Outline Of Islamic Economics:

Outline of Islamic Economics Muhammad A. Saud, 1988-05-01      The Foundations of Islamic Economics and Banking Abdulrahman Haitham Shoukat Kabbara, 2014-05-23 The first part of this book is designed to display the sources and principles of economics and trade transactions in the Islamic community It analyzes the judicial injunctions against riba and proves that riba including interest is prohibited Basing the argument on theoretical Quran and Sunna as well as the customary practice during the life of the messenger of God in Mekka and Al Madina Notably the Islamic teachings covers both the worldly and religious affairs This is a very revealing indication that Islam does not only regulate the relations of the human beings with God but also extends to regulating i the relationship of the ruler with the ruled through al shura and ii economic and financial transactions in the market Notable among these transactions a the abolition of riba and instigating interest free economy b providing the basic needs of society c achieving social justice by applying zakat levy and other ordinances and last but not least inheritance law and redistribution of State land for public benefits The second and third part of the book explains and proves that prohibition of riba does not circumvent trade or paralyze the economy On the contrary by eliminating injustice inherent in riba the banking system will be liberated from discrepancies and the economy will perform more efficiently by mitigating the evils of riba      Contemporary Islamic Economic Thought Mohamed Aslam Haneef, 1995      Islam, Economics, and Society (RLE Politics of Islam) Syed Nawab Haider Naqvi, 2013-07-24 The Islamic perception of the socio economic process is dynamic and its insistence on social justice is uncompromising To produce the best social structure according to this view man s economic endeavours should be motivated by a meaningful moral philosophy In the face of the challenges presented by the modern world the practice of Islamic economics raises many complex and profound issues These are addressed in this highly important work which must be considered essential reading for all those who live in the vision of the right First published in 1994      Economics of an Islamic Economy Rauf A. Azhar, 2010 This book challenges the interventionist stance of Islamic economics as well as its presumption that riba equals interest An Islamic economy it argues is essentially a market economy but it differs from capitalist economies because both its institutions and the structure of for example property rights are specifically Islamic deriving from Qur n and other sources of Islamic law The book also focuses on the similarities and differences between riba and interest establishes the often neglected connection between the two and explores the ramifications of this connection for Islamic financial systems

The Making of Islamic Economic Thought Sami Al-Daghistani, 2022-01-06 Interrogating the development and conceptual framework of economic thought in the Islamic tradition pertaining to ethical philosophical and theological ideas this book provides a critique of modern Islamic economics as a hybrid economic system From the outset Sami Al Daghistani is concerned with the polyvalent methodology of studying the phenomenon of Islamic economic thought as a human science in that it nurtures a complex plentitude of meanings and interpretations associated with the moral self By studying legal scholars theologians and Sufis in the classical period Al Daghistani looks at economic thought in the context of Shar a s moral law Alongside critiquing modern developments of Islamic economics he puts forward an idea for a plural epistemology of Islam s moral economy which advocates for a multifaceted hermeneutical reading of the subject in light of a moral law embedded in a particular cosmology of human relationality metaphysical intelligibility and economic subjectivity

Ideal

Islamic Economy Abbas Mirakhor, Hossein Askari, 2017-08-11 This book provides an introduction to the vision of an economic system based completely on the Holy Qur'an and a system defined as a collection of institutions representing rules of behavior prescribed by Allah for humans and the traditions of the Messenger. The authors argue that the main reason for the economic underperformance of Muslim countries and their economies has been non-compliance with the prescribed rules of behavior. Rule non-compliance has been chiefly due to the failure of Muslims to comprehend the Metaframework of the Qur'an and the Archetype Model of the Prophet Mohammad and interpret them in ways compatible with their own generation and time. Askari and Mirakhor believe these rules/institutions properly adapted to prevailing conditions present what they consider as an ideal economic system.

An Introduction to Islamic Finance Zamir Iqbal, Abbas Mirakhor, 2011-08-24 The first book to offer comprehensive coverage of Islamic finance and banking and its applications to the rest of the world, now fully revised and updated. The ongoing international financial crisis has reignited debate over the development of a risk-sharing financial system such as that required in Shariah Law. An Introduction to Islamic Finance Theory and Practice, Second Edition, highlights the core principles of risk sharing in Islam, arguing that a risk-sharing financial system is exactly what we need to promote greater financial stability. Providing comprehensive coverage of the fundamental theory behind Islamic finance and banking according to the core concepts of Shariah law, authors Zamir Iqbal and Abbas Mirakhor clearly explain the distinct features of an Islamic financial system and how it compares with traditional financial models. Addressing the myriad important developments that have taken place in recent years, this second edition looks to the future, addressing emerging issues sure to influence future developments in Islamic finance. Explores the unique features of an Islamic financial system, how they compare to more traditional financial systems, and how they could improve them. Discusses all the most recent developments and emerging issues in Islamic finance. Updated with the latest developments, trends, innovations, and statistics, this new edition features additional chapters on the financial crisis, globalization, non-bank financial institutions, and recent developments in Takaful (Islamic insurance). The first edition of An Introduction to Islamic Finance established the book as the market leader, and this newly revised and updated second edition incorporates the most recent developments in this booming financial sector, including financial stability, globalization, and non-banking financial institutions.

The Routledge Handbook of Islamic Economics and Finance Hussain Mohi-ud-Din Qadri, M. Ishaq Bhatti, Mohd Azmi Omar, 2025-08-06 Islamic finance is one of the fastest growing sectors of the finance industry due to a number of factors, including the technology boom, fintech, blockchain, and higher oil and commodity prices, but also in particular its demand by 1.5 billion Muslims around the globe. It enjoys sustainably higher positive returns compared to its conventional finance counterparts, specifically during financial crises. Moreover, it plays a major role in implementing the UN's Sustainable Development Goals due to its non-traditional source of long-term fund financing that advances social, environmental, and economic goals. The Routledge Handbook of Islamic Economics and Finance offers a detailed introduction to the current scholarship in this ever-expanding and emerging field The book is divided into three parts covering Islamic business Islamic economics and Islamic finance respectively Each chapter provides a balanced overview of current knowledge identifying issues and discussing the relevant debates The book seeks to explore the current developments and trends in Islamic economics Islamic banking and Islamic capital markets It also covers the areas of Islamic social finance impact investment and Islamic microfinance SMEs poverty alleviation and financial inclusion Additionally it launches the debate on the emergence progress challenges and future potential of Islamic fintech and the Islamic digital economy Furthermore it sheds light on subjects such as the marketing of Islamic financial services and products the circular economy and the blue economy from an Islamic financial perspective As well as surveying the current state of the art the authors also reflect on where the research agenda is likely to advance in the future making this the definitive resource for scholars and researchers in this area
