New Perspective:

Jews, Gentiles and Ethnic Reconciliation Tet-Lim N. Yee, 2005-03-10 Much scholarship has focused on Paul's insistence on Gentile membership of the people of God equally with Jews. Dr. Yee's study of Ephesians 2 reveals how the distinctively Jewish world view of the author of Ephesians underlies this key text. He explores how the Ephesians author provides a resolution to one of the thorniest issues regarding two ethnic groups in the earliest period of Christianity: can Jew and Gentile, the two estranged human groups, be one people of God, and if so, how? Setting Ephesians 2 as fully as possible into its historical context, he describes some of the relevant Jewish features and demonstrates them revealing many explosive but hidden issues. This book provides an important contribution to the continuing reassessment of Christian and Jewish self-understanding in regard to each other during the critical period of the latter decades of the first century CE.

Memory and Understanding Renate Bartsch, 2005-01-01 This book treats memory and understanding on two levels: on the phenomenological level of experience on which a theory of dynamic conceptual semantics is built, and on the neuro-connectionist level which supports the capacities of concept formation, remembering, and understanding. A neuro-connectionist circuit architecture of a constructive memory is developed in which understanding and remembering are modelled in accordance with the constituent structures of a dynamic conceptual semantics. Consciousness emerges by circuit activation between conceptual indicators and episodic indices with the sensory, motor, emotional, and proprioceptual areas. This theory of concept formation, remembering, and understanding is applied to Proust's A la recherche du temps perdu with special attention to the author's excursions into philosophical and aesthetic issues. Under this perspective, Proust's work can be seen as an artistic exploration into our capacity of understanding whereby the unconscious memory is exteriorized in consciousness by presenting the experienced episodes in the conceptual order of similarity and contiguity through our capacity of concept formation.

The Gospels and Acts Margaret Aymer, Cynthia Briggs Kittredge, David A. Sanchez, 2016-10-10 This commentary on the Gospels and Acts excerpted from the Fortress Commentary on the Bible: The New Testament engages readers in the work of biblical interpretation. Contributors from a diversity of perspectives connect historical-critical analysis with sensitivity to current theological, cultural, and interpretive issues. Each chapter (Matthew through Acts) includes an introduction and commentary based on three lenses: ancient context, the interpretive tradition, and contemporary questions and challenges. The Gospels and Acts introduces fresh perspectives and draws students, preachers, and interested readers into the challenging work of interpretation.

EHealth Bernd Blobel, Peter Pharow, Michael Nerlich, 2008 Current demographic, economic, and social conditions which developed countries are faced with require a paradigm change for delivering high-quality and efficient health services. In that context, healthcare systems have to turn from organization-centered to process-oriented and finally towards individualized patient care, also called personal care based on ehealth platform services. Interoperability requirements for ubiquitous personalized health services reach beyond current concepts of health information integration among professional stakeholders and related Electronic Patient Records Future personal health platforms particularly have to maintain semantic interoperability among systems using different modalities and technologies different knowledge representation and domain experts languages as well as different coding schemes and terminologies to include home care as well as personal and mobile systems This development is not restricted to regions or countries but appears globally requiring a comprehensive international collaboration This publication within the series Studies in Health Technology and Informatics presents papers from leading international experts representing all domains involved in ehealth Paul Among the Gentiles: A "Radical" Reading of Romans Jacob P. B.

Mortensen,2018-08-13 This exciting new interpretation of Pauls Letter to the Romans approaches Pauls most famous letter from one of the newest scholarly positions within Pauline Studies The Radical New Perspective on Paul also known as Paul within Judaism As a point of departure the author takes Pauls self designation in 11 13 as apostle to the gentiles as so determining for Pauls mission that the audience of the letter is perceived to be exclusively gentile The study finds confirmation of this reading strategy in the letters construction of the interlocutor from chapter 2 onwards Even in 2 17 where Paul describes the interlocutor as someone who calls himself a Jew it requests to perceive this person as a gentile who presents himself as a Jew and not an ethnic Jew If the interlocutor is perceived in this way throughout the letter the dialogue between Paul and the interlocutor can be perceived as a continuous unified and developing dialogue In this way this interpretation of Romans sketches out a position against a more disparate and fragmentary interpretation of Romans

