Women Framing Hair Heather Hanna, 2015-05-13 This book explores the complex and enigmatic motif of hair in the work of five contemporary women artists Chrystl Rijkeboer Alice Maher Annegret Soltau Kathy Prendergast and Ellen Gallagher from the late 1970s to the present It investigates why hair is such a productive and resonant site of meaning how it is suggestive of and responds to serial strategies and why it appears to be of particular significance to women who are artists It explores the implications of hair as an embodied material its role as a haptic metaphor of the life cycle and what might be seen as a darker more liminal side of hair as a site of excess and body waste and its ability to represent trauma and wounding It also discusses some of the divergent histories of hair as a rich marker of identity in cultural discourses of beauty myth and femininity and as a symbol of status and power Informed by a range of theoretical approaches this book draws on Julia Kristeva's theorizations of the abject Hélène Cixous's notion of écriture féminine and a Deleuzian consideration of difference The Arms-Bearing Woman and British Theatre in the Age of Revolution, 1789-1815 Sarah Burdett, 2023-05-20 This book explores shifting representations and receptions of the arms bearing woman on the British stage during a period in which she comes to stand in Britain as a striking symbol of revolutionary chaos The book makes a case for viewing the British Romantic theatre as an arena in which the significance of the armed woman is constantly remodelled and reappropriated to fulfil diverse ideological functions Used to challenge as well as to enforce established notions of sex and gender difference she is fashioned also as an allegorical tool serving both to condemn and to champion political and social rebellion at home and abroad Magnifying heroines who appear on stage wielding pistols brandishing daggers thrusting swords and even firing explosives the study spotlights the intricate and often surprising ways in which the stage amazon interacts with Anglo French Anglo Irish Anglo German and Anglo Spanish debates at varying moments across the French revolutionary and Napoleonic campaigns At the same time it foregrounds the extent to which new dramatic genres imported from Europe notably the German Sturm und Drang and the French derived melodrama facilitate possibilities at the turn of the nineteenth century for a refashioned female warrior whose degree of agency destructiveness and heroism surpasses that of her tragic and sentimental predecessors
