaeology The colonization of Australia was part of the international expansion of European hegemony in the eighteenth and nineteenth century The material discussed here is thus fundamentally part of the global processes of colonization and the creation of settler societies the industrial revolution the development of mass consumer culture and the emergence of national identities Drawing out these themes and integrating them with the analysis of archaeological materials highlights the vital relevance of archaeology in modern society

A Commonwealth of Thieves Thomas Keneally, 2007-12-04 In this spirited history of the remarkable first four years of the convict settlement of Australia Thomas Keneally offers us a human view of a fascinating piece of history Combining the authority of a renowned historian with a brilliant narrative flair Keneally gives us an inside view of this unprecedented experiment from the perspective of the new colony's governor Arthur Phillips Using personal journals and documents Keneally re-creates the hellish overseas voyage and the challenges Phillips faced upon arrival unruly convicts disgruntled officers bewildered and hostile natives food shortages and disease He also offers captivating portrayals of Aborigines and of convict settlers who were determined to begin their lives anew A Commonwealth of Thieves immerses us in the fledgling penal colony and conjures up the thrills and hardships of those first four improbable years

Reading Across the Pacific Robert Dixon, Nicholas Birns, 2010 Reading Across the Pacific is a study of literary and cultural engagement between the United States and Australia from a contemporary interdisciplinary perspective The book examines the relations of the two countries shifting the emphasis from the broad cultural patterns that are often compared to the specific networks interactions and crossings that have characterised Australian literature in the United States and American literature in Australia In the 21st century both American and Australian literatures are experiencing new challenges to the very different paradigms of literary history and criticism each inherited from the 20th century In response to these challenges scholars of both literatures are seizing the opportunity to reassess and reconfigure the conceptual geography of national literary spaces as they are reformed by vectors that evade or exceed them including the transnational the local and the global The essays in Reading Across the Pacific are divided into five sections National literatures and transnationalism Poetry and poetics Literature and popular culture The Cold War and Publishing history and transpacific print cultures

Young and Free Joanne Faulkner, 2016-05-03 Tracing the complex yet intimate relationship between a present day national obsession with childhood and a colonial past with which Australia as a nation has not adequately come to terms Young and Free draws on philosophy literature film and testimony The result is a demonstration of how anxiety about childhood has become a screen for more fundamental and intractable issues that vex Australian social and political life Joanne Faulkner argues that by interpreting these anxieties in their relation to settler colonial Australia's unresolved conflict with Aboriginal people new ways of conceiving of Australian community may be opened The book engages with philosophical and literary characterizations of childhood from Locke and Rousseau to Freud Bergson Benjamin Agamben Lacan Rancière and Halbwachs The author's psychoanalytic approach is supplemented by an engagement with contemporary political philosophy that informs Faulkner's critique of the concepts of the subject sovereignty and knowledge resulting in a speculative postcolonial model of the subject Cover artist credit Lyndsay Bird Mpetyane Artwork title Ahakeye Bush Plum Remembering the Myall Creek Massacre Lyndall Ryan Jane

Lydon, 2018-06-01 The 1838 Myall Creek Massacre is remembered for the brutality of the crime committed by white settlers against innocent Aboriginal men women and children but also because eleven of the twelve assassins were arrested and brought to trial Amid tremendous controversy seven were hanged Myall Creek was not the last time the colonial administration sought to apply the law equally to Aboriginal people and settlers but it was the last time perpetrators of a massacre were convicted and hanged Marking its 180th anniversary this book explores the significance of one of the most horrifying events of Australian colonialism Thoughtful and fearless it challenges us to look at our history without flinching as an act of remembrance and reconciliation Young People and the Shaping of Public Space in Melbourne, 1870-1914 Simon Sleight, 2016-02-11 Baby booms have a long history In 1870 colonial Melbourne was perspiring juvenile humanity with an astonishing 42 per cent of the city's inhabitants aged 14 and under a demographic anomaly resulting from the gold rushes of the 1850s Within this context Simon Sleight enters the heated debate concerning the future prospects of Young Australia and the place of the colonial child within the incipient Australian nation Looking beyond those institutional sites so often assessed by historians of childhood he ranges across the outdoor city to chart the relationship between a discourse about youth youthful experience and the shaping of new urban spaces Play street work consumerism courtship gang related activities and public parades are examined using a plethora of historical sources to reveal a hitherto hidden layer of city life Capturing the voices of young people as well as those of their parents Sleight alerts us to the ways in which young people shaped the emergent metropolis by appropriating space and attempting to impress upon the city their own desires Here a dynamic youth culture flourished well before the discovery of the teenager in the mid twentieth century here young people and the city grew up together Expedition into Empire Martin Thomas, 2014-09-04 Expeditionary journeys have shaped our world but the expedition as a cultural form is rarely scrutinized This book is the first major investigation of the conventions and social practices embedded in team based exploration In probing the politics of expedition making this volume is itself a pioneering journey through the cultures of empire With contributions from established and emerging scholars Expedition into Empire plots the rise and transformation of expeditionary journeys from the eighteenth century until the present Conceived as a series of spotlights on imperial travel and colonial expansion it roves widely from the metropolitan centers to the ends of the earth This collection is both rigorous and accessible containing lively case studies from writers long immersed in exploration travel literature and the dynamics of cross cultural encounter APAIS 1999: Australian public affairs information service , Time, Tide and History ,2024-06-01 Time Tide and History Eleanor Dark s Fiction is the first book length edited collection of scholarly essays to treat the full span of Eleanor Dark s fiction advancing a recent revival of critical and scholarly interest in Dark s writing This volume not only establishes a new view of Dark s fiction as a whole but also reflects on the ways in which her fiction speaks to our present moment in the context of a globally fraught post pandemic Anthropocene era Above all the revisiting of Dark s fiction is mandated by a desire to recognise the ways in which it anticipates vital debates in Australian literary and national culture today about settler colonialism and its legacies and with regard to the histories condition and status of Australia s First Nations people This volume interweaves varied topical themes from formal debates about modernism historical realism and melodrama to questions about modernity s time and space about gender and cultural difference and about the specifics of built and natural environments Time Tide and History intentionally loosens the conventions of literary scholarship by including other kinds of work alongside critical and scholarly readings a written dialogue between two contemporary historians about Dark s legacy and a biographical piece on the life and role of Eleanor Dark s husband Eric Payten Dark Bringing together the interwar fiction s feminist and modernist dimensions with the historical turn of The Timeless Land trilogy the essays in Time Tide and History collectively pursue ethical and political questions while teasing out the distinctive thematic formal and aesthetic features of Dark s fiction
