Reflections On Multiliterate Lives:

Reflections on Multiliterate Lives Diane Dewhurst Belcher, Ulla Connor, 2001 Reflection on Multiliterate Lives is a collection of personal accounts in narrative and interview format of the formative literacy experiences of highly successful second language users all of who are professional academics Representing fourteen countries in origin the contributors well known specialists in language teaching as well as a variety of other fields in the social and physical sciences recount in their own words past and present struggles and successes as learners of language and of much else The Routledge Doctoral Supervisor's Companion Melanie Walker, Pat Thomson, 2010-04-19 Accompanying The Routledge Doctoral Student s Companion this book examines what it means to be a doctoral student in education and the social sciences providing a guide for those supervising students Exploring the key role and pedagogical challenges that face supervisors in students personal development the contributors outline the research capabilities which are essential for confidence quality and success in doctorate level research Providing guidance about helpful resources and methodological support the chapters frame important questions within the history of debates act as a road map through international literatures make suggestions for good practice raise important questions and provide answers to key pedagogical issues provide advice on enabling students scholarly careers and identities While there is no one solution to ideal supervision this wide ranging text offers resources that will help supervisors develop their own personal approach to supervision Ideal for all supervisors whether assisting part time of full time students it is also highly suitable for helping academics to support international students who confront Western doctoral traditions and academic cultures helping both supervisor and student to understand why things are as they are Transnational Literacy Autobiographies as Translingual Writing Suresh Canagarajah, 2019-07-08 The literacy autobiography is a personal narrative reflecting on how one's experiences of spoken and written words have contributed to their ongoing relationship with language and literacy Transnational Literacy Autobiographies as Translingual Writing is a cutting edge study of this engaging genre of writing in academic and professional contexts In this state of the art collection Suresh Canagarajah brings together 11 samples of writing by students that both document their literary journeys and pinpoint the seminal works affecting their development as translingual readers and writers Integrating the narrative of the author which is written as his own literacy autobiography with a close analysis of these texts this book presents a case for the literacy autobiography as an archetypal genre that prepares writers for the conventions and processes required in other genres of writing demonstrates the serious epistemological and rhetorical implications behind the genre of literacy autobiography among migrant scholars and students effectively translates theoretical publications on language diversity for classroom purposes providing a transferable teaching approach to translingual writing analyzes the tropes of transnational writers and their craft in meshing translingual resources in their writing demonstrates how transnationalism and translingualism are interconnected guiding readers toward an understanding of codemeshing not as a cosmetic addition to texts but motivated toward resolving inescapable personal and social dilemmas Written and edited by one of the most highly regarded linguists of his generation this book is key reading for scholars and students of applied linguistics TESOL and literacy studies as well as tutors of writing and composition worldwide Autoethnographic Perspectives on Multilingual Life Stories Hancı-Azizoglu, Eda Başak, Şahinkarakaş, Şehnaz, Tannacito, Dan J., 2022-05-13 Storytelling is an ideal avenue for language learners to share their experiences and journeys and find a sense of identity Everyone who has learned an additional language has a story to tell but there is a unique type of autoethnographic and linguistic story that can be read in scholarly platforms Autoethnographic Perspectives on Multilingual Life Stories presents the life stories of multilingual people and their experiences by using autoethnography as a research method It proposes narrative as an autobiographical research method that provides the technique and opportunity to express how transnationals construct their identities in foreign and new contexts through partial or full life stories Covering topics such as identity life stories and self discovery this reference work is ideal for academicians researchers scholars practitioners instructors and students Second Language Writing Systems Vivian Cook, Benedetta Bassetti, 2005-05-23 Second Language Writing Systems looks at how people learn and use a second language writing system arguing that they are affected by characteristics of the first and second writing systems to a certain extent independently of the languages involved This book presents for the first time the effects of writing systems on language reading and writing and on language awareness and provides a new platform for discussing bilingualism biliteracy and writing systems The approach is interdisciplinary with contributions not only from applied linguists and psychologists but also corpus linguists educators and phoneticians A variety of topics are covered from handwriting to spelling word recognition to the mental lexicon and language textbooks to metalinguistic awareness Though most of the studies concern adult L2 learners and users other populations covered include minority children immersion students and bilingual children While the emphasis is on English as the L2 writing system many other writing systems are analysed as L1 or L2 Arabic Chinese Dutch Gujarati Indonesian Irish Italian and Japanese Approaches that are represented include contrastive analysis transfer poststructuralism connectionism and corpus analysis The readership is SLA and bilingualism researchers students and teachers around the world language teachers will also find much food for thought Learning a Foreign Language Alex Poole, 2020-10-01 This text helps monolinguals achieve their dream of learning another language Each chapter explains and exemplifies issues inherent in the language learning process that readers need to understand These include maintaining motivation dealing with errors being strategic and assessing progress Readers receive advice on the practical steps they can take to make learning more effective and enjoyable They also gain exposure to the methods and techniques used to research language learning While doing so they become aware of child language development the evolution of language language s relationship to culture and other fundamental areas of linguistics Readers also confront limitations related to age and learn about the necessity of having realistic expectations concerning pronunciation grammar production word usage and cultural knowledge Questions following the end of every chapter encourage readers to reflect on the information presented and how they can use it The text s focus on first time language learners and straightforward style make it accessible for high school students college language majors and those independently pursuing a language

