Redefined The Quilt As Art:

Redefined: the Quilt as Art Whyte Museum of the Canadian Rockies, 1989 Canadian Reference Sources Mary E. Bond, Martine M. Caron, 1996 This bibliography cites those Canadian and foreign reference sources that describe Canadian people institutions organizations publications art literature languages and history It lists books of a general nature as well as works in the disciplines of history and the humanities These large divisions are then broken down by subject genre type of document and province or territory Titles of national provincial territorial or regional interest are included in every subject area when available The contents of the book are indexed four ways by name title French subject and English subject And to facilitate browsing the major reference books those dealing with more than one subject or a large geographical region are also cross referenced Two entries have been created for each bilingual document in order to provide access and bibliographical descriptions in both of Canada's official languages Entries for unilingual works include a citation in the language of the publication and a bilingual annotation The annotations are descriptive and provide information on the content arrangements and indexing of works the availability of non print formats previous editions and title changes and related works Canadian Reference Sources will be an invaluable reference tool for future scholars and researchers Being Neighbours Catharine Anne Wilson, 2022-10-28 Throughout history farm families have shared work and equipment with their neighbours to complete labour intensive time sensitive and time consuming tasks They benefitted materially and socially from these voluntary flexible loosely structured networks of reciprocal assistance making neighbourliness a vital but overlooked aspect of agricultural change Being Neighbours takes us into the heart of neighbourhood the set of people near and surrounding the family through an examination of work bees in southern Ontario from 1830 to 1960 The bee was a special event where people gathered to work on a neighbour's farm like bees in a hive for a wide variety of purposes including barn raising logging threshing quilting turkey plucking and apple paring Drawing on the diaries of over one hundred men and women Catharine Wilson takes readers into families daily lives the intricacies of their labour exchange and their workways feasts and hospitality Through the prism of the bee and a close reading of the diaries she uncovers the subtle social politics of mutual dependency the expectations neighbours had of each other and their ways of managing conflict and crisis This book adds to the literature on cooperative work that focuses on evaluating its economic efficiency and complicates histories of capitalism that place communal values at odds with market orientation Beautifully written engaging and richly detailed and illustrated Being Neighbours reveals the visceral textures of rural life Faith Ringgold Lisa E. Farrington, Faith Ringgold, 2004 The story of Faith Ringgold activist author academician is an uplifting look at a progressive artist who overcame discrimination and triumphed as a giant figure in American art notable as an accomplished painter a sculptor a printmaker and an art quilter She has never abandoned her goal of searching for human dignity and empowerment for fellow African Americans while tirelessly fighting against discrimination Faith Ringgold is a captivating look at the personal and professional life of one of the country's most notable female artists. Selected works from several of her famous series are presented including The Flag Is Bleeding, Help the Slave Rape Series, 11 The Purple Dolt Series, Mother's Quilt, and We Came to America. Lisa E. Farrington is a faculty member at Parsons School of Design in New York City where she teaches art and race and gender issues. A former Mellon Foundation fellow and recipient of numerous academic awards and honors, she is the author of Creating Their Own Image: African American Women Artists (Oxford University Press, 2004) and Art on Fire: The Politics of Race and Sex in the Paintings of Faith Ringgold (Millennium, 1999). Amish Quilts Janneken Smucker, 2013-11-15 By thoroughly examining all of these aspects, Amish Quilts is an essential resource for anyone interested in the history of these beautiful works. Roderick Kiracofe, author of The American Quilt: A History of Cloth and Comfort 1750-1950 (Journal of Amish and Plain Anabaptist Studies, Quilt National 2007), Lark Books, Dairy Barn Southeastern Ohio Cultural Arts Center, 2007. Presented on these exquisite pages are the most innovative quilts being designed today, all selected for the world-class 15th biennial international juried quilt exhibition. For 30 years, the exhibition, which travels throughout America, has served as a showcase for contemporary quilt artists who expand the boundaries of the craft. Large, spectacular color photographs and the artists' commentary will fill home quilters with inspiration. All the pieces are genuine artworks meant for display, and they set the standard and serve as the model for other art quilts. Innovative and complex, they reveal themselves slowly and reward you with new insights each time you take another look. From computer-generated images to abstract patterns to human figures, these designs are rich in metaphors, stories, and historical tradition. Quilts: Expressions of Creativity and Tradition Pasquale De Marco, 2025-08-15 Quilts: Expressions of Creativity and Tradition is an immersive guide to the world of quilt making where vibrant colors, intricate patterns, and cozy textures intertwine to create cherished heirlooms and treasured works of art. This comprehensive book is your gateway to the rich history, diverse styles, and countless techniques that have shaped this beloved craft. Through the hands of skilled artisans, fabrics transform into vibrant canvases where imagination takes flight and stories unfold. Each quilt tells a unique tale reflecting the quilter's individual journey, passions, and dreams.