Connecting the Dots Joël Malm,2023-03-14 Everything that has happened to you has prepared you for your greatest days ahead When you understand the patterns of God s work in each season of your life you can see His faithfulness in making all things work together for the good of His children What if everything that has happened to you has prepared you for your greatest work What if those confusing uncomfortable seasons when you felt like you were walking in circles were actually the path God was leading you on to fulfill the destiny He has planned for you Connecting the Dots helps you make sense of your life seeing each day as part of an epic that God is writing Jol Malm shows you how to detect God s work in each season keeping your eyes lifted to Him who makes all things work together for the good of those who love him Paul, Philosophy, and the Theopolitical Vision Douglas Harink,2010-02-12 The apostle Paul was a man of many journeys We are usually familiar with the geographical ones he made in his own time This volume traces others Paul s journeys in our time as he is co opted or invited to travel sometimes as abused slave sometimes as trusted guide with modern and recent Continental philosophers and political theorists Kierkegaard Nietzsche Heidegger and Benjamin Taubes Badiou Zizek and Agamben Paul journeys here among the philosophers In these essays you are invited to travel with them into the regions of philosophy hermeneutics political theory and theology You will certainly hear the philosophers speak But Paul will not remain silent Above the sounds of the journey his voice comes through loud and clear Wrestling with Paul Sarah Emanuel,2025-11-04 In this book Sarah

Emanuel a Jewish scholar of the New Testament argues that Paul was not a universalist Instead Emanuel shows that stemming from his Hellenistic Jewish worldview Paul understood Jews as needing to maintain the law in Christ and gentiles as needing to abstain from the law in Christ Both groups in other words needed to maintain particular ethnic difference in their Christ following orientations lest they be left behind from Paul s imagined end of days Emanuel also argues that the way in which Paul understood these groups was through ethno nationalistic and hierarchical means By ethno nationalistic she means that Paul viewed the end of days as a new Israel centric nation requiring particular polyethnic cultural affiliation Jews for Christ and gentiles for Christ By hierarchical she means that Paul valued Jews for Christ over gentiles for Christ and also males over females and free persons over enslaved persons after all Paul s end of days was itself Israel centered i e Jewish centered with the God of Israel i e the Jewish God at the helm Finally none of these beliefs made Paul exceptional in his Judaism It made him average in his Judaism Wrestling with Paul shows that scholars in a post Holocaust world have often sanitized this ethnocentric exclusivism so as to make Paul ahistorically good for modern Jews and Judaism It also shows that readers of Paul have for millenia made sense of him in light of contemporaneous attitudes toward Jews

Accountability to God Andrew B. Torrance,2023 This book explores what it means to be accountable to God Engaging with major theologians alongside contemporary analytic philosophy systematic theology and psychology it proposes a positive constructive and theologically apt way to think about accountability that distinguishes it from the concept of responsibility

Reading Romans within Judaism Mark D. Nanos,2018-06-28 Over fifty years ago Vatican II s Nostra Aetate 4 drew from Romans 11 to challenge the way Paul s voice has been used to negatively discuss Jews and Judaism The church called for Catholics to conceptualize Jews as brothers in an everlasting covenant and many other Christian organizations have expressed similar sentiments in the years since Nevertheless the portrayal of Jews as branches broken off hardened without faith disobedient and enemies of God whom Christians have replaced as true Israel are among the many ways that readers encounter Paul s views of Jews and Judaism in today s translations and interpretations of this chapter and throughout the letter as well In the chapters in this volume Nanos shows why these translations and interpretive decisions among others do not likely represent what Paul wrote or meant Each essay offers challenges to the received view of Paul from the research hypothesis that Paul and the Christ followers to whom he wrote were still practicing Judaism a Jewish way of life within subgroups of the Jewish synagogue communities of Rome and that they understood Paul to observe Torah and promote Judaism for their communities

