Reflections Of One Army Nurse In World War II:

Women in the United States Military Judith Bellafaire, 2011-01-26 Women's participation in the U S Armed Forces has grown over time in response to the national need for their services Throughout each era of American history patriotic women volunteered to serve their country in a wide variety of official and unofficially sanctioned capacities When there was a call to duty the United States Armed Forces always relied upon women to be a part of the effort This book provides information to enable students and scholars to understand the effect women have had on wars that have shaped the United States

American Women During World War II Doris Weatherford, 2009-10-16 American Women during World War II documents the lives and stories of women who contributed directly to the war effort via official and semi official military organizations as well as the millions of women who worked in civilian defense industries ranging from aircraft maintenance to munitions manufacturing and much more It also illuminates how the war changed the lives of women in more traditional home front roles All women had to cope with rationing of basic household goods and most women volunteered in war related programs Other entries discuss institutional change as the war affected every aspect of life including as schools hospitals and even religion American Women during World War II provides a handy one volume collection of information and images suitable for any public or professional library

The Secret of Raven Point Jennifer Vanderbes, 2015-04-07 When 17 year old Juliet Dufresne receives a cryptic letter from her enlisted older brother pleading for help and then finds out he's been reported missing overseas she lies about her age and volunteers as an army nurse to find him Shy and awkward Juliet is thrust into the bloody chaos of a field hospital living in a sprawling encampment north of Rome Christopher Barnaby a deserter awaiting court martial may hold the answer to her brother's fate but the trauma of war has left him unable to speak A
