Petre Tutea Between Sacrifice And Suicide:

Petre Tutea Alexandru Popescu, 2018-01-16 Petre Tutea 1902-91 was one of the outstanding Christian dissident intellectuals of the Communist era in Eastern Europe. Revered as a saint by some, he spent thirteen years as a prisoner of conscience and twenty-eight years under house arrest at the hands of the Securitate. This book explores his unique response to the horrors of torture and re-education and reveals the experience of a whole generation detained in the political prisons. Tutea's understanding of human needs and how they can be fulfilled even amidst extreme adversity not only reflects huge learning and great brilliance of mind but also offers a spiritual vision grounded in personal experience of the Romanian Gulag. Following the fall of Ceausescu, he has begun to emerge as a significant contributor to ecumenical Christian discourse and to understanding of wider issues of truth and reconciliation in the contemporary world. As Tutea's pupil and scribe for twelve years as a psychiatrist and as a theologian, Alexandru Popescu is uniquely placed to present the work of this twentieth-century Confessor of the faith. Drawing on bibliographical sources which include unpublished or censored manuscripts and personal conversations with Tutea and with other prisoners of conscience in Romania, Popescu presents extensive translations of Tutea which make his thought accessible to the English-speaking reader for the first time. Through his stature as a human being and his authority as a thinker, Petre Tutea challenges us to question many of our assumptions. The choice he presents between sacrifice and moral suicide focuses us on the very essence of religion and human personhood. Resisting any ultimate separation of theology and spirituality, his work affirms hope and love as the sole ground upon which truth can be based. At the same time, hope and love are not mere ideal emotions but are known and lived in engagement with the real world in politics, economics, science, ecology.

Theology of Participation Daniel G. Oprean, 2019-05-31 Baptists in Romania have developed a practice of suspicion when it comes to religious dialogue, especially with the Romanian Orthodox tradition, due to a history that is characterized by oppression. In this detailed study, Dr Daniel Oprean paves the way for positive dialogue between the two traditions, highlighting that much can be gained and learned by acknowledging similarities and differences in key aspects of theology. Dr Oprean explores how existing theological resources can be used to enhance theological discourse between Baptist and Orthodox traditions in Romania through in-depth analysis of the thought of British Baptist theologian Professor Paul Fiddes and Romanian Orthodox theologian Father Dumitru St. Ilie. Oprean, in particular, looks at their understanding of trinitarian and human participation through perichoresis, the Eucharist, Christian spirituality, and baptism and chrismation. Presented as a conversation between the two traditions, this study is a model for how theological and religious dialogue can facilitate reconciliation not just in the church but also in wider society.

The Dawkins Delusion? Alister McGrath, Joanna Collicutt McGrath, 2011-05-18 Alister McGrath and Joanna Collicutt McGrath present a reliable assessment of The God Delusion by Richard Dawkins, famed atheist and scientist, and the many questions this book raises, including above all the relevance of faith and the quest for meaning.

Church and State Cristian Romocea, 2011-04-21

Twenty years have passed since the fall of the Iron Curtain yet emerging democracies continue to struggle with a secular state which does not give preference to churches as major political players This book explores the nationalist inclinations of an Eastern Orthodox Church as it interacts with a politically immature yet decisively democratic Eastern European state Discussing the birth pangs of extreme nationalist movements of the twentieth century it offers a creative retelling of the ideological idiosyncrasies which have characterized Marxist Communism and Nazism Cristian Romocea provides a constant juxtaposition of the ideological movements as they interacted and affected organized religion at times seeking to remove it assimilate it or even imitate it Of interest to historians theologians and politicians this book introduces the reader through a case study of Romania to relevant and contemporary challenges churches worldwide are facing in a context characterized by increased secularization of the state and radicalization of religion E. M. Cioran and the Human Condition Karl

White,2025-06-12 This masterful account situates E M Cioran in his rightful place as one of the key figures in French post war thought Acknowledged for decades as a pillar of European culture the Romanian migr to Paris has been overlooked by Anglophone scholarship but by placing him in conversation with acclaimed mainstream thinkers like Martha Nussbaum Hannah Arendt and Samuel Beckett this book finally redresses that balance Cioran is a thinker determined to peel back the layers of polite philosophy to explore the anxious and difficult experience of being human E M Cioran and the Human Condition focuses in on the iconoclastic force of his work and in particular his preoccupation with birth which he conceives of as the source of life s dilemmas Framing its discussions with enduring theological themes like guilt original sin salvation and apocalypse this book brings the true value of Cioran s work for Western thought to the fore These ideas often go unnoticed in the work of more conventional thinkers making Cioran an essential figure in confronting the apocalyptic nature of our own age The unique combination of pessimism dark humour and morbid wit in Cioran s writing pushes us to explore what if any future there is for humanity in a world becoming ever more inhuman This is a lively and thought provoking introduction to an unjustly marginalized thinker who has much to teach us about the human condition after the crises of the twentieth century

