Nein, Nein, Nein! Jerry Stahl, 2025-07-01 Now in paperback and featuring an interview with Ben Stiller a guided group tour to concentration camps allows Stahl to confront personal and historical demons with both deep despair and savage humor IN SEPTEMBER 2016 JERRY STAHL was feeling nervous on the eve of a two week trip across Poland and Germany But it was not just the stops at Auschwitz Buchenwald and Dachau that gave him anxiety It was the fact that he would be traveling with two dozen strangers by bus In a tour group And he was not a tour group kind of guy The decision to visit Holocaust world did not come easy Stahl s lifelong depression at an all time high his career and personal life at an all time low he had the idea to go on a trip where the despair he was feeling out of control sadness regret and fear not just for himself but for the entire United States would be appropriate And where was despair more appropriate than the land of the Six Million Seamlessly weaving global and personal history through the lens of Stahl s own bent perspective Nein Nein Nein stands out as a triumph of strange o reporting a tale that takes us from gang polkas to tourrash to the truly disturbing snack bar at Auschwitz Strap in for a raw surreal and redemptively hilarious trip Get on the bus

Words without Walls Sheryl St. Germain, Sarah Shotland, 2015-03-10 Writing programs in prisons and rehabilitation centers have proven time and again to be transformative and empowering for people in need Halfway houses hospitals and shelters are all fertile ground for healing through the imagination and can often mean the difference for inmates and patients between just simply surviving and truly thriving It is in these settings that teachers and their students need reading that nourishes the soul and challenges the spirit Words without Walls is a collection of more than seventy five poems essays stories and scripts by contemporary writers that provide models for successful writing offering voices and styles that will inspire students in alternative spaces on their own creative exploration Created by the founders of the award winning program of the same name based at Chatham University the anthology strives to challenge readers to reach beyond their own circumstances and begin to write from the heart Each selection expresses immediacy writing that captures the imagination and conveys intimacy on the page revealing the power of words to cut to the quick and unfold the truth Many of the pieces are brief allowing for reading and discussion in the classroom and provide a wide range of content and genre touching on themes common to communities in need addiction and alcoholism family love and sex pain and hope prison recovery and violence Included is work by writers dealing with shared issues such as Dorothy Alison and Jesmyn Ward who write about families for whom struggle is a way of life or Natalie Kenvin and Toi Derricotte whose pieces reveal violence against women Also included are writings by those who have spent time in prison themselves such as Jimmy Santiago Baca Dwayne Betts Ken Lamberton and Etheridge Knight Eric Boyd ennobles the day he was released from jail Stephon Hayes reflects on what he sees from his prison window Terra Lynn evokes the experience of being put in solitary confinement Because in 2011 almost half of all prisoners in federal facilities were in for drug related offenses there are pieces by James Brown Nick Flynn and Ann Marlowe who explore their own addiction and alcoholism and by Natalie Diaz Scott Russell Sanders and Christine Stroud who write of crippling drug abuse by family and friends These powerful excerpts act as models for beginning writers and offer a vehicle to examine their own painful experiences Words without Walls demonstrates the power of language to connect people to reflect on the past and reimagine the future to confront complicated truths and to gain solace from pain and regret For students in alternative spaces these writings together with their own expressions reveal the same intense desire to write and share one's writing found in the Russian poet Irina Ratushinskaya who scratched her poems on bars of soap in a Gulag shower or the Turkish poet Nazim Hikmet who smuggled bits of poetry out of jail in the clothing of visiting friends Wole Soyinka in solitary confinement forty years ago wrote that creation is admission of great loneliness In these communal spaces our loneliness is lessened our vulnerability exposed and our honesty tested and through these revelatory writings students receive the necessary encouragement to share the whispering corners of their minds

The Routledge Handbook of Qualitative Criminology Heith Copes, J. Miller, 2015-03-02 Despite illustrious origins dating to the 1920s qualitative crime research has long been overshadowed by quantitative inquiry After decades of limited use there has been a notable resurgence in crime ethnography naturalistic inquiry and related forms of fieldwork addressing crime and related social control efforts The Routledge Handbook of Qualitative Criminology signals this momentum as the first major reference work dedicated to crime ethnography and related fieldwork orientations Synthesizing the foremost topics and issues in qualitative criminology into a single definitive work the Handbook provides a first look reference source for scholars and students alike The collection features twenty original chapters on leading qualitative crime research strategies the complexities of collecting and analyzing qualitative data and the ethical propriety of researching active criminals and incarcerated offenders Contributions from both established luminaries and talented emerging scholars highlight the traditions and emerging trends in qualitative criminology through authoritative overviews and lived experience examples Comprehensive and current The Routledge Handbook of Qualitative Criminology promises to be a sound reference source for academics students and practitioners as ethnography and fieldwork realize continued growth throughout the 21st Century

Dark Paradise David T. COURTWRIGHT, 2009-06-30 In a newly enlarged edition of this eye opening book David T Courtwright offers an original interpretation of a puzzling chapter in American social and medical history the dramatic change in the pattern of opiate addiction from respectable upper class matrons to lower class urban males often with a criminal record Challenging the prevailing view that the shift resulted from harsh new laws Courtwright shows that the crucial role was played by the medical rather than the legal profession Dark Paradise tells the story not only from the standpoint of legal and medical sources but also from the perspective of addicts themselves With the addition of a new introduction and two new chapters on heroin addiction and treatment since 1940 Courtwright has updated this compelling work of social history for the present crisis of the Drug War

Twin Peaks FAQ David Bushman, 2016-05-01 Twin Peaks the infamously strange seductive and confounding murder mystery that made network television safe for surrealism is returning to the small screen after 25 years Created by David Lynch and Mark Frost the series enjoys a hallowed standing in popular culture and remains a touchstone in the evolution of TV as an artistic medium For its many intensely devoted fans Twin Peaks continues to beguile and disturb and delight it's a bottomless well of allusions symbols conundrums to ponder and images to unpack an endlessly engrossing puzzle box an obsessive's dream Twin Peaks FAQ will guide longtime fans and the newly initiated through the origins of the series take them behind the scenes during its production and transport readers deep into the rich mythology that made Twin
