Learning to Love moves beyond the media and policy stereotypes that conflate arranged marriages with forced marriages Using in depth interviews and participant observations this book assembles a rich and diverse array of everyday marriage narratives and trajectories and highlights how considerations of romantic love are woven into traditional arranged marriage practices It shows that far from being a homogeneous tradition arranged marriages involve a variety of different matchmaking practices where each family tailors its own cut and paste version of British Indian arranged marriages to suit modern identities and ambitions Pande argues that instead of being wedded to traditions people in the British Indian diaspora have skillfully adapted and negotiated arranged marriage cultural norms to carve out an identity narrative that portrays them as modern and progressive migrants ones who are changing with the times and cultivating transnational forms of belonging

Learn Happiness and Love Tiffany Schneider MA; MACP; C.Ht.,2015-03-25 Learn Happiness and Love is a self help book to guide readers on how to have better relationships and be happier in general Author Tiffany Schneider was suffering in her own personal relationship and was very unhappy She was working as a counselor after having received a master s in counseling psychology She worked with individual adults couples and teens teaching them how to be happier and have more effective relationships So then she decided to start writing lessons to herself about what she had learned in the years studying psychology and spirituality and to do research on her questions She also wanted to include what she had learned working in clinical practice with people and within her own life She decided to share her observations and learnings with others as she realized that everyone can use more help and learning on how to do relationships effectively and what being happy really takes and means During that time Tiffany also realized that traditional counseling is not appealing or available to many people for reasons of privacy or accessibility She wanted to give people tools they could learn on their own without having to expose their problems or pay a lot of money to receive Because she studied transpersonal psychology and is a certified hypnotherapist and a process therapist she wanted to blend techniques from spirituality cultural understandings alternative healing therapies and more mindfulness oriented perceptions of what makes for good relationships and a happy individual and not just a psychodynamic or traditional psychology approach or tools Finally she included a practical component to each lesson to help readers experience and practice the theories they learn in each lesson Each lesson is short and to the point so that readers can get information quickly and incorporate the theories automatically into their lives
