Economic Justice, Labor and Community Practice Louise Simmons, Scott Harding, 2013-09-13 Facing economic upheaval and growing inequality people in local communities are fighting for economic justice Coalitions from labor grassroots community organizations the faith community immigrant communities and other progressive forces are emerging across the U S and Canada and winning better jobs benefits from local development and better working conditions A multi disciplinary group of scholars and activists provide background and analysis of these struggles and offer insights into successful community practice From the vantage points of community organizing labor studies political science urban studies social policy and active practitioners this volume presents both background on the problem of economic and social inequality and portrays cases of how community practice is being redefined how unions are pursuing their goals via labor community coalitions and the issues confronted as these new and vital alliances form Community practitioners from social work urban planning active union members and leaders labor educators and those in the partnerships they have formed all will find useful insights from these analyses This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Community Practice     Social Work, Social Justice & Human Rights Colleen Lundy,2011-01-01 The second edition of this popular social work practice text more fully addresses the connection between social justice and human rights

Social Work and Restorative Justice Elizabeth Beck,Nancy P. Kropf,Pamela Blume Leonard,2010-11-11 Presents an innovative synergistic practice model that will help social workers use restorative justice skills to facilitate healing and recovery in the families and communities that they serve     Launching the War on Poverty Michael L. Gillette,2010-07-09 Oral histories and secretly recorded telephone conversations dramatically reveal how Lyndon Johnson s administration waged an unprecedented war against poverty in the 1960s     Freedom and Indigenous Constitutionalism John Borrows,2016-01-01 John Borrows uses Ojibwe law stories and principles to suggest alternative ways in which Indigenous peoples can work to enhance freedom     Settlement Houses Under Siege Michael Fabricant,Robert Fisher,2002 This book focuses on the externally driven difficulties of service workers and agencies in shaping services such as the consequences of recent conservative social policies on agency life and the way in which the present political environment influences services through privatization     Global Migration, Social Change, and Cultural Transformation E. Elliott,J. Payne,P. Ploesch,2007-11-26 The essays in this collection work toward a larger goal of separating globalization from strictly economic considerations The authors instead look at globalization as a force that produces profound social and cultural consequences including migration struggles for social change and the transformations of aesthetic practices
