Other Peoples Lives Paperback By Parke Catherine N:

The Spectator ,1862 Books in Print ,1991 The Protohistoric Pueblo World, A.D. 1275-1600 E. Charles Adams,Andrew Ian Duff,2004-07 In the centuries before the arrival of Europeans the Pueblo world underwent nearly continuous reorganization Populations moved from Chaco Canyon and the great centers of the Mesa Verde region to areas along the Rio Grande the Little Colorado River and the Mogollon Rim where they began constructing larger and differently organized villages many with more than 500 rooms Villages also tended to occur in clusters that have been interpreted in a number of different ways This book describes and interprets this period of southwestern history immediately before and after initial European contact A D 1275 1600 a span of time during which Pueblo peoples and culture were dramatically transformed It summarizes one hundred years of research and archaeological data for the Pueblo IV period as it explores the nature of the organization of village clusters and what they meant in behavioral and political terms Twelve of the chapters individually examine the northern and eastern portions of the Southwest and the groups who settled there during the protohistoric period The authors develop histories for settlement clusters that offer insights into their unique development and the variety of ways that villages formed these clusters These analyses show the extent to which spatial clusters of large settlements may have formed regionally organized alliances and in some cases they reveal a connection between protohistoric villages and indigenous or migratory groups from the preceding period This volume is distinct from other recent syntheses of Pueblo IV research in that it treats the settlement cluster as the analytic unit By analyzing how members of clusters of villages interacted with one another it offers a clearer understanding of the value of this level of analysis and suggests possibilities for future research In addition to offering new insights on the Pueblo IV world the volume serves as a compendium of information on more than 400 known villages larger than 50 rooms It will be of lasting interest not only to archaeologists but also to geographers land managers and general readers interested in Pueblo culture British Books ,1907 The World Almanac and Book of Facts ,1912 Lists news events population figures and miscellaneous data of an historic economic scientific and social nature The Athenaeum ,1898 Corbett Mack Michael Hittman,1996-01-01 This is the compelling yet disturbing story of Corbett Mack 1892 1974 an opiate addict who was a member of the Nuumuu Numa or Northern Paiute The Northern Paiute are best known as the people who produced Wovoka the Ghost Dance prophet whose revitalistic teachings swept the Indian world in the 1890s Mack is from the generation following the collapse of the Ghost Dance religion a generation of Nomogweta or half breeds also called stolen children Paiute of mixed ancestry who were raised in an increasingly bicultural world and who fell into virtual peonage to white often Italian potato farmers Around the turn of the century the use of opium became widespread among the Paiute adopted from equally victimized Chinese laborers with whom they worked closely in the fields The story of Corbett Mack is an uncompromising account of a harsh and sometimes traumatic life that was typical of an entire generation of Paiute It was a life born out of the turmoil and humiliation of an Indian boarding school troubled by opiate addiction bound to constant labor in the fields yet nonetheless made meaningful through the perseverance of Paiute cultural traditions Michael Hittman is chairman of the Anthropology and Sociology Department and a professor at Long Island University Brooklyn He is the author of Wovoka and the Ghost Dance A Sourcebook and A Numa History The Yerington Paiute Tribe The Literary World ,1891 Saturday Review of Literature ,1926 The Publishers Weekly ,1891 CMJ New Music Report ,2000-05-29 CMJ New Music Report is the primary source for exclusive charts of non commercial and college radio airplay and independent and trend forward retail sales CMJ s trade publication compiles playlists for college and non commercial stations often a prelude to larger success
