Anthony C. Thiselton

Reflections National Gallery Diary 1987:

The Art of Reflection Marsha Meskimmon, 1996 Marsha Meskimmon examines a wide variety of women's self-portraiture from performance to body art in lively and accessible prose. She takes the cultural focus from the dominant male self-portraiture to the more marginalized gender, bringing women artists' perspectives to the forefront. Poetics of the Iconotext Professor Liliane Louvel, 2013-05-28 Poetics of the Iconotext makes available for the first time in English the theories of the respected French text image specialist Professor Liliane Louvel. A consolidation of the most significant theoretical materials of Louvel's two acclaimed books L'Œil du Texte Texte et image dans la littérature anglophone and Texte Image Images lire textes voir, this newly conceived work introduces English readers to the most current thinking in French text image theory and visual studies. Focusing on the full spectrum of text image relations from medieval illuminated manuscripts to digital books, Louvel begins by introducing key terms and situating her work in the context of significant debates in text image studies. Part II introduces Louvel's typology of pictorial saturation through which she establishes a continuum along which to measure the effect of the most figurative to the most literal images upon writerly and readerly textual spaces. Part III adopts a phenomenological approach towards the reading/viewing experience as expressed in conceptual categories that include the trace, focal range, synesthesia, and rhythm and speed. The result is a provocative interplay of the categorical and the subjective that invites readers to think at once more precisely and more inventively about texts, images, and the intersections between the two. New Horizons in Hermeneutics Anthony C. Thiselton, 1992 This book explores the rapidly growing interdisciplinary area of hermeneutics and its significance for biblical studies, combining wide fundamental, rigorous, and creative theoretical concerns with practical questions about how we read biblical texts. Cosmè Tura of Ferrara Stephen John Campbell, 1997-01-01 A major study of Cosmè Tura c. 1430-1495, who came to prominence as painter to the Este court. As well as close examination of his paintings, Tura's life and works are used as a starting point for the investigation of the 15th-century artist's role and status at court and urban culture. Mirror of the Medieval World Barbara Drake Boehm, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1999 The publication of this comprehensive catalogue celebrates the distinguished career of William D. Wixom at the Metropolitan. Highlighted in these pages are more than three hundred purchases and gifts, the great majority of which have been on view, but many of which have remained unpublished until now. Infrastructure and Form Karin Zitzewitz, 2022-09-06 Feminist networks, new biennials, and performance. Painting and the image condition at the millennium. Materiality, ephemerality, and haptics. Language, the documentary, and art in a discursive mode. Infrastructure, collaboration, and the cut. Lusheck, 2017-08-07 Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing re-examines the early graphic practice of the preeminent northern Baroque painter Peter Paul Rubens (Flemish, 1577-1640) in light of early modern traditions of eloquence particularly as promoted in the late sixteenth and early seventeenth century Flemish Neostoic circles of philologist Justus Lipsius 1547 1606 Focusing on the roles that rhetorical and pedagogical considerations played in the artist's approach to disegno during and following his formative Roman period 1600 08 this volume highlights Rubens's high ambitions for the intimate medium of drawing as a primary site for generating meaningful and original ideas for his larger artistic enterprise As in the Lipsian realm of writing personal letters the humanist activity then described as a cognate activity to the practice of drawing a Senecan approach to eclecticism a commitment to emulation and an Aristotelian concern for joining form to content all played important roles Two chapter long studies of individual drawings serve to demonstrate the relevance of these interdisciplinary rhetorical concerns to Rubens's early practice of drawing Focusing on Rubens's Medea Fleeing with Her Dead Children Los Angeles Getty Museum and Kneeling Man Rotterdam Museum Boijmans Van Beuningen these close looking case studies demonstrate Rubens's commitments to creating new models of eloquent drawing and to highlighting his own status as an inimitable maker Demonstrating the force and quality of Rubens's intellect in the medium then most associated with the closest ideas of the artist such designs were arguably created as more robust pedagogical and preparatory models that could help strengthen art itself for a new and often troubled age Women and Portraits in Early Modern Europe Andrea Pearson, 2016-12-05 As one of the first books to treat portraits of early modern women as a discrete subject this volume considers the possibilities and limits of agency and identity for women in history and with particular attention to gender as categories of analysis for women's images Its nine original essays on Italy the Low Countries Germany France and England deepen the usefulness of these analytical tools for portraiture Among the book's broad contributions it dispels false assumptions about agency's possibilities and limits showing how agency can be located outside of conventional understanding and conversely how it can be stretched too far It demonstrates that agency is compatible with relational gender analysis especially when alternative agencies such as spectatorship are taken into account It also makes evident the importance of aesthetics for the study of identity and agency The individual essays reveal among other things how portraits broadened the traditional parameters of portraiture explored transvestism and same sex eroticism appropriated aspects of male portraiture to claim those values for their sitters and as sites for gender negotiation resistance and debate invoked considerable relational anxiety Richly layered in method the book offers an array of provocative insights into its subject Healing with Death Imagery Anees Ahmad Sheikh, Katharina Sheikh, 2018-10-26 Sages of various traditions and ages have reiterated that we must incorporate the inevitability of death into the fabric of life to experience life's breadth and beauty Imagery is an important tool in dealing with death and this book is devoted to exploring many facets of this fascinating issue It begins with an overview of ancient and modern approaches to the use of death imagery for therapeutic purposes including a discussion of its possible benefits Chapter 2 specifically exploring Stephen Levine's contributions in this area shows that only by opening up to the reality of death can one make living a conscious process of growth A number of excellent imagery based experiential exercises are discussed in detail Chapter 3 demonstrates the significance of confronting death through mental and artistic images it discusses six examples of death related religious and existential works of art Recently there has been an upsurge of interest in near death experiences and their salutary effects on attitudes beliefs and values Of particular interest here are increases in spirituality concern for others an appreciation of life and an enhanced sense of meaning and purpose in life Chapter 4 presents a detailed critical overview of this field of investigation with special emphasis on the transformatory after effects of near death experiences Of all the major religions in the world Buddhism is at the forefront of exploring the topic of death and dying and developing specific meditative exercises for confronting death Chapter 5 presents an in depth treatment of death imagery in Buddhist thought Exploring the use of hypnosis for death rehearsal Chapter 6 continues the theme that confrontation with death can lead to healthful consequences A variation of this technique hypnotic suicidal rehearsal is also discussed it seems to be effective for use with clients who are contemplating suicide Case examples clarify the details of the process Over the years several clinicians have proposed the use of imagery for reconstructing death related events and thereby facilitating the grieving process for individuals who are experiencing symptoms rooted in unfinished grieving Chapter 7 gives an exhaustive account of the use of imagery for unresolved grieving including a number of case histories Researchers have perhaps devoted more time and energy to the investigation of death anxiety than any other death related topic Chapter 8 reviews the literature on death anxiety and death imagery and demonstrates a core connection between the two phenomena The authors claim that death imagery has the potential not only to ameliorate death anxiety but also to lead to a more authentic existence In Chapter 9 the authors explain how death imagery can be used constructively in death education they present several practical suggestions and specific guided imagery exercises The volume closes with a presentation of a detailed death imagery experiential exercise aimed at encountering death to enhance our appreciation of life The reader will notice this thread running steadily throughout the book This comprehensive book devoted to the role of death imagery in health and growth perhaps the first of its kind will be helpful in changing the rather sinister view of death prevalent in our culture to a deeper appreciation for its enhancing potential
