Philippine Gay Culture:

Philippine Gay Culture J. Neil C. Garcia, 2009-06-01 The book is a descriptive survey of popular and academic writings on and by Filipino male homosexuals as well as a genealogy of discourses of male homosexuality and the bakla and or gay identities that emerged in urban Philippines from the 1960s to the present This conceptual history engages recent events in the Philippines sexually self aware present but also explores colonial history in showing how modernity implanted a new sexual order of homo hetero and further marginalized the effeminate local identity of bakla Asian American Sexualities Russell Leong, 2014-06-17 Asian American Sexualities works to dispel the stereotype of oriental sexual decadence as well as the model minority heterosexual Asian stereotype in the US Writing from an impressive array of interdisciplinary perspectives the contributors discuss a variety of topics including sexuality and identity politics community activism and gay activism transnational aspects of love between women in Thailand queer South Asian culture in the US gay and lesbian filmmakers same sex sexuality in Pacific literature and Asian American male homosexuality and AIDS The relationship of the gay and lesbian experience to Asian American studies and Ethnic Studies is also explored Lives on the Line Jeffrey J. Sallaz, 2019-07-17 Dial just about any toll free number and chances are you ll be talking to a Filipino In fact around the year 2005 the country overtook India as the world s voice capital Lives on the Line argues that this has nothing to do with wages or accents Rather as Jeffrey J Sallaz shows there is a perfect match between offshored call centers and educated young Filipinos For Filipina women and gay Filipinos in particular call centers are veritable lifelines and their lives tell us much about contemporary capitalism and the future of work Food on Film Tom Hertweck, 2014-10-30 From early cinematic depictions of food as a symbol of ethnic and cultural identity to more complex contemporary portrayals movies have demonstrated how our ideas about food are always changing On the big and small screens representations of addiction starvation and even food as fetish reinforce how important food is in our lives and in our culture In Food on Film Bringing Something New to the Table Tom Hertweck brings together innovative viewpoints about a popular yet understudied subject in cinema This collection explores the pervasiveness of food in film from movies in which meals play a starring role to those that feature food and eating in supporting or cameo appearances The volume asks provocative questions about food and its relationship with work urban life sexual orientation the family race morality and a wide range of appetites The fourteen essays by international interdisciplinary scholars offer a wide range of perspectives on such films and television shows as The Color Purple Do the Right Thing Ratatouille The Road Sex and the City Twin Peaks and even Jaws From first course to last Food on Film will be of interest to scholars of film and television sociology anthropology and cultural history Philippine Studies Priscelina Patajo-Legasto, 2008 These essays by Philippine and U S based scholars illustrate the dynamism and complexities of the discursive field of Philippine studies as a critique of vestiges of universalist Western hegemonic paradigms as an affirmation of traditional and emergent cultural practices as a site for new readings of old texts and new popular forms brought into the ambit of serious scholarship and as a liberative space for new art and literary genres
