Parent Teacher Conferencing

Alice L. Hamachek, Louis G. Romano

Parent Teacher Conferencing:

Parent-teacher Conferencing Joseph C. Rotter, Edward H. Robinson, 1982 Effective parent teacher conferences have the potential to be the single most educationally valuable event for the student during the school year With increased parental involvement in the day to day operation of the schools and greater parental awareness of the educational process it becomes apparent that educators need to be prepared to respond to renewed parental interest in the education of their children From both an ethical and a legal perspective communication between parents and teachers is imperative However inappropriate procedures and inadequate skills and knowledge can create greater problems than may have existed before the meeting This publication is intended to help teachers to improve their parent teacher conferencing skills First it examines the historical background and research relating to parent teacher conferences Then it suggests effective ways for teachers to improve their communication skills with parents and to involve parents in the educational personal and social development of their children The core elements of effective conferencing listening perceiving attending responding and initiating are identified and discussed A list of 78 references is appended JD Parent-Teacher Conferencing Gerda Lawrence, Madeline Hunter, 1978 Although teachers hold many conferences with parents most receive very little training in crucial communication theory and conferencing skills This guide identifies the purposes of parent conferences and demonstrates skills including how to hold an effective conference how to deliver an unwelcome message and how to handle an uncommunicative parent Parent-teacher Conferencing in Early Childhood Education S. Dianne Lawler, 1991 This book discusses several types of parent teacher conferences and issues relevant to parent teacher conferences in 10 chapters Chapter 1 outlines a working model for successful parent teacher conferences Research on parent attitudes and relationships with teachers is summarized in chapter 2 Chapter 3 discusses communication topics including listening skills ways to respond to parents ways to clarify messages and body language Chapter 4 examines the changing structure of the family Chapters 5 through 7 describe characteristics of conferences that relate to academic performance referrals for handicapped children and discipline problems Conflicts between parents and teachers are examined in chapter 8 Chapter 9 considers unsuccessful conferences and conferences without planned agendas The final chapter promotes the development of partnerships between parents and teachers Many of the issues raised in the 10 chapters are illustrated with vignettes Appendixes include a conference evaluation checklist a vignette of a conference dealing with a discipline problem a set of role playing activities and a list of suggestions for facilitating conflict resolution A 68 item bibliography and a 31 item resource list are provided BC Parent-teacher Conferencing Caven S.
