Reflection Of An Ordinary Person:

Steps on the Path to Enlightenment Lhundub Sopa, 2017-12-12 The final installment of the Steps on the Path to Enlightenment series examines the nature of reality with a master class in Buddhist Middle Way philosophy and meditation. The late Geshe Sopa was a refugee monk from Tibet sent to the United States by the Dalai Lama in 1963. He became a professor at the University of Wisconsin training a generation of Western Buddhist scholars and was a towering figure in the transmission of Buddhism to the West. In this fifth and final volume of his commentary on Lama Tsongkhapa's masterwork on the graduated steps of the Buddhist path, Geshe Sopa explains the practice of superior insight or wisdom, the pinnacle of the bodhisattva's perfections. All the Buddhist practices are for the purpose of developing wisdom, for it is wisdom that liberates from the cycle of suffering. All other positive actions, from morality to deep states of meditation, have no power to liberate unless they are accompanied by insight into the nature of reality. With unparalleled precision, Geshe Sopa unpacks this central principle with scholarly virtuosity, guiding the reader through the progressive stages of realization. Reflection of Human Behaviour, The Experiential Dimension of Advaita Vedanta Arvind Sharma, 1993-01-01 The Experiential Dimension of Advaita Vedanta provides a clear, concise and precise introduction to Advaita Vedanta on the basis of something more powerful than argument, namely, experience. Balance and Refinement Michael R. DePaul, 2006-12-05 We all have moral beliefs. But what if one belief conflicts with another? DePaul argues that we have to make our beliefs cohere, but that the current coherence methods are seriously flawed. It is not just the arguments that need to be considered in moral enquiry. DePaul asserts that the ability to make sensitive moral judgements is vital to any philosophical inquiry into morality. The inquirer must consider how her life experiences and experiences with literature, film and theatre have influenced her capacity for making moral judgments and attempt to ensure that this capacity is neither naive nor corrupted. Ageless Soul Thomas Moore, 2017-10-10 Ageless Soul will teach readers how to embrace the richness of experience and how to take life on, accept invitations to new vitality and feel fulfilled as they get older. Thomas Moore is the renowned author of Care of the Soul, the classic New York Times bestseller. In Ageless Soul, Moore reveals a fresh, optimistic and rewarding path toward aging, one that need not be feared but rather embraced and cherished. In Moore's view, aging is the process by which one becomes a more distinctive, complex, fulfilled, loving and connected person. Using examples from his practice as a psychotherapist and teacher who lectures widely on the soul of medicine and spirituality, Moore argues for a new vision of aging as a dramatic series of initiations rather than a diminishing experience, one that each of us has the tools, experience, maturity and fulfillment to live out. Subjects include: Why melancholy is a natural part of aging and how to accept it rather than confuse it with depression; The vital role of the elder and mentor in the lives of younger people; The many paths of spiritual growth and learning that open later in life; Sex and sensuality; Building new communities and leaving a legacy. Conspicuous and Inconspicuous Discriminations in Everyday Life Victor N. Shaw, 2013-06-19 In everyday life, people negotiate on issues entertain offers and counteroffers and gain or lose in terms of economic capital political power communal status and social influence Although life goes on in the form of compromise feelings of discrimination or misfortune haunt consciously or unconsciously in the minds of living individuals History continues in the spirit of forgiveness but residues of exploitation or injustice remain conspicuously or inconspicuously on the records of progressing civilizations This study follows an average everyday life to compare individuals with individuals individuals with organizations and organizations with organizations in their everyday interactions Through the eyes of the person conspicuous and inconspicuous discriminations by one against another whether individual or organizational are identified in different occasions on a typical day at home in the workplace in the community within the country around the world and throughout the course of life In the style of Socrates Plato Wittgenstein and other classical scholarship this study uses ordinary typical situations to demonstrate critical points reveal subtle connections and present important arguments It offers vivid examples for what social scientists strive to find the extraordinary from the ordinary the unfamiliar from the familiar the different from the similar and the significant from the trivial This study offers an opportunity for readers to reflect upon their social experiences and rethink and reshape their everyday acts and actions Reflections on Human Inquiry Nirmalangshu Mukherji, 2017-10-30 This original volume examines forms and limits of human inquiry from a largely sceptical point of view Human beings are endowed with cognitive agency Our grasp of the world and of ourselves are not merely responses to external stimuli they are reflective products of human inquiry At one point in human history it was thought that modern science especially theoretical physics is the paradigm of human inquiry Where does this form of inquiry significantly apply Are there limits on its claims of truth and objectivity How much of the vast canvas of human experience does it cover Where do other forms of inquiry such as philosophy religion and the arts attain their salience With the emergence of the scientific study of the human mind itself these critical questions have taken a more intriguing form in recent decades Can human inquiry investigate its own nature Can the scientific theory of language explain the richness of human expression Can a science of the mind account for human experience These probing questions on the scientific enterprise are usually addressed from the outside as it were by humanists and critical theorists In these essays they are examined from the inside by a philosopher whose primary academic work concerns the study of the human linguistic mind In that sense the sceptical inquiry turns on itself Reflection and the Stability of Belief Louis E. Loeb, 2010 A unifying theme of Loeb's work is epistemological that Descartes and Hume advance theories of knowledge that rely on a substantial naturalistic component adopting one or another member of a cluster of psychological properties of beliefs as the goal of inquiry and the standard for assessing belief forming mechanisms Thus Loeb shows a surprising affinity between the epistemologies of the two figures surprising because they are often thought of as polar opposites in this respect Descartes and Hume are unique in that their philosophical texts are accessible beyond just a narrow audience in the history of philosophy their ideas continue to be a vital part of the field at large This volume will thus appeal to advanced students and scholars not just in the history of early modern philosophy but in epistemology and other core areas of the discipline Reflections: January February March 2021 Sasvati Nome,2021-01-01 REFLECTIONS is the SAT Temple s quarterly journal Reflections contains transcriptions of satsangs at SAT given by Nome the teachings of Sri Ramana Maharshi excerpts from numerous Advaitic scriptures updates on events occurring at the SAT Temple and much more An Assessment of Mass Meetings as a Method of Evangelism William Thomas,2024-09-16