Tuning the Rig Fred Herron,2012-07-10 To tune the rig describes adjusting a ship s rigging the rig of a well tuned boat allows the sails to function well This task must be performed to ensure the best performance by the ship Tuning the Rig takes that metaphor as a guide for Catholic educators and administrators as well as for the larger church It argues from a variety of perspectives rooted in the Catholic imagination that the rig constantly needs to be re tuned to balance between visions of the church as teacher and learner Why should this matter to Catholic educators To Herron our understanding of the church as learner is at the heart of our understanding of ourselves as disciples One of the logical consequences of this era of baptismal consciousness is a rising awareness on the part of the laity that their task is not simply to pay pray and obey but to grow and journey in faith Herron s focus ranges from issues closely pertaining to Catholic schools to the larger questions of the Catholic imagination The underlying thread however is the challenge of maintaining the richness of the Catholic imagination of tuning the rig in changing times and the ordinary life of the church

Jews and Christians - Parting Ways in the First Two Centuries CE? Jens Schröter,Benjamin A. Edsall,Joseph Verheyden,2021-08-23 The present volume is based on a conference held in October 2019 at the Faculty of Theology of Humboldt University Berlin as part of a common project of the Australian Catholic University the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven and the Humboldt University Berlin The aim is to discuss the relationships of Jews and Christians in the first two centuries CE against the background of recent debates which have called into question the image of parting ways for a description of the relationships of Judaism and Christianity in antiquity One objection raised against this metaphor is that it accentuates differences at the expense of commonalities Another critique is that this image looks from a later perspective at historical developments which can hardly be grasped with such a metaphor It is more likely that distinctions between Jews Christians Jewish Christians Christian Jews etc are more blurred than the image of parting ways allows In light of these considerations the contributions in this volume discuss the cogency of the parting of the ways model with a look at prominent early Christian writers and places and suggest more appropriate metaphors to describe the relationships of Jews and Christians in the early period

Moral Transformation Andrew J. Wallace, R. D. Rusk, 2011 Recent scholarship has challenged post Reformation ideas about the early Christian doctrines of salvation This ground breaking book draws together the conclusions of recent scholarship into a compelling and clear view of the early Christian paradigm of salvation It presents the case that the early Christians focussed not on Christ's death on the cross or saving faith but on moral transformation They saw Jesus as God's appointed teacher prophet and leader who died as a martyr in order to teach them a new way of life Their paradigm of salvation centred upon this way of life taught by Jesus and on following faithfully his example and teachings

Part 1 How the Gospels present Jesus explores the way in which the early Christians understood the teaching of Jesus It highlights five themes of Jesus message economics and wealth moral purity social equality the temple system and physical and spiritual affliction It shows why people viewed Jesus as a divinely appointed teacher prophet and leader and saw his death as a martyrdom for his cause and movement

Part 2 Doctrines of the early Christians presents the key early Christian doctrines of salvation and shows why several post Reformation doctrines conflict with their views It shows that the early Christians believed God's final judgment is made on the basis of character and conduct They believed that by following Jesus and transforming their lives morally they would obtain positive judgment and resurrection This part shows how the early Christians ideas of faith justification forgiveness and grace all fit into this paradigm

Part 3 The importance of Jesus looks at why the early Christians considered Jesus so significant they focussed on the moral transformation he brought to their lives This part highlights what they believed Jesus achieved for them and how they used sacrificial language to explain these beliefs It explores the evidence for viewing Jesus death as a martyrdom and for seeing his resurrection as equally important Part 4 Ideas throughout history shows that Christians held this paradigm of salvation for several centuries It outlines the key changes that occurred from the 4th century through to the Reformation which moved tradition away from the early Christian ideas Finally it offers a critique of modern post Reformation doctrines of salvation
