Aboriginal Art, Identity and Appropriation Elizabeth Burns Coleman, 2017-05-15 The belief held by Aboriginal people that their art is ultimately related to their identity and to the continued existence of their culture has made the protection of indigenous peoples art a pressing matter in many postcolonial countries The issue has prompted calls for stronger copyright legislation to protect Aboriginal art Although this claim is not particular to Australian Aboriginal people the Australian experience clearly illustrates this debate In this work Elizabeth Burns Coleman analyses art from an Australian Aboriginal community to interpret Aboriginal claims about the relationship between their art identity and culture and how the art should be protected in law Through her study of Yolngu art Coleman finds Aboriginal claims to be substantially true This is an issue equally relevant to North American debates about the appropriation of indigenous art and the book additionally engages with this literature Aspects of Transnational and Indigenous Cultures Clara Shu-Chun Chang,Hsinya Huang,2015-01-12 Aspects of Transnational and Indigenous Cultures addresses the issues of place and mobility aesthetics and politics as well as identity and community which have emerged in the framework of Global Transnational American and Indigenous Studies With its ten chapters contributions from the U S Germany Australia Canada Japan Korea and Taiwan the volume conceptualizes a comparative trans national paradigm for crossing over national regional and international boundaries and in so doing to imagine a shared world of poetics and aesthetics in contemporary transnational scholarship North America before the European Invasions Alice Beck Kehoe,2016-12-01 North America Before the European Invasions tells the histories of North American peoples from first migrations in the Late Glacial Age sixteen thousand years ago or more to the European invasions following Columbus s arrival Contrary to invaders propaganda North America was no wilderness and its peoples had developed a variety of sophisticated resource uses including intensive agriculture and cities in Mexico and the Midwest Written in an easy flowing style the book is a true history although based primarily on archeological material It reflects current emphasis within archaeology on rejecting the notion of pre history instead combining archaeology with post Columbian ethnographies and histories to present the long histories of North America s native peoples most of them still here and still part of the continent s history Crafting Identity Sandra Alföldy,2005 By contrasting American experience with the Canadian context which includes a unique Quebec identity and a Native dimension Sandra Alföldy argues that the development of organizations advanced education for craftspeople and exhibition and promotional opportunities have contributed to the distinct evolution of professional craft in Canada over the past forty years Alföldy focuses on 1964 74 and the debates over distinctions between professional self taught and amateur craftspeople and between one of a kind and traditional craft objects She deals extensively with key people and events including American philanthropist Aileen Osborn Webb and Canadian philanthropist Joan Chalmers the foundation of the World Crafts Council 1964 and the Canadian Crafts Council 1974 the Canadian Fine Crafts exhibition at Expo 67 and the In Praise of Hands exhibition of 1974 Drawing upon a wealth of previously unexploited materials this richly documented survey includes descriptions and illustrations of significant works and identifies the challenges that lie ahead for professional crafts in Canada Pub desc Intersectional Feminist Readings of Comics Sandra Cox,2021-09-20 Intersectional Feminist Readings of Comics collects several theoretically informed close reading of comics and graphic literature that apply an intersectional feminist lens to the interpretation of several contemporary North American graphic narratives The essays examine use a range of interpretive lenses drawn from theoretical models used in contemporary aesthetics media studies and literary criticism to analyze mainstream figures like DC s Catwoman and Marvel s Miss America and Doctor Strange to contextualize historical and speculative comics by Indigenous American illustrators and to explicate autobiography by critically lauded Jewish queer and female cartoonists In the first half of the book the chapters examine ways in which superhero comics and the cinematic and televisual adaptations thereof reify revise and reject gender parity systemic misogyny and heteropatriarchy through visual and textual rhetorics of representation In the second part of the volume the chapters look at the ways that feminist interpretive practices illuminate the radical work undertaken by cartoonists from historically marginalized communities in the U S and Canada Across both halves readers will find applications of longstanding feminist critical traditions like ecofeminism as well as new intersectional extrapolations of narratology autobiographical studies and visual rhetoric which have been applied to the selected comics in insightful and innovative ways This is a lively and varied collection suitable for students and scholars in gender studies cultural studies media studies and literary studies
