Sermons 245-254. Prayers. Rule of faith* Abp. John Tillotson, 1820 An Evangelical Adrift Geertjan Zuijdwegt, 2022-09-09 An Evangelical Adrift is a theological biography of John Henry Newman 1801-1890 that reconstructs the most formative period in his development the years between his teenage conversion to evangelicalism in 1816 and the beginning of the Tractarian Movement in 1833 By the early 1830s Newman had explicitly rejected much of the theology he espoused in the late 1810s and early 1820s and developed a highly original deeply personal and quite radical alternative whose fundamental notions continued to shape his thought in later life To date there is neither a historically accurate nor a theologically sophisticated account of this change the period in which it occurred is neglected its significance is overlooked its nature and content are misrepresented and its scope is narrowed The present study offers a compelling alternative to both mainline and revisionist interpretations Based on detailed historical and theological analysis of the whole range of primary sources including much neglected published and unpublished material it meticulously reconstructs Newman's youthful adoption of gradual departure from and theological alternative to evangelicalism Against most mainline studies it argues that this was a fundamental transformation affecting nearly every aspect of Newman's theology Against Turner and other revisionists it argues that this change was the product of careful and consistent theological reasoning and reflection and that anti liberalism was just as integral to it as anti evangelicalism Two Cardinals Robrecht Boudens, 1995 Sermons .. To which are Added, Some Fragments of Prayers. 9th Ed Rev. George Carr, 1803 Historical Tracts Saint Athanasius (Patriarch of Alexandria), 1873 Medieval Philosophy of Religion Graham Oppy, N. N. Trakakis, 2014-10-20 The Medieval period was one of the richest eras for the philosophical study of religion Covering the period from the 6th to the 16th century reaching into the Renaissance The History of Western Philosophy of Religion 2 shows how Christian Islamic and Jewish thinkers explicated and defended their religious faith in light of the philosophical traditions they inherited from the ancient Greeks and Romans The enterprise of faith seeking understanding as it was dubbed by the medievals themselves emerges as a vibrant encounter between and a complex synthesis of the Platonic Aristotelian and Hellenistic traditions of antiquity on the one hand and the scholastic and monastic religious schools of the medieval West on the other Medieval Philosophy of Religion will be of interest to scholars and students of Philosophy Medieval Studies the History of Ideas and Religion while remaining accessible to any interested in the rich cultural heritage of medieval religious thought The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1992 Nine Sermons Preached in the Parish of St. James, Westminster, on Occasion of the Late War and Rebellion Thomas Secker,1758 The Works of William Chillingworth-- William Chillingworth,1719 Finding List of the Apprentices' Library ...
