Reflections Of A Healing Heart:

Reflections of a Healing Heart T. Monique, 2022-03-27 Healing is a process a personal process that encompasses individual strength behaviors actions and attitudes We get to decide when how and why we complete the healing process Many times we petition for God to speak to acknowledge or to send a sign for the pain challenges and places we face If we listen close enough or pay attention we will find He does send a Word through a scripture person circumstance or our own prayers Unfortunately there are times we simply miss it Times when we overlook the exact thing we asked God for and there are times when we can't recognize God's answer amid our troubles because they feel so loud big painful This compilation of Love Letters Notes of Encouragement Pivot Points and Prayers are a remembrance of God's Word speaking to the challenges pains and places over a young adult life resulting in hope encouragement and connection Through the Love Letters we see how God's love is revealed and supported by scripture In Notes of Encouragement we find God's word releasing us from the frustrations of disappointment resentment and perceived failed opportunities In Pivot Points we find God's word soothing our decisions discretions and renewing hope Finally in Prayers we find an honest conversation with the Father The reflections within the Love Letters Notes of Encouragement Pivot Points and Prayers acknowledge the hurt which began the healing process We all deserve to heal from past hurts to embrace the possibilities of future happiness Recognizing that the Father will answer that healing is possible and He wants us to be filled with the Fruit of the Spirit is a beautiful phenomenon filled with real hope There is a petition for each of you to lean in to listen for or remember when God spoke directly to your challenge pain and place Be encouraged

Anab Whitehouse, 2018-11-06 The fifty-two chapters, not counting five appendices, that make up the main body of this book encompass lectures, articles, and letters/e-mails written over a period of about eleven years, from about 1998 through 2009. The material covers a variety of thematic topics, both within Islam in general as well as in relation to its mystical dimension of tasawwuf, known in the West as the Sufi path or sufism, in particular. Taken collectively, the chapters and appendices provide a very good introduction to both the Sufi path and Islam. Daily Reflections on Addiction, Yoga, and Getting Well

Rolf Gates, 2018-09-25 Deeply personal essays and daily prompts for self-reflection while healing from addiction and walking the road of recovery from the author of Meditations from the Mat and Meditations on Intention and Being. You are a process that has called forth a teaching for this day. This teaching will not be new to you; rather, it will be reminding you of what you already know. Reminding you of who you already are. Rolf Gates, author of Meditations from the Mat, has walked the walk of the 12-step method of recovery while traveling down the Buddhist eightfold way and practicing the Eight Limbs of Classical Yoga. His integrated approach has been the key to his understanding of sobriety for over 25 years. In his series of 365 essays, Gates explores the lessons and experiences from his own practice and study, classical teachings, and his career as a teacher and coach. Each eloquent and brief essay is accompanied by a self-reflection prompt to help guide you on your journey of introspection and change. As the co-founder of the Yoga Recovery Conference at Kripalu Center for Yoga and Health and Esalen Institute, Gates has made a significant contribution to understanding the role that yoga can play in recovery from addiction. With his personalized approach to both the modern and classic teachings and by embedding it within the space of the human heart and everyday life, Gates is a solid guide to finding and living the freedom that lives within each of us.
