Reflections In The Mirror Of Religion:

Cultural Reflections in the Mirror of Philosophy and Faith Elizabeth C. Ngeny, Muuro David Nkaabu, Agaba Moses, Emma Girard, 2024-12-23 TOPICS IN THE BOOK Benefits from Kipsigis Women Engaging in Socio Economic Activities in Kericho and Bomet Counties Kenya The Role of Gender Oriented Campaigns in Anglican Church of Kenya in Averting Gender Based Violence within the Diocese of Meru Kenya Tukutendereze Contextualizing Salvation in Kigezi Sub Region Existentialism and Individualism A Study of Its Influence on French Society Reflections in the Mirror of Religion Ninian Smart, 1997 The essays selected for this volume represent Professor Ninian Smart s most contemporary reflections on major issues the field of religious studies Beginning with investigations into the possibility of a science of religion Professor Smart then goes on to consider how a sociology of religious knowledge can be developed focusing in particular on Asian cultures and traditions Finally he analyses the growth of religious studies as an academic field a field his own work has helped to shape in a definitive way Ninian Smart on World Religions John J. Shepherd, 2017-11-30 Ninian Smart came to public prominence as the founding Professor of the first British university Department of Religious Studies in the late 1960s His pioneering views on education in religion proved hugely influential at all levels from primary schools to academic teaching and research An unending string of publications many of them accessible to the general public sustained a reputation that became worldwide Here for the first time a selection of Ninian Smart s wide ranging writings is organised systematically under a set of categories which both comprehend and also illuminate his varied output over a career spanning half a century The editor John Shepherd was Principal Lecturer in Religion and Philosophy at the University of Cumbria He first met Smart as a postgraduate student and recently helped establish the Ninian Smart Archive at the University of Lancaster Ninian Smart on World Religions: Traditions and the challenges of modernity. I. Individual traditions. Buddhism. 'Mysticism and scripture in Theravāda Buddhism' Ninian Smart, 2009 Ninian Smart came to public prominence as the founding Professor of the first British university Department of Religious Studies in the late 1960s His pioneering views on education in religion proved hugely influential at all levels from primary schools to academic teaching and research An unending string of publications many of them accessible to the general public sustained a reputation that became worldwide Here for the first time a selection of Ninian Smart s wide ranging writings is organised systematically under a set of categories which both comprehend and also illuminate his varied output over a career spanning half a century The editor John Shepherd was Principal Lecturer in Religion and Philosophy at the University of Cumbria He first met Smart as a postgraduate student and recently helped establish the Ninian Smart Archive at the University of Lancaster Coleridge, Philosophy and Religion Douglas Hedley, 2000-06-22 Coleridge s relation to his German contemporaries constitutes the toughest problem in assessing his standing as a thinker For the last half century this relationship has been described ultimately as parasitic As a result Coleridge s contribution to religious thought has been seen primarily in terms of his poetic genius This book revives and deepens the evaluation of Coleridge as a philosophical theologian in his own right Coleridge had a critical and creative relation to and kinship with German Idealism Moreover the principal impulse behind his engagement with that philosophy is traced to the more immediate context of English Unitarian Trinitarian controversy of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries The book re establishes Coleridge as a philosopher of religion and as a vital source for contemporary theological reflection

Hume's Reflection on Religion Miguel A. Badía Cabrera,2012-12-06 This book presents a comprehensive interpretation of Hume's serious reflection on religion from the perspective afforded by his philosophical project and its Enlightened ends I relate his account of the origin development and significant effects of religious beliefs to his own historical works and conversely take the former as the leading thread into the disclosure of a Humean philosophy of history I also critically analyze his views about the eminently irrational and feigned character of most religious faith and its inevitable negative effect on morality Finally I examine Hume's attack on the validity of the conclusions of rational theology Reasonable support is provided for the claim that the belief in God as an intelligent author of the universe is a natural and reasonable belief This work may interest both scholars and general readers who are intrigued or troubled by religion and the issues of the utmost importance which it raises

God in the Mirror Dr. J.J. Meier,2009-03-11 For many people the concept of a Divine Spirit is elusive Many question who or what God is In today's chaotic world it's no wonder we have questions The issues we face from personal to global disconnect us physically and detach us from our spiritual energy J J Meier has written God in the Mirror to reconnect us to the Universe to reflect a new vision of God and ultimately a new vision of you Using spiritual concepts from world religions Dr Meier examines our physical emotional mental and spiritual natures including our health our energy level and our ability to love and forgive essentially the layers of our Being Because your world reflects the state of YOU you can choose to change your individual state anytime Life can be full of wonder and delight joy and forgiveness love and bliss God in the Mirror guides you on a journey that starts in your mind travels through your heart and settles into your soul This book is rich with insights that lead to realizations that each of us is a reflection of the God Source ever connected and never separated

A Garland of Feminist Reflections Rita M. Gross,2009-03-05 Rita M Gross has long been acknowledged as a founder in the field of feminist theology The essays in this book represent the major aspects of her work and provide an overview of her methodology in women's studies in religion and feminism

Theological Reflection across Religious Traditions Edward Foley,2015-02-12 Theological reflection connecting real life ministry and religious traditions is a core component of most pastoral training It is also a hallmark of practical theology and a common spiritual exercise among ordinary Christians trying to discern how their beliefs might influence daily living Yet our society is increasingly pluralistic with growing numbers of people from varying belief systems from Islam to Buddhism as well as an increasing number of atheists In this book Edward Foley reimagines theological reflection in interfaith contexts and with those of no faith tradition The book addresses and celebrates diverse beliefs and envisions the practice of theological reflection in such contexts Theological Reflection Across Religious Traditions introduces readers to the basics of traditional forms of theological reflection then considers how it might be reconceived in different contexts from interfaith ministers working together to reduce poverty and homelessness to people of diverse or no faith traditions strategizing to secure the dignity of undocumented immigrants Beyond suggestions for collaborative social action the book offers tools for productive interfaith conversation through a process Foley calls reflective believing This is a groundbreaking rethinking of theological reflection for today s world proposing that people across the religious landscape can participate in reflective believing for personal and communal benefit without sacrificing their own integrity The Mirror's Reflection
