Reflection on Vietnam Guy Jones, 2004-02 Reflection On Vietnam Guy L. Jones, 2004-02 New York was paralyzed by a truckers strike instigated by terrorists Grasping for supplies brought out the inhumane where in stores they fought for food leaving shelves empty In Switzerland two determined Americans risked their lives to discover the terrorist plot The couple fell in love spending a grand evening at a mountain tavern and inn With high spirits and locked arms they sang along with a rollicking crowd But after they left the next morning an avalanche covered the tavern and inn killing all there Saddened the couple followed the trail of the terrorists where they faced fearful intrigue Now they were in the midst of a dangerous game Locked in a large church bell tower they came horribly close to losing their lives A terrorist cell planned the couple s death when the bells clanged with intense loudness But by ingenuity they escaped and alerted authorities Throughout their journey the couple fell deeper in love They were tempted to stay in Switzerland which by then was much safer than the US suffering through massive small pox deaths as well as suicide bombings Yet when news came that the terrorists had hit the Statue of Liberty the patriotic couple flew back to help their beloved country America Unraveling Vietnam William R.

Bloodshot Lens Lawrence Pintak, 2006-01-20 There exists today a tragic rift between Americans and the world s Muslims Yet in the immediate aftermath of 9 11 there was widespread sympathy for the US throughout the Muslim world This book explores what happened It examines the disconnect that leads Americans and Muslims to view the same words and images in fundamentally different ways Partly a result of a centuries old us against them dichotomy the problem is exacerbated by an increasingly polarised media and by leaders on both sides who either don t understand or don t care what impact their words and policies have in the world at large Reflections in a Bloodshot Lens argues that the Arab media revolution and the rise of patriot journalists in the US marginalised voices of moderation distorting perceptions on both sides of the divide with potentially disastrous results Reflections on the Vietnam War Cao Van Vien, Van Khuyen Dong, 1980 New
