Reflecting On Nana:

Reflecting on Nana Bernice Chitnis, 2016-07-22 First published in 1991 this book radically challenged the view of Nana as the story of an old fashioned femme fatale and reinterprets her as a feminist heroine who manages to overturn patriarchy. The author shows how Nana confronts the traditional social order and offers an alternative version. This work gives not just an original approach to the heroine herself but the story of Zola's struggle with his vision of her and the subversive values she represents. This book will be of interest to students of literature and feminism.

Narratives of Identity in Alban Berg's 'Lulu' Silvio J. dos Santos, 2014 This book explores the crossroads between autobiographical narratives and musical composition in Alban Berg's Lulu, unveiling aspects of encoded social customs, gender identity and personal experiences within musical structures. Exploring the crossroads between autobiographical narrative and musical composition, this book examines Berg's transformation of Frank Wedekind's Erdgeist and Die B chse der Pandora, the plays used in the formation of the libretto for Lulu, according to notions of gender identity, social customs and the aesthetics of modernity in the Vienna of the 1920s and 1930s. While Berg modernized several aspects of the plays and incorporated serial techniques of composition from Arnold Schoenberg, he never let go of the idealistic Wagnerian perspectives of his youth. In fact, he went as far as reconfiguring aspects of Richard Wagner's life as an ideal identity to be played out in the compositional process. In composing the opera, Berg also reflected on the most important cultural figures in fin de siècle Vienna that affected his worldview, including Karl Kraus, Emil Lucka, Otto Weininger and others. Combining analysis of Berg's correspondence, numerous sketches for Lulu and the finished work with interpretive models drawn from cultural studies and philosophy, this book elucidates the ways in which Berg grappled at the end of his life with his self-image as an incorrigible romantic and explains aspects of his musical language that have been considered strange or anomalous in Berg scholarship. Silvio J. dos Santos is an assistant professor of musicology at the University of Florida.

Figures of the World Christopher Laing Hill, 2020-07-15 Figures of the World: The Naturalist Novel and Transnational Form overturns Eurocentric genealogies and globalizing generalizations about world literature by examining the complex, contradictory history of naturalist fiction. Christopher Laing Hill follows naturalism's emergence in France and circulation around the world from North and South America to East Asia. His analysis shows that transnational literary studies must operate on multiple scales, combine distant reading with close analysis and investigate how literary forms develop on the move. The book begins by tracing the history of naturalist fiction from the 1860s into the twentieth century and the reasons it spread around the world. Hill explores the development of three naturalist figures: the degenerate body, the self-liberated woman and the social milieu through close readings of fiction from France, Japan and the United States. Rather than genealogies of European influence or the domination of cultural peripheries by the center, novels by Émile Zola, Tayama Katai, Frank Norris and other writers reveal conspicuous departures from metropolitan models as writers revised naturalist methods to address new social conditions. Hill offers a new approach to studying culture.

on a large scale for readers interested in literature the arts and the history of ideas      Reflections on Life Christopher Ejsmond, 2008-09 Description Reflections on Life is a collection of poems which describes the life experiences of the author who has lived with the personal legacy of child abuse followed by the descent into mental illness schizophrenia and OCD and alcoholism The poems carry a message of hope by exploring the complex mental landscapes of co morbidity dual diagnosis psychosis childhood the power of ideas emotions thoughts pain loss actions and relationships The poems invite the reader on a journey through a world where the experience of mental distress has carved a creative channel through the darkness and loneliness of illness and points to a way forward The author has experienced mental health problems since early childhood OCD at five schizophrenia since his teens He has experienced stigma and discrimination from family school and society but has learned to forgive along the way through the medium of poetry The author has lived with severe and enduring mental illness suicidal ideation a plethora of psychotic symptoms voices and perceptual aberrations as well as the efforts of a sometimes unhelpful and clumsy mental health system He has learned from the experience of others and how to put his own suffering and distress into a broader social context About the Author The author was born on 22 October 1964 in London and with few exceptions has lived and worked in London all his life He is the younger of two brothers born to Polish emigre parents who arrived in the UK in the late nineteen forties after experiencing traumatic childhoods separated from their own parents and witnessing conflict and war in some of the major theatres of the Second World War The author lives in Ealing west London which has a vibrant Polish community and is educated to university level He is currently a postgraduate student at King s College London The author s childhood was spent in a family home with a number of lodgers which by any means was overcrowded There were many people in his life from early on each with different sometimes difficult personalities which did little to fuse the immediate family unit into a secure base from which a child could thrive Soon after starting school the author began to experience cognitive behavioural and emotional problems These went unrecognised for many years during which the author suffered in silence and fell back on his own resourcefulness in developing coping strategies The author has had obsessive compulsive disorder OCD since about the age of five and this had a devastating impact on home life and school At first it was an obsession with numbers and letters of the alphabet There was much confusion and anxiety in the young child s life Soon the obsessions multiplied and mutated into more physical aspects of movement going in and out of doorways walking up and down pathways and stairs opening and closing repeating things aloud which were accompanied by thoughts and feelings of doom On many occasions the stress was so great that the author s young mind would switch off and become empty of thought and fixed in a void but with the recognition that things had to be put right sorted out and put back in place