Romania, 1916-1941 Dennis Deletant,2022-08-19 This study challenges the rose tinted view of the interwar period in Romanian history which is often judged against the darkness of almost five decades of Communist rule Romania like several of the states of Eastern Europe emerged from the First World War as it had entered it as a predominantly agricultural country and one of its major problems was the condition of the peasantry This volume s focus is the drive to improve that condition on the collapse of democracy and the search by Romania s leaders for strategies to secure the state to assert the country s independence and to maintain its territorial integrity in the face of the threat to the European order posed by two totalitarian systems represented by Nazi Germany and the Soviet Union By examining recent scholarship this volume provides the most up to date account of Romania s predicament in the interwar years Romania 1916 1941 is a useful resource for upper level undergraduates postgraduates and scholars interested in foreign policy politics society internationalization and late development in interwar Central and Eastern Europe The Passionate Intellect Alister McGrath, 2014-04-07 2011 Christianity Today Book Award winner Alister McGrath one of the most prominent theologians and public intellectuals of our day explains how Christian thinking can and must have a positive role in shaping nourishing and safeguarding the Christian vision of reality With this in our grasp we have the capacity for robust intellectual and cultural engagement confidently entering the public sphere of ideas where atheism postmodernism and science come into play This book explores how the great tradition of Christian theological reflection enriches faith It deepens our appreciation of the gospel's ability to engage with the complexities of the natural world on the one hand and human experience on the other

Theological Interpretation of Culture in Post-Communist Context Ivana Noble, 2016-12-05 Twenty years after the fall of Communism in Central and East Europe is an occasion to reevaluate the cultural and theological contribution from that region to the secularization post secularization debate Czech theologian Ivana Noble develops a Trinitarian theology through a close dialogue with literature music and film which formed not only alternatives to totalitarian ideologies but also followed the loss and reappearance of belief in God Noble explains that by listening to the artists the churches and theologians can deal with questions about the nature of the world memory and ultimate fulfilment in a more nuanced way Then as partakers in the search undertaken by their secular and post secular contemporaries theologians can penetrate a new depth of meaning sending out shoots from the stump of Christian symbolism Drawing on the rich cultures of Central and East Europe and both Western and Eastern theological traditions this book presents a theological reading of contemporary culture which is important not just for post Communist countries but for all who are engaged in the debate on the boundaries between theology politics and arts Heythrop Journal ,2004 Religion in Eastern Europe ,1993 Teología práctica

Alister McGrath, 2018-01-15 En este libro accesible y a la vez estimulante Alister McGrath nos ayuda a descubrir cómo la extensa historia de reflexión teológica cristiana enriquece nuestra fe y potencia nuestra interacción con las preocupaciones y los debates del mundo que nos rodea La primera parte del libro habla del propósito lugar y relevancia de la teología cristiana Cómo transforma la teología el modo en el que vemos las cosas Cómo podemos enfrentarnos a las cuestiones teológicas que nos desconciertan La fe cristiana tiene algo que decir sobre cómo acercarnos al mundo natural Qué relación hay entre la teología y la apologética La segunda parte se centra en cómo interactuar con la cultura y sus preocupaciones sin dejar a un lado el revuelo que está causando el nuevo ateísmo Por eso habla de la relación entre las ciencias naturales y la fe y examina de forma minuciosa y crítica los argumentos de los nuevos ateos incluyendo su campaña sobre la necesidad de una nueva Ilustración En resumen este libro nos ayuda a ver que para cultivar una vida cristiana fructífera es imprescindible cultivar la mente con la que Dios nos ha dotado The Publishers Weekly ,2004 Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2003-04 American Book Publishing Record ,2004 The Philosopher's Index ,2007 Vols for 1969 include a section of abstracts The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index ,2006 Bibliografia națională română ,2004 British Humanities Index ,2005
