Redmond Barry A Colonial Life 1813 1880:

Redmond Barry Peter Ryan,1980-01 Redmond Barry Ann Galbally,2013-04-01 Sir Redmond Barry was the pre eminent figure in Melbourne of the middle years of last century A Supreme Court judge for thirty years he was the founding and sustaining force behind the University of Melbourne the Supreme Court Library the Public Library the National Gallery and the Museum As social and cultural benefactor he stands alone Paradox pervaded his life While seen by many as a hidebound even villainous judge his trust in the rule of law underpinned for example an unusually sympathetic and active response to the Aboriginal people Yet fear of losing social standing and his Irish family s esteem blinkered him to injustice on his own doorstep The story of his unacknowledged relationship of thirty years with Louisa Barrow and of their four illegitimate children is perplexing and often painful in the telling This important biography is long overdue A Science of Our Own Peter H. Hoffenberg,2019-10-22 When the Reverend Henry Carmichael opened the Sydney Mechanics School of Arts in 1833 he introduced a bold directive for Australia to advance on the scale of nations it needed to develop a science of its own Prominent scientists in the colonies of New South Wales and Victoria answered this call by participating in popular exhibitions far and near from London s Crystal Place in 1851 to Sydney Melbourne Adelaide and Brisbane during the final decades of the nineteenth century A Science of Our Own explores the influential work of local botanists chemists and geologists William B Clarke Joseph Bosisto Robert Brough Smyth and Ferdinand Mueller who contributed to shaping a distinctive public science in Australia during the nineteenth century It extends beyond the political underpinnings of the development of public science to consider the rich social and cultural context at its core For the Australian colonies as Peter H Hoffenberg argues these exhibitions not only offered a path to progress by promoting both the knowledge and authority of local scientists and public policies they also ultimately redefined the relationship between science and society by representing and appealing to the growing popularity of science at home and abroad An Empire on Display Peter H. Hoffenberg,2001 The exhibitions of the Victorian and Edwardian eras are the lens through which this book examines the economic cultural and social forces that helped define Britain and the Empire It focuses on exhibitions in England Australia and India from the Great Exhibition to the Festival of Empire The Shop Richard Joseph Wheeler Selleck,2003 Telling as much a social educational and cultural story as institutional history this detailed account chronicles the ideological patterns internal and countrywide conflicts and student experiences at the University of Melbourne from 1850 to 1939 The daily life of staff professors and students are recounted during times of turmoil and peace in Australia including the depression of the 1890s and World War I The account offers a window into the pedagogical conflicts and research achievements of one of Australia s oldest continuing educational institutions Mr Felton's Bequests John Poynter,2008-01-01 Alfred Felton a bachelor of definite opinions and benignly eccentric habits was one of the remarkable group of Melbourne merchants who dominated the economy of the Australian colonies in the decades after the gold rush In 1904 he left his substantial fortune in
