Companion to Proust Richard Bales, 2001-06-14 This Companion first published in 2001 aims to provide a broad account of the major features of Proust's work Marching to the Canon Scott Messing, 2014 Marching to the Canon examines the history of Schubert's Marche militaire no 1 from its beginnings through its many arrangements to its impact on dance literature film and music Marche militaire is Franz Schubert's most recognizable and beloved instrumental work Originally published for piano four hands in 1826 this tuneless march Schubert's first of three military marches was arranged adapted and incorporated into new incarnations over the next two centuries Its success was due to its chameleonlike ability to cross the still porous borders between canonic and popular repertoires creating a performance life that made deep inroads into dance literature and film and inspired quotations or allusions in other music Marching to the Canon examines the history of Schubert's storied Marche militaire from its modest beginnings as a duet published for domestic consumption to its now ubiquitous presence After detailing the composition publication and reception of the original march the book analyzes the impact of transcriptions and arrangements for solo piano orchestra band and other settings In addition it considers the ways the march was used symbolically even manipulated during the Franco-Prussian War and the two world wars as well as the diverse creative uses of the piece by significant figures as varied as Willa Cather Isadora Duncan Walt Disney and Igor

Stravinsky This study of the reception and impact of the Marche militaire offers a unique narrative illuminating the world that enshrined this remarkable score as one of the most memorable musical works of the nineteenth century Scott Messing is the Charles A Dana Professor of Music at Alma College and the author of two works available from the University of Rochester Press Neoclassicism in Music and the two volume Schubert in the European Imagination The Oxford History of the Ancient Near East Karen Radner, Nadine Moeller, Daniel T. Potts, 2023 The fifth volume of the Oxford History of the Ancient Near East covers the period from the second half of the 7th century BC until the campaigns of Alexander III of Macedon 336 323 BC brought an end to the Achaemenid Dynasty and the Persian Empire Tying together periods and political history covered by previous volumes in the series this title focuses on the Persian Empire's immediate predecessor states Saite Egypt the Neo Babylonian Empire and the kingdom of Lydia among other kingdoms and tribal alliances

Colourworks Susan Harrow, 2020-12-10 How do modern writers write colour How do today's readers respond to the invitation to think colour as they read poetry and art writing and explore paintings To what extent can critical thought on colour in visual media illuminate the textual life of colour These are some of the lines of enquiry pursued in this bold new study of modern poetry and art writing in French where colour Susan Harrow argues is integral to the exploration of ekphrasis objects bodies landscape and interiority The question of colour in a variety of disciplines and media has provoked debate from Aristotle to Goethe and from Baudelaire to Derek Jarman If the past twenty years have witnessed a colour turn in contemporary cultural studies and screen research colour values in literary and textual media are often elided or simply overlooked Colourworks tackles this lacuna in the study of modern poetry and art writing in French revealing the integral role of colour in the work of three iconic French writers in the modern tradition Stéphane Mallarmé Paul Valéry and Yves Bonnefoy This book spans the broad modern period from the 1860s to the early twenty first century in taking an exploratory approach to the visuality of the verbal medium through an adventurous reading of text and image Harrow uncovers how colour moves and morphs in texts as it challenges the traditionalist containments of chromatic symbolism Beyond its primary area of investigation in modern poetry and art writing in French this richly colour illustrated study has significant interdisciplinary implications conceptual methodological and practical for the study of visuality in humanities research from literature studies to material and visual culture studies

Proust, a Jewish Way Antoine Compagnon, 2024-11-12 Marcel Proust once wrote There is no longer anybody not even myself since I cannot leave my bed who will go along the Rue du Repos to visit the little Jewish cemetery where my grandfather following a custom that he never understood went for so many years to lay a stone on his parents' grave Investigating the origin and significance of this statement Antoine Compagnon offers new insight into the great author's underappreciated Jewish side Compagnon traces Proust's ties to the French Jewish community examining his relations with his mother's successful and assimilated family the Weils He explores how French Jews read and responded to Proust's masterpiece In Search of Lost Time in the 1920s and 1930s Challenging contemporary critics who perceive self hatred or even antisemitism in Proust's work Compagnon shows that many Jewish intellectuals and young Zionists admired and vigorously debated the novel some seeing it as a source for pride in their Jewish identity He also considers Proust's portrayal of homosexuality and how it relates to notions of Jewishness A work of remarkable erudition and deep research Proust a Jewish Way brings to light the vanished world of Proust's first Jewish readers and shows how it can illuminate our reading of the great novelist today

The Politics and Poetics of Everyday Life Kristin Ross, 2023-05-02

Using the concept of the everyday as a lever for social transformation The texts in this volume represent Kristin Ross's attempt to think the question of the everyday across a range of discourses practices and knowledges from philosophy to history from the visual arts to popular fiction all the way to the forms taken by collective political action in the territorial struggles of today If everyday life is as many have come to believe the ideal vantage point for an analysis of the social it is also the crucial first step in its transformation The volume opens with a return to Henri Lefebvre's powerful attempt to use the everyday as both residue and resource as the site of profound alienation and by the same token the site where all emancipatory initiatives and desires begin The second section focuses on our attempts to represent our lived reality to ourselves in cultural forms from painting and literature and film to an analysis of the contemporary transformations of the sub genre most embedded in the deep superficiality of everyday life detective fiction The final section turns to present day ecological occupations in the wake of the zad at Notre Dame des Landes and locates the everyday as a site for rich oppositional resources and immanent social creativity

From a Nation Torn Hannah Feldman, 2014-02-03

From a Nation Torn provides a powerful critique of art history's understanding of French modernism and the historical circumstances that shaped its production and reception Within art history the aesthetic practices and theories that emerged in France from the late 1940s into the 1960s are demarcated as postwar Yet it was during these very decades that France fought a protracted series of wars to maintain its far flung colonial empire Given that French modernism was created during rather than after war Hannah Feldman argues that its interpretation must incorporate the tumultuous decades of decolonization and their profound influence on visual and public culture Focusing on the Algerian War of Independence 1954-1962 and the historical continuities it presented with the experience of the Second World War Feldman highlights decolonization's formative effects on art and related theories of representation both political and aesthetic Ultimately From a Nation Torn constitutes a profound exploration of how certain populations and events are rendered invisible and their omission naturalized within histories of modernity