Learning Pragmatics from Native and Nonnative Language Teachers Andrew D. Cohen,2018-05-25 This book deals with intercultural pragmatics and how both nonnative teachers NNTs and native teachers NTs may enhance their classroom instruction regarding target language TL pragmatics It focuses primarily on the experiences of instructors as they teach their learners about the pragmatics of the TL both in second and foreign language learning settings It makes clear that there are aspects of teaching pragmatics where it may help to be an NT and other areas where it may help to be an NNT and proposes creative ideas that both sets of teachers may draw on to compensate for gaps in their knowledge Further themes in the book include ideas for motivating students who want to learn about pragmatics the role of technology in teaching and learning pragmatics the role of learning strategies the assessment of pragmatics and ways to research pragmatics The book will be of interest to teachers teacher educators and students interested in researching and improving the teaching of pragmatics

New Directions in Second Language Pragmatics J. César Félix-Brasdefer,Rachel Shively,2021-02-22 New Directions in Second Language Pragmatics brings together varying perspectives in second language L2 pragmatics to show both historical developments in the field while also looking towards the future including theoretical empirical and implementation perspectives This volume is divided in four sections teaching and learning speech acts assessing pragmatic competence analyzing discourses in digital contexts and current issues in L2 pragmatics The chapters focus on various aspects related to the learning teaching and assessing of L2 pragmatics and cover a range of learning environments The authors address current topics in L2 pragmatics such as speech acts from a discursive perspective pragmatics instruction in the foreign language classroom and during study abroad assessment of pragmatic competence research methods used to collect pragmatics data pragmatics in computer mediated contexts the role of implicit and explicit knowledge discourse markers as a resource for interaction and the framework of translingual practice Taken together the chapters in this volume foreground innovations and new directions in the field of L2 pragmatics while at the same time ground their work in the existing literature Consequently this volume both highlights where the field of L2 pragmatics has been and offers cutting edge insights into where it is going in the future

Handbook of Research in Second Language Teaching and Learning Eli Hinkel,2016-11-18 Volume III of the Handbook of Research in Second Language Teaching and Learning like Volumes I and II is a comprehensive state of the art overview of current research into social contexts of second language L2 foreign language FL teaching and learning language policy curriculum types of instruction incremental language skills such as listening speaking reading writing vocabulary and grammar international communication pragmatics assessment and testing It differs from earlier volumes in its main purpose to provide a more in depth discussion and detailed focus on the development of the essential language skills required for any type of communication speaking listening reading vocabulary grammar and writing Volume III preserves continuity with previous volumes in its coverage of all the classical areas of research in L2 FL teaching and learning and applied linguistics but rather than offering a historical review of disciplinary traditions it explores innovations and new directions of research acknowledges the enormous complexity of teaching and learning the essential language abilities and offers a diversity of perspectives Chapter authors are all leading authorities in their disciplinary areas What's new in Volume III Updates the prominent areas of research including the sub disciplines addressed in Volumes I and II and represents the disciplinary mainstays Considers and discusses perspectives held by different schools of thought on the what the how and the why of teaching foundational language skills including theories pedagogical principles and their implementation in practice Captures new and ongoing developments and trends in the key areas of L2 FL teaching and learning and innovative research topics that have gained substantial recognition in current publications including the role of corpora technology and digital literacy in L2 FL teaching and learning Examines new trends in language pedagogy and research such as an increased societal emphasis on teaching academic language for schooling somewhat contradictory definitions of literacy and the growing needs for instruction in intercultural communication

Asian English Language Classrooms Handoyo Widodo, Alistair Wood, Deepti Gupta, 2017-06-14 The teaching of English in the Asian context is always challenging and dynamic because both teachers and learners have diverse linguistic and cultural backgrounds Equally important where English is not widely used outside the classroom English language classrooms are an authentic site of learner engagement For these reasons for all those concerned with contemporary English language teaching ELT in Asia Asian English Language Classrooms Where Theory and Practice Meet provides an account of theoretical orientations and practices in the teaching of English to multilingual speakers whose primary language is not English While covering the fundamental ELT areas e.g. the teaching of language skills educational literature the use of technology in ELT the role of pragmatics in ELT social psychology of the language classroom and language classroom management with which every language teacher and teacher trainer must be concerned this volume showcases how particular orientations shape ELT practices We believe that practicing English teachers must have a heightened awareness of the theory behind their practice At the same time the theoretical stance must be firmly anchored in actual classrooms Containing newly commissioned chapters written by well regarded and emerging scholars this book will appeal not only to beginning teachers or teachers in training but also to established teachers around Asia where English is used as a lingua franca If you are a student teacher of English or an English teacher who would like to see what other progressive teachers like you are doing across Asia this is the book you have been looking for
